2. Section 372.1 Applicability and general provisions is amended in the following particulars:

a. Paragraph (e) Orders is amended to read as follows:

§ 372.1 Applicability and general provisions. • • •

(e) Representations in license applications; orders and evidence thereof; and record-keeping requirements—(1) Orders and other material facts. No application for an export license shall be made unless and until the applicant has, supported by documentary evidence in his possession,

(i) An order for export for the commodities covered by the application.

(ii) Substantiation of the following facts relating to the purchase transaction which the applicant must disclose on the application, Form IT–419: (See Note following § 372.3 How to file an application for export license.)

Country of ultimate destination;

Names and addresses of the ultimate consignee, intermediate consignee (if any), purchaser (if other than ultimate consignee), and any other party to the purchase transaction, whether principal or agent, including but not limited to brokers, representatives or other agents through whom the order was received;

Quantity and description of the commodities to be exported;

End use of the exportation;

ECA authorization if known and applicable.

(2) Definitions—(i) Order. The term "order" as used in this section means an order for export placed with an exporter in the United States by an importer in a foreign country which, if accepted by the exporter, will result in a binding contract between the exporter and the importer. Conversely, however, an exporter's offer alone is not a basis for an application. While the terms of the order may the conditioned, such terms must be ascertainable and certain; for example, (a) the terms of payment may provide a price dependent upon the market price at the time of delivery; (b) the time or place of delivery may be dependent upon an event in the future, etc. An "order" is more than a mere business inquiry relating to the possible purchase of merchandise, although it need not be an agreement which can be presently executed. Furthermore, while orders may be conditioned upon the issuance to the exporter of an export license by the Department of Commerce or the issuance to the importer of an import permit or exchange permit by his government, or such other government document as may be required, such orders for export would still be considered as orders within the meaning of these provisions.

(ii) Evidence of an order. Evidence of an order as used in this section means any document or documents emanating from the foreign purchaser which set forth the terms and conditions of his offer to buy the materials or articles for which the export license is requested. Such evidence may take the form of a contract signed by both parties, or of letters, telegrams, cables, confirmations, or other documents which set forth in definite terms the offer of the foreign purchaser to buy or the acceptance by the foreign purchaser of the exporter's offer to sell.

(iii) Evidence of facts relating to the purchase transaction. Evidence of the facts relating to the purchase transaction means any documents emanating from the purchaser or ultimate consignee which substantiate the material statements in the application enumerated in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph. Such evidence may be contained in the document or documents constituting evidence of the order, or in additional documents emanating from the purchaser or ultimate consignee. The printed name, address, or nature of business of the ultimate consignee or purchaser appearing on his letterhead or order form shall not constitute evidence of either his identity, the country of ultimate destination or end-use of the commodities described in the application.

(3) Shipments involving other than normal purchase and sale contracts. Where the transaction between the applicant and purchaser or ultimate consignee does not involve a normal purchase and sale contract in the customary form or where for other stated reasons the term "order" as used herein does not apply, the applicant shall attach to his application a full description of the nature of the transaction.

NOTE: Where an exporter ships supplies or equipment to his foreign subsidiary or to distributors for use or resale, but it is not the practice for the subsidiary or distributor to submit or for the exporter to accept orders, documentary evidence of an order is not required. The applicant must, however, submit a full statement of the nature of the transaction or arrangement, explaining the end uses of the commodities involved. When commodities are to be exported under any other arrangement, a full statement of the nature of the transaction must likewise be submitted.

(4) Retention of documents. The documents constituting evidence of an order and of the facts relating to the purchase transaction, as defined in this section, or other transaction referred to in subparagraph (3) of this paragraph must be kept available for inspection, upon demand, by the Office of International Trade for three years from the date of receipt of the application, as shown on the acknowledgement card, Form IT–116.

NOTE: The Office of International Trade may request either the originals of the documents constituting the evidence, or photostatic or other copies thereof. The time and manner of submission will be made known to the applicant at the time the request for submission is made. Photostatic or other copies must be certified by the applicant to be true copies of the originals, as provided in § 372.9.

All abbreviations, coded terms, or other expressions having special significance in the trade or to the parties to the transaction must be explained. Documents in a foreign language must be accompanied by an accurate English translation. Such translation need not be made by a translating service, but, if not, must be certified by the applicant to be a correct translation.

(5) Changes in orders or facts relating to the purchase or other transaction. Answers to all questions in the application shall be deemed to be continuing representations of the existing facts or circumstances. Any material or substantive change in the terms of the order or in the facts relating to the purchase transaction or other transaction, shall be promptly reported to the Office of International Trade, whether a license has been granted or the application is still under consideration. If a license has been granted, such change shall be reported immediately to the Department of Commerce, in accordance with the provisions of Part 380 of this subchapter, even though shipments against the license may be partially or wholly completed.

NOTE: Change in intermediate consignee need be reported only by disclosure on shipper's export declaration as provided in item 5 of the Interpretative Statement following § 372.2, unless the Office of International Trade otherwise directs in a specific case.

Changes in facts relating to ECA authorization should be reported if such authorization was indicated in application; otherwise such disclosure should be made in the fourth copy of the shipper's export declaration, if required by terms of the license. (See § 379.1 (c) of this subchapter.)

(6) Export licenses related to complete applications. Although the export licenses issued by the Department of Commerce may not set forth all the facts relating to the export transaction that are contained in the license application and supporting documents, any validated export license issued is valid for use only with respect to the specific export transaction described in the license application and supporting documents, unless otherwise provided by the export license.

b. Paragraph (f) Amendment of license to conform with orders held is deleted.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of December 28, 1950.

3. Section 372.3 How to file an application for export license is amended in the following particulars: Two new paragraphs (d) and (e) are added to read as follows:

§ 372.3 How to file an application for export license. • • •

(d) Data supplementing the license application—(1) Statement from ultimate consignee. The applicant must attach to his license application to export any commodity to a Group R destination a true copy of a statement or order signed by the ultimate consignee named in his application, setting forth the following facts with respect to each commodity. Statements from the ultimate consignee by wire or cable may be accepted even though not signed manually.

(i) The ultimate destination of the commodity or commodities described in the application.

(ii) The end-use of such commodity or commodities, which must be a detailed description of the specific use to which the commodity or commodities will be put in the country of ultimate destination. If the ultimate consignee intends to resell, such statement must disclose whether resale will be in such country of ultimate destination to a person or persons who will consume or otherwise use the commodity or commodities in that country.

(iii) A description of the export transaction sufficient to identify it as the same transaction described in the application.

(iv) That the ultimate consignee will promptly send a supplemental statement to the United States exporter of any change of facts or intentions set forth in his statement which occur after the statement is made.

(2) Statement from foreign purchaser. If a purchaser named in any such application is a different person from the named ultimate consignee, the applicant must also attach to the application an additional statement or order (or wire or cable) executed by such purchaser covering the same subject matter as that required to be furnished by the ultimate consignee.

(3) Applications filed without statements. Applications not supplemented by statements from the ultimate consignee or purchaser will be returned without action to the applicants. However, an applicant who can show to the satisfaction of the Department of Commerce that he has made diligent efforts to obtain such statement and has been unable to get it, may so advise the Department of Commerce in a letter attached to his application, giving the stated reasons of the ultimate consignee or purchaser for failing or refusing to give the applicant such statement.

NOTE: 1. Purchase order. The statement from the ultimate consignee and purchaser may cover more than one purchase order and one purchase order may involve several commodities; however, the statement shall relate only to purchase orders placed by a single ultimate consignee and a single purchaser with a single United States exporter.

2. Submission of statements covering several applications. Where the statement covers commodities for which more than one export license application must be submitted, a true copy of the statement shall be attached to each application to which it is equally applicable. Any application to which a true copy of the statement is attached shall contain a reference (OIT Case Number, if known, or applicant's reference number) to all other applications submitted at any time against the same statement.

3. True copies and translation requirements. "True copies" are photostatic or other copies of an original document which are certified by the applicant, either on the face of the copy or on an attachment, to be a true copy. All abbreviations, coded terms, or other expressions having special significance in the trade or to the parties to the transaction must be explained. Documents in a foreign language must be accompanied by an accurate English translation. Such translation need not be made by a translating service, but, if not, must be certified by the applicant to be a correct translation. See § 372.9.

4. Applicant's responsibility for full disclosure. In submitting statements from the ultimate consignee and foreign purchaser, the applicant is not relieved of responsibility for full disclosure of any other information concerning the ultimate destination and end use of which he has knowledge or belief, whether or not inconsistent with the representations of the ultimate consignee or foreign purchaser. In accordance with the provisions of § 381.1 of this subchapter, the applicant also shall bring to the attention of the Department of Commerce any change in the facts which were set forth in the first or any such supplementary statements from the ultimate consignee or purchaser and which change was brought to his notice by the ultimate consignee or purchaser subsequent to the date the statement was made.

(e) Letterheads and order forms. The printed name, address, or nature of business of the ultimate consignee or purchaser appearing on his letterhead or order form shall not constitute evidence of either his identity, the country of ultimate destination or end-use of the commodities described in the application.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of January 27, 1951.

4. Section 372.12 Weight and volume tolerance is amended in the following particulars:

a. Paragraphs (a) and (c) are amended to read as follows:

§ 372.12 Weight and volume tolerance—(a) 10 percent tolerance. For all commodities requiring an export license, unless otherwise specified in such license, a 10 percent tolerance by weight or volume over the amount specified in the license is allowed, except as listed below in this section:

Commodities	Tolerance (percent)

(c) Partial shipments. Whenever one or more partial shipments of the licensed commodity have been made, the license remains valid only for the unshipped balance of the licensed commodity plus 10 percent of such balance, except that in the case of shipments of iron and steel products (processing code STEE), and tinplate (processing code TNPL), the tolerance of 10 percent shall be applicable as provided in paragraph (c) of this section, regardless of whether partial shipments are made. In the case of raw cotton, except linters, the tolerance shall be 2 percent of the actual quantity stated on the license.

NOTE: When shipments are cleared against a BLT license, the applicable tolerance may be applied to the quantity approved for export to each single consignee: Provided, however, That the total amount shipped against the license does not exceed the total amount approved for export plus 10 percent. In other words, the tolerance provisions may be applied on the amount approved for each consignee in the same manner and to the same extent as if he were the only consignee named in an individual license.

b. Paragraph (f) Units other than weight or volume is deleted.

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of January 5, 1951.

5. Section 374.51, Supplement 1; list of restricted commodities, is amended by adding thereto the following commodities:

Positive List commodities	Effective date
Antiknock compounds, not of petroleum origin: Schedule B No. 829910	Jan. 15, 1951

This part of the amendment shall become effective as of January 15, 1951.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

Subchapter A—Civil Air Regulations

[Supp. 3, Amdt. 8]

PART 60—AIR TRAFFIC RULES

STANDARD INSTRUMENT APPROACH PROCEDURES

Under sections 205 and 601 of the Civil Aeronautics Act of 1938, as amended, the Civil Aeronautics Board is empowered to delegate to the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics the authority to prescribe rules, regulations, and standards which promote safety of flight in air commerce, and the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics is empowered to make and amend such general or special rules, regulations, and procedures as he deems necessary to exercise and perform his powers and duties under the act. Under § 60.46 of the Civil Air Regulations the Civil Aeronautics Board has authorized the Administrator of Civil Aeronautics to prescribe standard instrument approach procedures.

Acting pursuant to the foregoing statutes and regulations, standard instrument approach procedures were prescribed. Those procedures are hereby amended. This amendment is made effective without delay, in order to promote safety of the flying public. Compliance with the notice, procedures, and effective date provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act would be impracticable and contrary to the public interest, and therefore is not required.

AUTHORITY: §§ 20.300 to 20.308 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105.

§ 20.300 Directives to be issued. Directives will be issued by NPA to direct certain steel producers to accept certified orders from manufacturers of freight cars and components in Canada and the United States, for the production and delivery of steel for the construction of freight cars as part of the Canadian Freight Car Program. The directives will specify the tonnage of each steel product to be shipped in the months referred to therein. "The Canadian Freight Car Program" means the construction of freight cars for the needs of the railroads of the Dominion of Canada, to be built by manufacturers in Canada, as approved by the Projects Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa, Canada.

§ 20.301 Steel products to which §§ 20.300 to 20.308 apply. The following steel products are those to which §§ 20.300 to 20.308 will apply: plates, structural shapes (including special sections), bar-size shapes, and hot rolled sheet and strip.

§ 20.302 Applications for participation in program. Persons engaged in the construction of freight cars and components for the Canadian Freight Car Program who require steel from steel producers in the United States for the construction of such freight cars, may make application to the Projects Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa, Canada.

§ 20.303 Statement of details of program. No directives will be issued by NPA under §§ 20.300 to 20.308 until a statement has been received from the Projects Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa, Canada, and concurred in by Defense Transport Administration, which specifies in detail the names of the manufacturers who will be authorized to participate under this program and the amount of steel by specific type for which each such manufacturer will be authorized to place certified orders with steel producers in the United States, for shipment in any one month.

§ 20.304 Form of certification. In order to place an order for steel with a producer of steel in the United States participating under the Canadian Freight Car Program, a manufacturer of freight cars and components thereunder shall place the following certification on his purchase order or on a separate piece of paper attached thereto: "Certified that the material called for in this order conforms with an authorization received from DTA and is to be used only for the Canadian Freight Car Program under NPA Suppl. 3, Order M–1." Such certification shall be signed by an authorized representative of the person placing such order. Such certification shall bear a statement from the Projects Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa, Canada, of its approval of such certified order.

§ 20.305 Use of steel so obtained. Steel obtained under the Canadian Freight Car Program pursuant to §§ 20.300 to 20.308 shall be used only for the construction of freight cars as approved by the Projects Division, Department of Trade and Commerce, Ottawa, Canada and as ordered and scheduled for construction prior to the date of §§ 20.300 to 20.308.

§ 20.306 Rejection of certified orders. Producers of steel need not accept a certified order under the Canadian Freight Car Program which was received less than 45 days prior to the first day of the month in which shipment was requested unless specifically instructed to accept the order by the NPA.

§ 20.307 Effect of directives. When steel production has been scheduled pursuant to directives issued under §§ 20.300 to 20.308, such schedules shall be maintained by the steel producers unless otherwise directed by the NPA. Steel delivered under directives issued pursuant to §§ 20.300 to 20.308 shall not be considered produced under rated orders for the purpose of determining producers obligation under § 20.5 of NPA Order M–1 as amended.

§ 20.308 NPA assistance in placing orders under §§ 20.300 to 20.308. Any person who is unable to place a certified order for steel pursuant to §§ 20.300 to 20.308 should apply to the NPA, Iron and Steel Division, Ref. Supp. 3 to Order M–1, specifying the producers who refused to accept this order. The NPA will arrange to assist him in locating sources of supply.

Sections 20.300 to 20.308 shall take effect on December 15, 1950.

This order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority granted by section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives has been rendered impracticable due to the necessity for immediate action.

73.4 Inventories.
73.5 Restriction on sales of bristles.
73.6 Limitation on bristles to be processed.
73.7 Prohibited deliveries.
73.8 Application for adjustment or exception.
73.9 Communications.
73.10 Records.
73.11 Audit and inspection.
73.12 Violations.

AUTHORITY: §§ 73.1 to 73.12 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105.

§ 73.1 What this part does. This part sets forth limitations on inventories of bristles. It calls for reports and explains the conditions under which reports are required in connection with the importation, distribution, use and inventories of bristles. It imposes limitations on the processing, mixing or preparation for manufacture of bristles.

§ 73.2 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Bristles" means pigs' or hogs' bristles, including riflings, two inches and longer, whether new, reclaimed, raw, dressed, imported or domestic.

(c) "Dealer" means a person who regularly purchases and sells bristles without processing or changing their condition.

(d) "Dresser" means a person who grades, sorts, dresses, reclaims or in any way processes bristles.

(e) "Process" means to boil, sterilize, comb or mix bristles.

(f) "Import" means to transport in any manner into the Continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States. It includes shipments into a free port, free zone or bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the Continental United States and shipments into the Continental United States for processing or manufacture in bond for exportation. "Import" does not include shipments in transit in bond through the Continental United States, without processing or manufacture, to Canada, Mexico or any other foreign country, or shipments through a free port or free zone to a foreign country without processing or manufacture. However, if any material in such shipments in transit in bond is, because of a change in plans, to be sold or used in the Continental United States, or subjected to processing or manufacture in the Continental United States, it becomes an "import" for the purposes of this order and requires the reports specified in § 73.3.

§ 73.3 Reports. (a) Any person who imports, distributes or has in his possession bristles for the purpose of manufacture of brushes or other products containing bristles or who otherwise may have bristles in his possession, must report his entries, receipts, deliveries, inventories, balance of entries and all other transactions in bristles, by completing and filing report Form NPAF–14 on or before the 10th day of January 1951, with respect to all such operations and transactions and as to the status of his inventory of bristles as of December 31, 1950.

(b) Other reports. Other persons having any interest in, or taking any action with respect to the importation of bristles or having control over bristles while they are physically in the Continental United States, even though in bond or in transit, except common carrier, whether as owner, agent, consignee or otherwise having bristles in his possession or under his control shall file the report called for in § 73.3 (a) and such other reports as may be required from time to time by the National Production Authority subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act (P. L. 831–77 Cong. 5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this part have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 73.4 Inventories. No person obtaining bristles for use in the manufacture of brushes or other products containing bristles, or for the processing of bristles for such manufacture, shall receive or accept deliveries of a quantity of such bristles if his inventory of such bristles is, or by such receipt would become, more than the smallest quantity that would be required by his scheduled method and rate of operations for the manufacture of brushes or other products containing bristles during the thirty day period succeeding the effective date of this part, or in excess of a "practicable minimum working inventory" as defined in Part 10 of this chapter (NPA Reg. 1), whichever is less.

§ 73.5 Restriction on sales of bristles. No person may sell bristles except to a dealer, dresser of bristles or to a manufacturer of brushes or products containing bristles.

§ 73.6 Limitation on bristles to be processed. No person engaged in the manufacture of brushes or other products containing bristles shall process, mix or prepare for the manufacture of brushes or products containing bristles or shall have in his possession at any one time more than the total quantity of bristles, whether processed, mixed or otherwise prepared for use, than is required by him to continue his current rated production brushes or products containing bristles for a period in excess of fifteen days.

§ 73.7 Prohibited deliveries. No person shall accept an order for, sell, deliver or cause to be delivered bristles which he knows, or has reason to believe, will be accepted, held or used in violation of the provisions of this part.

§ 73.8 Application for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this part may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In considering requests for adjustment claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this part, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

§ 73.9 Communications. All communications concerning this part shall be addressed to National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: Order M18.

§ 73.10 Records. Each person participating in any transaction covered by this part shall retain in his possession for at least two years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this part have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

§ 73.11 Audit and inspection. All records required by this part shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority.

§ 73.12 Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this part or any other order or regulation of the National Production Authority or wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this part is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

This order shall take effect on December 21, 1950.

[SEAL] W. H. HARRISON,
Administrator.

TITLE 50—WILDLIFE

Chapter I—Fish and Wildlife Service, Department of the Interior

Subchapter C—Management of Wildlife Conservation Areas

PART 34—SOUTHEASTERN REGION

SUBPART—CAROLINA SANDHILLS NATIONAL WILDLIFE REFUGE, SOUTH CAROLINA; HUNTING

Basis and purpose. It has been determined from observations and reports by field representatives of the Fish and Wildlife Service that there are seasonal surpluses of game birds and mammals on the Carolina Sandhills National Refuge that can best be utilized through public hunting and that the regulations heretofore in effect have been unnecessarily restrictive for the conducting of such public hunts.

Inasmuch as the following regulations are relaxations of the present restrictions governing hunting on the Refuge, publication prior to the effective date thereof is not required. (60 Stat. 237, 5 U. S. C. 1001 et seq.)

Effective immediately upon publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, the following revisions are made:

1. The subheading "Hunting of Quail" is hereby changed to "Hunting".

2. Sections 34.37 and 34.39 are revised to read as follows:

§ 34.37 Hunting permitted. Until further notice the controlled public hunting of quail, squirrels, raccoons, opossums, bobcats, and foxes is permitted in accordance with State law and regulation, at such times and under such restrictions as are determined annually by the officer in charge of the Carolina Sandhills National Wildlife Refuge to be in accord with the proper management of wildlife on the refuge, subject to the provisions of Parts 18 and 21 of this chapter and of §§ 34.38 to 34.45, inclusive.

§ 34.39 State game laws. Any person hunting within the refuge must comply with the applicable State laws and regulations and shall be in possession of a valid State hunting license, if such license is required. When requested to do so by any authorized State or Federal officer, the hunter must exhibit for inspection by such officer such license and also all game killed by the hunter or in his possession.

3. Sections 34.40, 34.41, and 34.42 are deleted and in lieu thereof the following sections are added:

§ 34.40 Special hunting permits. Each person hunting on the refuge, except persons participating with groups in the night hunting of raccoons and opossums, shall first have received a permit from the officer in charge of the refuge specifying the area and period in which the hunting may be conducted.

§ 34.41 Dogs. Each person hunting for quail on the public hunting ground will be permitted to take his dogs, not to exceed two in number, upon the refuge, but such dogs will not be permitted to run at large on the public shooting ground or elsewhere on the refuge. Persons engaged in the night hunting of raccoons and opossums on the public hunting ground will be permitted to take hunting dogs upon such area, provided a permit shall first have been secured from the officer in charge specifying the number of dogs that will be used, the area in which hunting may be conducted, and the period during which such dogs shall be allowed on the refuge. Dogs used for raccoon and opossum hunting on the refuge shall not be permitted to run at large on the public hunting ground or elsewhere on the refuge. The use of dogs otherwise is prohibited.

VOLUNTARY PLAN FOR THE CONTRIBUTION OF TANKER CAPACITY FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE REQUIREMENTS

NOTICE OF PUBLIC HEARING

In order to fulfill the objectives of Public Law 774, 81st Congress, and acting under the authority vested in me by Executive Order 10161 (15 F. R. 6105),

Notice is hereby given that a public hearing will be held on Thursday, the 18th day of January 1951, at 10 a. m., e. s. t., in the Auditorium on the street floor of the Department of Commerce Building, Fourteenth Street between E Street and Constitution Avenue, in the city of Washington, D. C., for the purpose of affording to industry, labor, and the public generally an opportunity to present their views with respect to the proposed Voluntary Plan under Public Law 774, 81st Congress, for the contribution of tanker capacity for national defense requirements, of which Plan a draft is set forth in Appendix A hereto (subject to further revision at and subsequent to the public hearing).

The proposed Plan has been formulated after consulting with representatives of the various industries involved, of the Department of Defense, of the Department of the Interior, of the Federal Trade Commission, of the Department of Justice, and of the Maritime Administration.

Any person desiring to participate in said public hearing shall file a written notice of appearance with the Secretary of the Maritime Administration, Room 4850, Department of Commerce Building, Washington 25, D. C., not later than 5 p. m., e. s. t., on Tuesday, the 16th day of January 1951. Persons desiring to present written statements or memoranda should submit them in triplicate at the hearing.

APPENDIX A

VOLUNTARY PLAN UNDER PUBLIC LAW 774, 81ST CONGRESS, FOR THE CONTRIBUTION OF TANKER CAPACITY FOR NATIONAL DEFENSE REQUIREMENTS

JANUARY 4, 1951.

The Secretary of Commerce, pursuant to authority vested in him by Public Law 774, 81st Congress, and Executive Order 10161, after consultation with representatives of the tanker industry, and after expression of the views of industry, labor, and the public generally at an open public hearing held on January 18, 1951, has determined that the following plan of voluntary action is practicable and is appropriate to the successful carrying out of the policies set forth in Public Law 774:

1. What this Plan does. This Plan sets up the procedure under which the owners and charterers of oil tankers (hereinafter called Participants) agree voluntarily to make tankers and tanker space available to the Department of Defense and to other Participants at the request of the Maritime Administrator, hereinafter referred to as the "Administrator," and as provided for in the Plan. The Plan provides for the pro rata contribution of tanker capacity to the Department of Defense, at charter rates determined by the Administrator, in such a way as to distribute the burden of such contributions among all the Participants in the Plan in mathematical proportion to each Participant's "controlled tonnage" as hereinafter defined.

2. Agreement by participants. Each Participant hereby agrees to contribute, pursuant to the provisions of the Plan, tanker capacity as requested by the Administrator at such times and in such amounts as the Administrator shall determine to be necessary to meet the essential needs of the Department of Defense for the transportation of petroleum products by sea.

3. Administration of Plan. The Plan shall be administered by a "Tanker Requirements Chairman", hereinafter referred to as the Chairman, who shall be a full-time employee of the Maritime Administration. He shall administer the Plan with the advice of a "Tanker Requirements Committee", hereinafter referred to as the Committee appointed by the Administrator from the tanker industry. The Chairman and the Committee shall assist the Maritime Administrator in obtaining for the Department of Defense the use of such industry tankers as may be required by such Department. The Chairman with the advice of the Committee shall also apportion the contribution of tanker capacity under the Plan among the Participants hereto, in accordance with the formula set forth in Paragraph 4 below and the Participants agree that they will make available such tanker capacity as requested by the Administrator either by charters directly to the Department of Defense, or to other Participants in the Plan.

4. Pro rata contribution. Each Participant hereto agrees to contribute tanker capacity under the Plan in the proportion that its "controlled tonnage" bears to the total "controlled tonnage" subject to the Plan.

"Controlled tonnage" shall mean the total carrying capacity, expressed in terms of 30° gravity crude oil, Port Arthur/New York, of all tankers of over 6000 tons dead-weight capacity which are:

(a) Owned by a Participant if under U. S. Flag Registry, plus

(b) On charter to such Participant for a period of six (6) months or more from the effective date of this Plan, regardless of the flag of registry, less

(c) Chartered out to others for a period of six (6) months or more from the effective date of this Plan.

The obligations of the various Participants to contribute tanker capacity under the Plan shall be calculated on a pro rata basis among the Participants by the Chairman with the advice of the Committee as soon as possible after the effective date of the Plan. Such calculations shall be revised thereafter at six (6) months' intervals and such revised calculations shall take into account any charters for a period of six (6) months or more made by Participants during the preceding six (6) months' period in determining the respective obligations for the succeeding six (6) months.

5. Rates of charter hire under Plan. Charters of vessels made at the request of the Maritime Administration, pursuant to the Plan, shall be made at a fair and equitable rate to be determined by the Administrator after consultation with the Committee and the Department of Defense, and such rate shall govern in all transactions among the Participants in the Plan insofar as operations under the Plan are concerned.

6. Reports from Participants. Each Participant shall, upon request of the Chairman, submit, in such form as may be requested, to the Maritime Administration reports setting forth information as to "controlled tonnage" necessary for the administration of Paragraph 4 of the Plan.

7. Procedure for and effect of becoming participant. After approval of this Plan by the Attorney General and by the Secretary of Commerce, and after requests for compliance with it have been made of tanker owners and charterers by the Secretary of Commerce, any such owner or charterer may become a Participant in this Plant by advising the Administrator in writing of its acceptance of such request. Such requests for compliance will be effective for the purpose of granting certain immunity from the anti-trust laws and the Federal Trade Commission Act, as provided in section 708 (b) of Public Law 774, only with respect to such tanker owners and charterers as notify the Administrator in writing that they will comply with such request.

8. Effective date and duration. This Plan shall become effective upon the date of its final approval by the Secretary of Commerce. It shall cease to be effective at the close of June 30, 1952, unless the time limitation now specified in section 716 (a) of Public Law 774, 81st Congress, is extended or otherwise changed by legislative action in a form which permits continuation of this Plan. However, the Plan may be terminated at any time as may be determined by the Secretary of Commerce upon not less than 60 days' notice by letter, telegram, or publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

9. Withdrawal from Plan. Any Participant may withdraw from this Plan subject to the fulfillment of obligations incurred under this Plan prior to the date such withdrawal becomes effective, by giving not less than 60 days' written notice to the Administrator.

10. Duration of immunities. In the event of termination of this Plan and in the event of the withdrawal of any Participant, the immunities referred to in Paragraph 7 hereof shall extend to the fulfillment and receipt of obligations after the effective date of such termination or withdrawal as the case may be, incurred pursuant to this Plan.

("Middle South"), a registered holding company, having filed an application pursuant to the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly section 9 (a) (1) thereof, with respect to the following proposed transactions:

Gentilly's principal asset consists of a tract of undeveloped real estate in the City of New Orleans, Louisiana. Gentilly's only outstanding securities consist of common stock, all of which is owned by Middle South. Middle South and Gentilly have previously indicated that it is their purpose to reduce Gentilly's assets to cash, and thereafter liquidate the company.

Gentilly has entered into a contract to sell all of its remaining land to W. H. Crawford and R. A. Toups, both of the State of Louisiana, and their assignee, Gentilly Homes, Inc., a Louisiana corporation which is a wholly owned subsidiary of Crawford Corporation, a Delaware corporation, the controlling interest in which latter company is owned by Crawford and Toups. The contract provides for the sale by Gentilly of its property in two tracts, the one to be purchased by Gentilly Homes, Inc. for the purpose of developing a residential housing project, and the other to Crawford and Toups, as individuals, to be developed for commercial purposes. The purchase price of the residential property is stated to be $700,000, to be paid by $85,000 in cash, the balance to be represented by a promissory note of Gentilly Homes, Inc. to Gentilly in the amount of $615,000. The purchase price of the commercial property is $200,000, to be paid by $5,000 in cash, the balance to be represented by a promissory note of Crawford and Toups in the amount of $195,000. Such notes will bear interest at the rate of 4 percent per annum and will mature 24 months from the date of conveyance. The notes will be secured by a vendor's lien and a first mortgage upon the respective parcels of property. In addition, the mortgage upon the commercial property will secure the note issued in payment for the residential property. It is further provided that the notes will be extended for an additional two years in the event that development of the projects is delayed through inability to obtain commitments or materials.

Applicant having also requested that the Commission's Order contain recitals in accordance with the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, including section 1808 (f) and Supplement R thereof; and

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and subject to the terms and conditions contained in Rule U-24 that the said application be, and the same hereby is, granted effective forthwith; and

It is further ordered and recited, That the proposed transactions are necessary or appropriate to the integration or simplification of the holding company system, of which Gentilly and Middle South are members, and necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of subsection (b) of section 11 of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935.

MICHIGAN CONSOLIDATED GAS CO. AND AUSTIN FIELD PIPE LINE CO.

ORDER GRANTING AND PERMITTING APPLICATION-DECLARATION TO BECOME EFFECTIVE

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 2d day of January A. D. 1951.

The Commission, by order issued December 30, 1947, having approved a plan, filed pursuant to section 11 (e) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), by The United Light and Railways Company ("Railways") and American Light and Traction Company (now American Natural Gas Company—"American Natural"), registered holding companies, which plan provides, inter alia, for the construction by Austin Field Pipe Line Company ("Austin"), a wholly owned subsidiary of Michigan Consolidated Gas Company ("Michigan Consolidated"), a subsidiary of American Natural, of a 24-inch natural gas pipeline, together with appurtenant facilities, extending from the Austin natural gas storage field located in West Central Michigan, owned by Michigan Consolidated, to the city of Detroit; said plan having also provided that the pipeline and facilities would be transferred from Austin to Michigan-Wisconsin Pipe Line Company ("Michigan-Wisconsin"), a subsidiary of American Natural, at the depreciated cost thereof, on or before December 31, 1951, and that following such transfer Austin would be dissolved; and

The Commission, in connection with the approval of said plan, having found that said pipeline and appurtenant facilities together with the facilities to be constructed by Michigan-Wisconsin could be retained by American Natural together with the integrated natural gas system consisting of Michigan Consolidated and Milwaukee Gas Light Company ("Milwaukee"); and

Michigan Consolidated and Austin having filed a joint application-declaration, pursuant to sections 9 (b) (1), 12 (c) and 12 (f) of the act and Rules U-42 and U-43 promulgated thereunder, proposing to effect the liquidation and dissolution of Austin and the acquisition of its assets by Michigan Consolidated in exchange for the surrender by Michigan Consolidated for cancellation of all of the outstanding common stock of Austin, the cancellation of $7,295,039 of open account indebtedness owing by Austin to Michigan Consolidated, and the assumption by Michigan Consolidated, of all of the liabilities of Austin. The facilities of Austin, excepting the 3,000 horsepower compressor station and the dehydration plant, are now being and will, upon consummation of the proposed transactions, continue to be operated by Michigan Consolidated. The compressor station and dehydration plant located at the storage field are now being and will continue to be operated under lease by Michigan-Wisconsin, as a part of its interstate pipeline facilities supplying Michigan Consolidated, Milwaukee, and other markets. It is stated that the properties of Austin were constructed in the years 1947 and 1948, are carried at original cost, and will be recorded in the accounts of Michigan Consolidated on the same basis; and

It appearing that upon consummation of the proposed transactions Austin's pipeline and appurtenant facilities are to be owned by Michigan Consolidated, rather than by Michigan-Wisconsin as originally contemplated, and that the corporate structure of the system will be simplified by the elimination of Austin pursuant to the aforesaid plan; and

Said joint application-declaration having been filed December 4, 1950 and notice of said filing having been duly given in the form and manner prescribed by Rule U-23 promulgated pursuant to the act, and the Commission not having received a request for a hearing with respect to said joint application-declaration within the period specified in said notice, or otherwise, and not having ordered a hearing thereon; and

It appearing that the proposed transactions are subject to the jurisdiction of the Michigan Public Service Commission and the Federal Power Commission, that said transactions have been authorized by the Michigan Public Service Commission, and that applicants-declarants have undertaken to file in this proceeding a copy of the order of the Federal Power Commission when issued; and

Said application-declaration stating that the estimated fees and expenses to be incurred and paid in connection with the proposed transactions aggregate $2,700 consisting of miscellaneous expenses of $700 and legal fees of $2,000, payable $500 to Dyer, Angell, Meek & Batten, $500 to Wheat, May and Shannon, and $1,000 to Sidley, Austin, Burgess and Smith, and it appearing that said fees and expenses are not unreasonable if they do not exceed the estimates; and

The Commission finding with respect to said joint application-declaration that no basis exists for adverse findings, that the requirements of the applicable provisions of the act and rules promulgated thereunder are satisfied, and deeming it appropriate in the public interest and in the interest of investors and consumers that said joint application-declaration be granted and permitted to become effective; and

Applicants-declarants having requested that the Commission issue an order, to become effective upon its issuance, granting and permitting the application-declaration to become effective, and the Commission deeming it appropriate to grant such request; and

Applicants having requested that the Commission's order herein contain appropriate recitals conforming to the requirements of Supplement R and section 1808 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, with respect to the several proposed transactions incident to the liquidation and dissolution of Austin and the acquisition of its assets by Michigan Consolidated, and the Commission deeming it appropriate to grant such request:

It is ordered, Pursuant to Rule U-23 and the applicable provisions of the act, and subject to the terms and conditions prescribed in Rule U-24, that the said joint application-declaration be and it hereby is granted and permitted to become effective, subject to the condition that the proposed transactions not be consummated until applicants-declarants have obtained from the Federal Power Commission the requisite authorization or approval.

It is further ordered and recited, That the following transactions referred to in the application-declaration are necessary or appropriate to effectuate the provisions of section 11 (b) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935:

The liquidation and dissolution of Austin and all exchanges, distributions, transfers and conveyances of stock, securities, real estate and other property in connection with or incident to such liquidation and dissolution, including (a) the transfer and conveyance by Austin to Michigan Consolidated, in exchange for common stock of Austin surrendered for cancellation by Michigan Consolidated and the cancellation or assumption by Michigan Consolidated of all outstanding indebtedness of Austin, of all property and assets of Austin of whatever character, including (i) a 24-inch gas transmission pipeline, approximately 140 miles in length, connecting the Austin gas storage field in west central Michigan with Michigan Consolidated's distribution facilities in its Detroit District, (ii) a 3,000 hp. compressor station and dehydration plant at the Austin field, (iii) a gas measuring and regulating station at the eastern terminus of the aforesaid gas transmission pipeline, (iv) all real estate and interests in real estate, including all pipeline easements and rights of way, and (v) all other property, real, personal or mixed, wherever located, and (b) the transfer by Michigan Consolidated to Austin of the 30,000 shares of common stock of the par value of $100 per share of Austin now owned by Michigan Consolidated (evidenced by Certificate Nos. 7 and 8), for cancellation and extinguishment and the cancellation or assumption by Michigan Consolidated of all outstanding indebtedness of Austin, in exchange for the properties and assets of Austin to be transferred and conveyed to Michigan Consolidated in liquidation of Austin, as mentioned above.

It is further ordered, That this order shall become effective upon its issuance.

By the Commission.

FEDERAL REGISTER

VOLUME 16 NUMBER 6

Washington, Wednesday, January 10, 1951

TITLE 17—COMMODITY AND SECURITIES EXCHANGES

PART 250—GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS, PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

REGISTRATION AND GENERAL EXEMPTIONS

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 3 (a), 3 (d) and 20 (a) thereof, and deeming such action appropriate, in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers, hereby amends § 250.3 (Rule U-3) of the general rules and regulations under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, by deleting from paragraph (a) of the rule the words "filing of statements required by" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "requirements contained in"; by deleting from subparagraph (2) of paragraph (a) the words "has acquired" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "holds"; by inserting at the beginning of paragraph (b) the words "subject to the requirements contained in paragraph (c)"; and by deleting from paragraph (c) all of the second sentence following the word "however" and inserting in lieu thereof the words "with respect to any security holdings as to which such form is inappropriate by its provisions".

The amendment of § 250.3 is of such nature that it appears improbable its adoption will be objectionable to any person. The Commission, therefore, finds that the preliminary notice and public procedure provided for in section 4 (a) and (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act are unnecessary and declares the amendment of Rule U-3 and adoption of the revised Form U-3A3-1 [1] effective immediately pursuant to section 4 (c) of that act, subject, however, to reconsideration at the end of 30 days in the event any significant comments or criticisms have been received with respect to the rule or the form. Any such comments or criticisms should be addressed to the Secretary of the Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C.

The text of the rule as modified is as follows:

§ 250.3 Exemption of certain banks—(a) General exemption. Subject to the provisions of § 250.6 (Rule U-6) and to the requirements contained in paragraph (c) of this section, any bank shall be exempt from any obligation, duty, or liability imposed by the act upon such bank as a holding company solely by reason of such bank owning, controlling, or holding with power to vote any securities of any public-utility or holding company which the bank:

(1) Holds as collateral for a bona fide debt; or

(2) Holds in the ordinary course of its business as a fiduciary; or

(3) Has acquired solely for purposes of liquidation in connection with a bona fide debt previously contracted and has owned beneficially for a period of not more than two years.

(b) Exemption from section 9 (a) (2). Subject to the requirements contained in paragraph (c) of this section, any bank shall be exempt from section 9 (a) (2) of the act with respect to the acquisition of any securities by such bank:

(1) As collateral for a bona fide debt; or

(2) Solely for purposes of liquidation in connection with a bona fide debt previously contracted; or

(3) In the ordinary course of its business as a fiduciary; or

(4) Which is not a voting security or convertible into a voting security.

(c) Statements. Any bank claiming exemption pursuant to the provisions of this section shall file a statement on Form U-3A3-1 (17 CFR 259.403) within 30 days after the last day of February of each year. No such statement is required, however, with respect to any security holdings as to which such form is inapplicable by its provisions.

(d) Definition of bank. The term "bank", as used in this section, means any company primarily engaged in business as a commercial bank or trust com-

PART 259—FORMS PRESCRIBED UNDER THE PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANY ACT OF 1935

FORMS FOR STATEMENTS AND REPORTS FROM NONREGISTERED (EXEMPT) COMPANIES

The Securities and Exchange Commission, acting pursuant to authority conferred upon it by the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935, particularly sections 3 (a), 3 (d) and 20 (a) thereof, and deeming such action appropriate in the public interest and for the protection of investors and consumers, hereby adopts a revised Form U-3A3-1[1] (17 CFR 259.403) which conforms to the requirements of § 250.3 (Rule U-3) as amended.[2]

The amendment of § 250.3 (Rule U-3) is of such nature that it appears improbable its adoption will be objectionable to any person. The Commission, therefore, finds that the preliminary notice and public procedure provided for in section 4 (a) and (b) of the Administrative Procedure Act are unnecessary and declares the amendment of Rule U-3 and adoption of the revised Form U-3A3-1 effective immediately pursuant to section 4 (c) of that act, subject, however, to reconsideration at the end of 30 days in the event any significant comments or criticisms have been received with respect to the rule or the form. Any such comments or criticisms should be addressed to the Secretary of the Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C.

Copies of the revised Form U-3A3-1 may be obtained by addressing a request therefor to the Publications Unit, Division of Administrative Services, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street, NW., Washington 25, D. C.

Effective December 29, 1950.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

PART 10—INVENTORY CONTROL

IRON AND STEEL SCRAP

CROSS REFERENCE: Part 24 of this chapter (infra) supplements Part 10 (NPA Reg. 1) with respect to iron and steel scrap, and supersedes that part to the extent that it is inconsistent with Part 24.

[NPA Order M-20]

PART 24—IRON AND STEEL SCRAP

This order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority granted by section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order consultation with industry representatives has been rendered impracticable due to the necessity for immediate action and because the order affects a large number of users in different trades and industries.

Sec.
24.1 What this part does.
24.2 Definitions.
24.3 Persons affected by this part.
24.4 Limitations on inventories.
24.5 Application for adjustment or exception.
24.6 Communications.
24.7 Records.
24.8 Audit and inspection.
24.9 Violations.

AUTHORITY: §§ 24.1 to 24.9 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105.

§ 24.1 What this part does. This part establishes specific inventory limitations for iron and steel scrap. It thus supplements Part 10 of this chapter (NPA Reg. 1) but supersedes Part 10 only insofar as inconsistent therewith.

§ 24.2 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Scrap" means all ferrous materials, either alloyed or unalloyed, of which iron or steel is the principal component, which are the waste of industrial fabrication or objects that have been discarded on account of absolescence, failure or other reasons, including therein iron and steel rail and axles for rerolling purposes.

§ 24.3 Persons affected by this part. This part applies to persons engaged in the business of scrap dealers, scrap brokers, automobile wreckers or producers of scrap. It does not extend to those engaged in demolition, ship breaking or other long-term projects.

§ 24.4 Limitations on inventories. No person as referred to in § 24.3, in any 60-day period, may receive delivery of any iron and steel scrap the total of which will have the effect of increasing his inventory position beyond a minimum practicable working inventory or beyond the average of his inventory position during the last preceding 60-day period, whichever is the lesser: Provided, however, That the prohibition set forth in this section shall not extend to those engaged in normal seasonal accumulation of iron and steel scrap for subsequent water shipments.

§ 24.5 Application for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this part may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In considering requests for adjustment claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this part, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

§ 24.6 Communications. All communications concerning this part shall be addressed to National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: Order M–20.

§ 24.7 Records. Each person participating in any transaction covered by this part shall retain in his possession for at least two years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this part have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

§ 24.8 Audit and inspection. All records required by this part shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority.

SOUTHWESTERN VIRGINIA GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JANUARY 4, 1951.

Take notice that on December 18, 1950, Southwestern Virginia Gas Transmission Company (Applicant), a Virginia corporation with its principal place of business in Martinsville, Virginia, filed an application for (1) a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 (c) of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of certain natural gas transmission pipeline facilities for the purpose of supplying natural gas to serve Southwestern Virginia Gas Company for distribution in the City of Martinsville, Virginia, and vicinity; and (2) for an order under section 7 (a) of the act directing Transcontinental Gas Pipe Line Corporation to establish physical connection of its transportation facilities with the proposed facilities of Applicant and to supply natural gas to Applicant for ultimate distribution in Martinsville and vicinity.

Applicant proposes to construct and operate a pipe line approximately 16.8 miles in length extending from the 30-inch main gas transmission line of Transcontinental at a point north of the North Carolina-Virginia State line to a point at or near the southeast corner of the City of Martinsville, Virginia, together with a regulating station and appurtenant facilities.

Applicant recites that it does not have an agreement with Transcontinental for a supply of gas for distribution in the Martinsville area but that Transcontinental has entered into a commitment with the Southwestern Virginia Gas Company for a supply of 400 Mcf per day. The application further sets forth that on November 16, 1950, the Presiding Examiner in the proceeding in Docket No. G-1411, in his decision found that present and future public convenience and necessity require that Transcontinental make available to Southwestern Virginia Gas Company at a point on its line convenient to Martinsville, Virginia, up to 500 Mcf of natural gas per day and in said decision authorized Transcontinental to sell and deliver to Southwestern Virginia Gas Company such volume of gas. The application further recites that Southwestern Virginia Gas Company is willing to make such gas available to Southwestern Virginia Gas Transmission Company, which company will in turn transport and sell such allotment of gas to Southwestern Virginia Gas Company for distribution in Martinsville.

The approximate cost of the proposed construction is estimated at $229,250. It is proposed to be financed by the issuance of $160,000 4 percent twenty-year bonds; the issuance of $30,000 5½ percent junior notes due in eight years; and the issuance of $40,000 of common stock.

The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection. Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) before the 24th day of January 1951.

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Sec.
721.201 Basis and purpose.
721.202 Commercial corn-producing area for 1951.
721.203 1951 acreage allotments for corn.

AUTHORITY: §§ 721.201 to 721.203 issued under sec. 375, 52 Stat. 66, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1375. Interpret or apply secs. 304, 327, 328, 371, 52 Stat. 45, as amended, 51, 52, as amended, 64, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 1304, 1327, 1328, 1371.

§ 721.201 Basis and purpose. The regulations contained in §§ 721.201 to 721.203 are issued to announce that no commercial corn-producing area will be established for 1951 and no national, county, or farm acreage allotments will be determined for 1951. They are based upon sections 304, and 371 (b) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. Section 327 of the act requires the Secretary of Agriculture each year to ascertain and proclaim the commercial corn-producing area, and section 328 of the act requires him each year to ascertain and proclaim an acreage allotment for such area.

Section 371 (b) of the act authorizes the Secretary to dispense with the national marketing quota or national acreage allotment for any basic agricultural commodity if he finds, after appropriate investigation, that such action is necessary to effectuate the declared policy of the act, or to meet a national emergency or increase in export demand for the commodity. Section 304 of the act provides that in carrying out the purposes of the act it shall be the duty of the Secretary to give due regard to the maintenance of a continuous and stable supply of agricultural commodities from domestic production adequate to meet consumer demand at prices fair to both producers and consumers.

Pursuant to section 371 (b) of the act, an investigation has been made to determine whether acreage allotments should be in effect for the 1951 crop of corn. On the basis of that investigation, it is hereby found and determined that it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and to meet the present national emergency in food production, to dispense with national, county, and farm acreage allotments for the 1951 crop of corn. That action is made effective by the issuance of §§ 721.202 and 721.203.

Prior to taking the action herein, public notice was given (15 F. R. 6831) in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) that the Secretary had under consideration the matter of dispensing with acreage allotments for the 1951 crop of corn under the applicable provisions of the act, including sections 304 and 371 (b). All written submissions which were received within the period stated in the notice have been considered within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

§ 721.202 Commercial corn-producing area for 1951. No commercial corn-producing area will be established for 1951.

§ 721.203 1951 acreage allotments for corn. No national, county or farm acreage allotments of corn will be determined for 1951.

Issued at Washington, D. C., this 5th day of January 1951.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,

determined under regulations applicable to the 1951 crop of wheat issued June 9, 1950 (15 F. R. 3614). Such termination is based upon sections 304 and 371 (b) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended.

Section 371 (b) of the act authorizes the Secretary to increase or terminate the national marketing quota or national acreage allotment for any basic agricultural commodity if he finds, after appropriate investigation, that such action is necessary to effectuate the declared policy of the act, or to meet a national emergency or increase in export demand for the commodity.

Section 304 of the act provides that in carrying out the purposes of the act it shall be the duty of the Secretary to give due regard to the maintenance of a continuous and stable supply of agricultural commodities from domestic production adequate to meet consumer demand at prices fair to both producers and consumers.

Pursuant to section 317 (b) of the act, an investigation has been made to determine whether acreage allotments should be continued in effect for the 1951 crop of wheat. On the basis of that investigation, it is hereby found and determined that it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act and to meet the present national emergency in food production, to terminate all acreage allotments for the 1951 crop of wheat. Such termination is made effective by the revision of §§ 723.104 and 728.108.

In order to provide for the required increase in wheat production to meet the present emergency and to make certain that farmers have ample time to readjust their plans for seeding spring wheat for the 1951 crop, it is hereby found and determined that compliance with the notice and public procedure provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) is impracticable and contrary to the public interest.

PART 730—RICE

STATE AND COUNTY ACREAGE ALLOTMENTS FOR THE 1950 CROP OF RICE

§ 730.103a Basis and purpose. The 1950 State and county rice acreage allotments herein have been determined under section 353 of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended. The purpose of the regulations contained in §§ 730.103a to 730.105 is to revise, on account of corrections in basic data, the 1950 State rice acreage allotments proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture on January 13, 1950 (15 F. R. 337), and to announce the apportionment among the counties of the States of Arkansas, Louisiana, Missouri, Mississippi, and South Carolina of the respective State rice acreage allotments for 1950, as so revised. Since farm rice acreage allotments in the States of Arizona, California and Texas were established pursuant to the act primarily on the basis of the past production of rice by the producers on the farm in lieu of the past production of rice on the farm, the State acreage allotments for those States were apportioned directly to farms, and county rice acreage allotments for those States have not been determined.

The determinations made by the Secretary in §§ 730.104 and 730.105 were made on the basis of the latest available statistics of the Federal Government, and after due consideration within the limits permitted by the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, of data, views, and recommendations received pursuant to public notice of original determinations of State and county rice acreage allotments for 1950 (14 F. R. 6809) given in accordance with the Administrative Procedure Act. Since the revisions in State rice acreage allotments for 1950 are based entirely upon corrections in basic data, it is hereby determined and found that compliance with the notice and public procedure provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act with respect to such revised allotments is unnecessary.

§ 730.104 Apportionment of the national acreage allotment for the 1950 crop of rice among the several States. The national acreage allotment proclaimed in § 730.102 is hereby apportioned among the several States as follows:

	Acres		Acres
Arizona	269	Missouri	1,302
Arkansas	339,370	South Carolina	763
California	240,531	Texas	451,663
Louisiana	557,434

Chapter II—Federal Reserve System

Subchapter A—Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System

INTERPRETATION

§ 222.129 Exclusion of "self-labor". A question has been presented as to whether there may be included in the cash price of "materials, articles, and services" comprising a listed article under Group D of § 222.9, any amount for services or labor performed by the instalment obligor himself or with gratuitous assistance of his family and friends.

For example, a home owner finds it necessary to enlarge his house to provide additional living quarters. In order to hold the cost to him of the project to a minimum, he plans to undertake the necessary labor or services himself. Must the maximum loan value of an instalment credit to finance the project be calculated on the basis of a cash price limited to the cost of the necessary materials, or may such loan value be calculated on the basis of a cash price which, in addition, includes an amount reflecting the value of the necessary labor and services?

The Board is of the view that in such cases where materials or articles and services are required, Part 222 would permit including in the cash price of the Group D project only the amount to be paid for the necessary materials or articles. Consequently, there could not be included in the cash price of such project any amount usable to compensate the instalment obligor for the service or labor performed by himself or with gratuitous assistance of others in connection with the project.

(c) The width of space for packing material shall not exceed the diameter or width of the uncompressed material by more than 50 percent. At other points small clearances shall be maintained between the stuffing-box parts and the cables or wires passing through them. A diametrical clearance greater than $\frac{1}{16}$ inch will not be accepted if the size of packing material used is smaller than $\frac{1}{4}$ inch square or round, nominal. If the size of packing material is $\frac{1}{4}$ inch or larger but less than $\frac{3}{8}$ inch square or round, a diametrical clearance not greater than $\frac{3}{16}$ inch will be accepted.

(d) To minimize deviation from acceptable clearances in stuffing boxes, the cables used in them shall conform to the standardized dimensions given in the tables which follow:

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter I—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[NPA Order M-8 as Amended Jan. 9, 1951]

PART 27—TIN

This amendment to NPA Order M-8, as amended December 18, 1950, is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order there has been consultation with industry representatives and consideration has been given to their recommendations. However, consultation with representatives, including trade association representatives, of all trades and industries affected in advance of the issuance of this order has been rendered impracticable due to the necessity for immediate action.

This amendment affects NPA Order M-8, as amended, as follows:

A new sentence shall be inserted at the end of paragraph (b) of § 27.4 entitled: "Use of pig tin and alloys and other materials containing tin", reading as follows:

"Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this paragraph will not apply to the production of pig tin, alloys or chemicals by smelters or refiners solely from secondary tin-bearing materials. The provisions of this paragraph will, however, apply to pig tin, alloys and chemicals so produced."

As amended, Order M-8 is revised to read as follows:

Sec.
27.1 What this part does.
27.2 Definitions.
27.3 Application of part.
27.4 Use of pig tin and alloys and other materials containing tin.
27.5 Maintenance, repair, and operating supplies.
27.6 Exemptions.
27.7 Reports.
27.8 Inventories.
27.9 Application for adjustments.
27.10 Communications.
27.11 Violations.

AUTHORITY: §§ 27.1 to 27.11 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105.

§ 27.1 What this part does. This part amends and supersedes NPA Order M-8. The purpose of this part is to describe how tin remaining after allowing for the requirements of national defense may be distributed and used in the civilian economy. This part also sets forth limitations on inventories of pig tin as well as alloys and other materials containing tin, and explains the conditions under which reports are required in connection with the production, distribution, importation, use, and inventories of pig tin. It also covers the conditions under which reporting is required in connection with the customs entry of tin importation. It is the policy of the National Production Authority that tin and alloys and other materials containing tin and articles made of tin and tin products, not required to fill rated orders, shall be distributed equitably through normal channels of distribution, and that due regard shall be given by suppliers to the needs of new and small business. It is the intent of this part that other materials which are not in short supply will be substituted for tin and alloys and other materials containing tin wherever possible.

§ 27.2 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Base period" means the six months period ending June 30, 1950.

(c) "Manufacture" means to melt, put into process, machine, fabricate, cast, roll, turn, spin, coat, extrude, or otherwise alter pig tin, alloys containing tin, or other materials containing tin, by physical or chemical means and includes the use of tin and alloys and other materials containing tin in plating, and in chemical compounding and processing. It does not include the use of tin contained in any "in process" materials or any other materials not actually to be incorporated into the items to be manufactured, such "in process" materials and other materials being included under paragraphs (d) and (e) of this section.

(d) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue a building, machine, piece of equipment, or facility in sound working condition, and "repair" means the restoration of a building, piece of equipment, or facility to sound working condition when the same has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, failure of parts, or the like: Provided, however, Neither maintenance nor repair includes the improvement of any such item with material of a better kind, quality, or design.

(e) "Operating supplies" means any tin or alloy or other material containing tin normally carried by a person as operating supplies according to established accounting practice and not included in his finished product, except that materials included in such product which are normally chargeable to operating expense may be treated as operating supplies.

(f) "Import" means to transport in any manner into the continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States. It includes shipments into a United States foreign trade zone or bonded custody of any United States Collector of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the continental United States and shipments into the continental United States for processing or manufacture in bond for exportation. "Import" does not include shipments in transit in bond through the continental United States without processing or manufacture to Canada, Mexico, or any other foreign country, or shipments through United States foreign trade zones to a foreign country without processing or manufacture. However, if any material in such shipments in transit in bond is, because of a change in plans, to be sold or used in the continental United States, or subjected to processing or manufacture in the continental United States, it becomes an "import" for the purposes of this part and requires the reports specified in § 27.7.

(g) "Pig tin" means metal containing 95 percent or more by weight of the element tin, in shapes current in the trade, including anodes, small bars, and ingots, but excluding the products specifically listed in section IV of report form NPAF-7.

(h) "Secondary tin" means any alloy, produced from scrap, which contains less than 95 percent but not less than 1.5 percent by weight of the element tin.

(i) "Tin" means pig tin and tin in any raw, semi-finished, or scrap form, and any alloys, compounds, or other materials containing tin (where tin is of chief value) in any raw, semi-finished, or scrap form. This includes, but is not limited to, the following:

Babbitt metal and solder	6506.100
Alloys and combinations of lead, not in chief value lead (including lead, antimony, and white metal)	6506.900
Tin bars, blocks, pigs, grain or granulated	6551.300
Tin metallic scrap (except alloyed scrap)	6551.500
Tin alloys, chief value tin n. s. p. f. (including alloy scrap)	6551.900
Tin foil less than 0.006 inch thick	6790.710
Tin powder, flitters, and metallics	6790.720
Tin bichloride, tin tetrachloride and other chemical compounds, mixtures, and salts, tin chief value (including tin oxide)	8380.920

NOTE: The numbers listed in the second column are commodity numbers taken from Schedule A, Statistical Classification of Imports into the United States, issued by the U. S. Department of Commerce (September 1, 1946 edition).

(j) "Copper-base alloy" for the purpose of this part means any alloy containing tin in the composition of which the percentage of copper metal by weight equals or exceeds 40 percent of the total weight of the alloy.

(k) "Scrap" means all materials or objects which are the waste or by-products of industrial fabrications or which have been discarded for obsolescence, failure, or other reason, and which contain tin or alloys or other materials containing tin in a form making such scrap suitable for industrial use.

§ 27.3 Application of part. Subject to the exemptions stated in § 27.6, this part applies to all persons who produce tin or alloys or other materials containing tin, or who use tin or alloys or other materials containing tin, in manufacture, processing, or construction, or for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies. In addition, the reporting provisions stated in § 27.7 apply to persons who produce, distribute, or hold in their possession pig tin, or who import tin.

§ 27.4 Use of pig tin and alloys and other materials containing tin. Subject to the exemptions stated in § 27.6, or unless specifically directed by NPA:

(a) No pig tin shall be used where secondary tin can be used.

(b) No person shall put into process or otherwise use in manufacturing, or in treating any item or product, or in the installation or construction of any item, during the following months, a total quantity by weight of tin contained in pig tin, secondary tin, solder, babbitt, copper-base alloys and other alloys containing 1.5 percent or more tin, or other materials containing 1.5 percent or more tin, in excess of the percentages specified with respect to each month of his average monthly use of such forms of tin during the base period:

	Percent
January 1951	100
February 1951	80
March 1951	80

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the provisions of this paragraph will not apply to the production of pig tin, alloys or chemicals by smelters or refiners solely from secondary tin-bearing materials. The provisions of this paragraph will, however, apply to pig tin, alloys and chemicals so produced.

(c) No person shall use for the purposes stated in paragraph (b) of this section during the following months a total quantity by weight of pig tin in excess of the following percentages specified with respect to each month of his average monthly use of pig tin during the base period:

	Percent
January 1951	100
February 1951	80
March 1951	80

§ 27.5 Maintenance, repair, and operating supplies. Unless specifically directed by the National Production Authority, during the calendar quarter commencing January 1, 1951, no person shall use for maintenance, repair, and operating supplies a quantity by weight of tin contained in pig tin or alloys or other materials containing tin in excess of 100 percent of his average quarterly use for such purposes during the base period. No pig tin shall be used for such purpose where secondary tin can be used.

§ 27.6 Exemptions. (a) The use by any person of pig tin or alloys or other materials containing tin required to fill an order that is rated under the priorities system established by Part 11 of this chapter (NPA Reg. 2), or to meet any other mandatory order of the National Production Authority, is permitted in addition to the use of such materials authorized by the provisions of §§ 27.4 and 27.5.

(b) Pig tin or alloys or other materials containing tin acquired by a rated order or to meet a National Production Authority scheduled program may be used in addition to the quantities permitted by the provisions of §§ 27.4 and 27.5.

§ 27.7 Reports. (a) Reports on pig tin:

(1) Any person using 1,000 lbs. or more of pig tin in any calendar month must complete and file report form NPAF-7 with the National Production Authority on or before the 20th day of November 1950, and on or before the 20th day of each succeeding month with respect to such use during the preceding month.

(2) Any person who on the last day of any calendar month has in his possession or under his control 1,000 lbs. or more of pig tin must complete and file report form NPAF-7 with the National Production Authority on or before the 20th day of November 1950, and on or before the 20th day of each succeeding month with respect to such possession or control on the last day of the preceding month.

(3) Any person who produces, imports, or distributes any pig tin must report his production, entries, receipts, deliveries, inventories, balance of entries, and all other transactions in pig tin either by completing and filing report form NPAF-7, or by letter in triplicate with the National Production Authority, on or before the 20th day of November 1950, with respect to all such operations and transactions during October 1950, and on or before the 10th of December and on or before the 10th day of each succeeding month with respect to all such operations and transactions during the preceding month.

(b) Reports on Customs Entry: No tin, including without limitation, tin imported by or for the account of the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, U. S. Commercial Company, or any other United States governmental department, agency, or corporation, shall be entered through the United States Collectors of Customs unless the person making the entry shall complete and file with the Bureau, Form NPAF-8. The filing of such form a second time shall not be required upon any subsequent entry of the same material through the United States Collectors of Customs; nor shall the filing of such form a second time be required upon the withdrawal of such material from bonded custody of the United States Collectors of Customs, regardless of the date when such material was first transported into the continental United States. Form NPAF-8 will be transmitted by the Collector of Customs to the National Production Authority.

(c) Other reports: All persons having any interest in, or taking any action with respect to, the importation of tin, whether as owner, agent, consignee, or otherwise, shall file such other reports as may be required from time to time by the National Production Authority, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act (P. L. 831—77th Cong., 5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

(d) All reports required by this part shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–8, together with such number of copies as may be specified in the report form.

§ 27.8 Inventories. In addition to the inventory provisions of Part 10 of this chapter (NPA Reg. 1), it is considered that a more exact requirement applying to users of pig tin or alloys or other materials containing tin (excluding ores and concentrates) is necessary.

(a) No person obtaining any such materials for use in manufacture, processing, or construction, or for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies, shall receive or accept delivery of a quantity of the materials listed in Column A below from domestic sources if his inventory of such materials is, or by such receipt would become, more than the smallest quantity which will be required by his scheduled method and rate of operation to be put into use for such purposes during the next succeeding period specified in the corresponding section of Column B below, or (except for pig tin) in excess of a "practicable minimum working inventory" as defined in NPA Reg. 1, whichever is less:

Column A

1. Pig tin.
2. Copper-base alloys (containing 1.5 percent or more tin).
3. Solder, babbitt, and other alloys containing 1.5 percent or more tin (except copper-base alloys).
4. All other materials containing tin.

Column B

1. 120 days (for manufacture of tin plate); 60 days (for any other use).
2. 60 days.
3. 60 days.
4. 60 days.

For the purpose of this section, any such materials in which only minor changes or alterations have been effected shall be included in inventory.

(b) Section 10.11 of NPA Reg. 1, entitled "Imported materials" will continue to apply. The other provisions of this part will continue to apply except as modified by this section.

(c) No scrap dealer shall accept delivery of any form of scrap defined in § 27.2, unless, during the 60 days immediately preceding the date of such acceptance, he shall have made delivery or otherwise disposed of scrap to an amount at least equal in weight to his scrap inventory on the date of such acceptance, exclusive of the delivery to be accepted.

§ 27.9 Application for adjustments. Any person affected by any provision of this part may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that his business operation was commenced during or after the base period, or because any provision otherwise works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests for adjustment claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this part, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

§ 27.10 Communications. All communications concerning this part shall be addressed to National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–8.

§ 27.11 Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this part or any other order or regulation of the National Production Authority or wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this part is guilty of a crime and, upon conviction, may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting requirements of this part have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act.

This part as amended shall take effect except as otherwise specifically stated on January 9, 1951.

FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION

PENN-YORK NATURAL GAS CORP.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

JANUARY 5, 1951.

Take notice that on December 22, 1950, Penn-York Natural Gas Corporation (Applicant), a Pennsylvania corporation, with its principal office in Buffalo, New York, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing Applicant to construct and operate at its Angelica Compressor Station in the Town of Angelica, Allegany County, New York, 2 additional gas compressor units of 660 hp. each, building facilities, cooling units, cleaners, and other pertinent equipment.

Applicant states that with the growth of the demand upon the system of Republic Light, Heat and Power Company, Inc. (Republic), its only customer, the total capacity of the Angelica Station has been reached, and future increased demands require additional compressor capacity; that additional volumes of gas are available to meet Republic's requirements, estimated to be 3,800,000 Mcf for 1951.

The application recites that with the contract pressures and a discharge pressure of 490 psi., 2030 hp. at Angelica will compress a total of 27,000 Mcf daily, and, after installation of the 1320 hp. proposed, the station will have an installed capacity of 2070 hp.

The estimated total capital cost of the proposed facilities is $350,000, of which Applicant proposes to borrow $300,000 from Manufacturers and Traders Trust Company, Buffalo, New York, repayable in equal quarterly installments, and bearing interest at the rate of 3 percent per annum.

Protests or petitions to intervene may be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 24th day of January 1951. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

TENNESSEE GAS TRANSMISSION CO.

JANUARY 5, 1951.

Take notice that on December 27, 1950, Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Applicant), a Delaware corporation having its principal office in Houston, Texas, filed an application for a certificate of public convenience and necessity pursuant to section 7 of the Natural Gas Act, as amended, authorizing the construction and operation of a sales meter station in Harrison County, Ohio, for the sale and delivery of natural gas on an interruptible basis to Ellis T. Myers Gas Company (Ellis T. Myers) for resale in the Village of Bowerston, Ohio, and environs.

Applicant proposes to sell natural gas to Ellis T. Myers, under the terms of an interruptible contract, up to a maximum of 500 Mcf per day to supplement natural gas supplies obtainable from local production asserted by Ellis T. Myers to be insufficient to meet 1950-51 winter requirements.

The application recites that Ellis T. Myers will lay approximately 4,500 feet of 3-inch connecting line to Applicant's 26-inch main transmission line; that since 1904 local production has supplied the requirements of Bowerston, but said supply is now practically exhausted; that Ellis T. Myers plans to place in storage in depleted underground reservoirs such gas as Applicant might make available. Applicant proposes to file a rate schedule to provide a demand charge of $2.40 per month per Mcf and a commodity charge of 17.2¢ per Mcf.

The estimated total over-all capital cost of the proposed facilities is $4,000, which will be defrayed from cash on hand.

Protests or petitions to intervene should be filed with the Federal Power Commission, Washington 25, D. C., in accordance with the rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.8 or 1.10) on or before the 24th day of January 1951. The application is on file with the Commission for public inspection.

In F. R. Document 50-12589, appearing in the issue for Saturday, December 30, 1950, at page 9432, the effective date in the final paragraph should be changed to the 1st day of January 1951.

TITLE 9—ANIMALS AND ANIMAL PRODUCTS

Chapter I—Bureau of Animal Industry, Department of Agriculture

Subchapter D—Exportation and Importation of Animals and Animal Products

[BAI Order 379, Amdt. 10]

PART 92—IMPORTATION OF CERTAIN ANIMALS AND POULTRY INTO THE UNITED STATES (EXCEPT FROM MEXICO)

FEED AND ATTENDANTS FOR ANIMALS IN QUARANTINE

Pursuant to the authority vested in the Secretary of Agriculture by sections 6, 7, 8, and 10 of the act of August 30, 1890, as amended (21 U. S. C. 102-105) and section 2 of the act of February 2, 1903, as amended (21 U. S. C. 111), § 92.12 of Chapter I of Title 9 of the Code of Federal Regulations is amended to read as follows:

§ 92.12 Feed and attendants for animals in quarantine. (a) Importers of animals subject to quarantine under the regulations in this part shall arrange for their care, feed, and handling from the time of unloading at the port of entry to the time of release from quarantine. At ports where facilities are not maintained by the Bureau, importers shall provide suitable facilities for the quarantine of such animals, subject in all cases to the approval of the inspector in charge at the port of entry. Each owner, or his agent, shall give satisfactory assurance to the inspector prior to the time of quarantine that such provision will be made. Owners shall keep clean, to the satisfaction of such inspector, the sheds and yards occupied by their animals. If for any cause owners of animals refuse or neglect to arrange for their care, feed, and handling, the service will be furnished by the Bureau in the same manner as though the owner, or his agent, had made arrangements for such service as provided by paragraph (b) of this section.

(b) At a port where quarantine facilities are maintained by the Bureau, the importer, or his agent, may arrange with the inspector in charge for care, feed, and handling of animals from the time they arrive at the quarantine station for the port until the time of release from quarantine. The importer, or his agent, must request such service in writing and agree to reimburse the Bureau or pay in advance for the cost thereof, as may be required, and waive all claim against the Bureau or any employee of the Bureau for damages which may arise from such service. The Chief of Bureau may prescribe reasonable rates for the service provided under this paragraph.

(c) The charge for any service furnished under paragraphs (a) or (b) of this section shall be a lien on the animals. After the expiration of one-third of the quarantine period, if payment has not been made, the owners of the animals will be notified by the inspector that if said charges are not immediately paid, or satisfactory arrangements made for payment, the animals will be sold at public auction at the expiration of the period of quarantine to pay the expense of feed and care during that period. Notice of the sale will be published in a newspaper in the county where the quarantine station is located. The sale will be held after the expiration of the quarantine period, at such place as may be designated by the said inspector. The proceeds of the sale, after deducting the charges for care, feed, and handling of the animals and the expense of the sale, shall be held in a Special Deposit Account in the United States Treasury for 6 months from the date of sale. If not claimed by the owner within 6 months from the date of sale, the amount so held shall be transferred from the Special Deposit Account to the General Fund Account in the United States Treasury.

(d) Amounts collected from importers for service rendered and amounts realized for such purposes under paragraph (c) of this section shall be deposited so as to be available for defraying the expenses involved in this service.

(Secs. 6, 7, 8, 10, 26 Stat. 414, as amended, sec. 2, 32 Stat. 791, as amended; 21 U. S. C. 102-105, 111)

The purpose of this amendment is to provide a way in which importers of small numbers of animals may receive on a reimbursable basis an economical and convenient service for the care, feed, and handling of their animals at a quarantine station maintained by the Bureau of Animal Industry. Only one such station, serving the port of New York, is now maintained by the Bureau. There is no change in the present requirement that the importer make satisfactory arrangements for the care, feed, and handling of his animals during the period of quarantine but, under the conditions outlined in the amendment, it is now possible for him to request and receive such service from the Bureau. It is to the benefit of those who desire such service, as well as the public generally, that this amendment be made effective at the earliest practicable date. Accordingly, pursuant to the provisions of section 4 of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003), it is found upon good cause that notice and public procedure on this amendment are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest, and good cause is found for making this amendment effective less than 30 days after publication.

The foregoing amendment shall be effective January 12, 1951.

[SEAL] CHARLES F. BRANNAN,

part, a person shall be deemed to be engaged in the business of extending such real estate credit if, in his own right or as agent or fiduciary, he either (1) extends or has extended such real estate credit more than three different times during the current calendar year or during the preceding calendar year, or (2) extends or has extended such real estate credit in an amount or amounts aggregating more than $50,000 during the current calendar year or during the preceding calendar year. For the purposes of this section, real estate credit with respect to residences, residential property, or multi-unit residential property shall be deemed to include credit with respect to any residence, residential property, or multi-unit residential property, whether or not there is any new construction thereon, and whether or not such credit is extended, insured, or guaranteed by the Federal Housing Administration, the Veterans' Administration, or any other department, independent establishment or agency of the United States, and whether or not such credit is exempt from this part.

§ 225.2 Definitions. For the purposes of this part, unless the context otherwise requires:

(a) "Person" has the meaning given it in section 702 (a) of the act.[2]

(b) "Registrant" means a person who is registered pursuant to § 225.3.

(c) "Credit" has the meaning given it in section 602 (d) (2) of the act.[3]

(d) "Extending credit", "extension of credit" and "extends credit" shall include extending or maintaining any credit, or renewing, revising, consolidating, refinancing, purchasing, selling, discounting, or lending or borrowing on, any obligation arising out of any credit, or arranging as agent for any of the foregoing, and also shall include a sale of, or other transfer of title to, real property if the vendee or transferee assumes, or takes such property subject to, indebtedness secured by a mortgage or other lien upon such property.

(e) "Real estate construction credit" means any credit, hereafter extended, which

(2) Is for the purpose of purchasing or carrying, or

(3) Is for the purpose of financing, or

(4) Involves a right to acquire or use, new construction on real property or real property on which there is new construction, if such new construction is a residence or multi-unit residence or a major addition or major improvement to a residence or multi-unit residence, whether such credit is extended before or after such new construction is begun; but the term "real estate construction credit" shall not include any loan or loans made, insured, or guaranteed, in whole or in part, by the Federal Housing Administration, the Veterans' Administration, or any other department, independent establishment or agency in the executive branch of the United States, or by any wholly owned Government corporation, or by any mixed-ownership Government corporation as defined in the Government Corporation Control Act, as amended (including any loan evidenced by obligations of any local public agency or public housing agency which national banks may purchase pursuant to the provisions of section 602 (a) of the Housing Act of 1949).

(f) "New construction" means any structure, or any major addition or major improvement to a structure, which is or has been begun after 12 o'clock meridian, August 3, 1950. (g) "Major addition" or "major improvement" means any enlargement, reconstruction, alteration, or repair of an existing residence[4] or multi-unit residence,[4] or any other addition or improvement which becomes or is to become physically attached to and a part of the residence or multi-unit residence, if the cost or estimated cost of such addition or improvement exceeds $2,500 and also exceeds an amount determined by multiplying $1,500 by the number of family units in such residence or multi-unit residence prior to such addition or improvement. In determining whether the cost of an addition or improvement project exceeds the amounts specified in the preceding sentence, there shall be considered only the amount of such cost which is incurred within any twelve consecutive months.

(b) If any part of the cost of the property to the borrower has been incurred by him more than 12 months prior to the extension of credit, or if any part of such property has been acquired by gift, exchange, or inheritance, "value" shall be the appraised value as determined in good faith by the Registrant who extends the credit;

(3) For an extension of credit which is for the purpose of financing the construction of a residence on farm property, "value" shall be the total of (i) the cost or estimated cost of such new construction, and (ii) 5 per cent of such cost or estimated cost.[6]

(4) For multi-unit residential property, other than major additions or major improvements:

(i) In the case of an extension of credit in connection with a bona fide sale of multi-unit residential property, "value" shall be the bona fide sale price;

(ii) In the case of any other extension of credit with respect to multi-unit residential property, "value" shall be the

[2] Section 702 (a) of the act provides: "The word 'person' includes an individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, or legal successor or representative of the foregoing, and includes the United States or any agency thereof, or any other government, or any of its political subdivisions, or any agency of any of the foregoing: Provided, That no punishment provided by this Act shall apply to the United States, or to any such government, political subdivision, or government agency."

[3] Section 602 (d) (2) of the act provides: " 'Credit' means any loan, mortgage, deed of trust, advance, or discount; any conditional sale contract; any contract to sell or sale or contract of sale, of property or services, either for present or future delivery, under which part or all of the price is payable subsequent to the making of such sale or contract; any rental-purchase contract, or any contract for the bailment, leasing, or other use of property under which the bailee, lessee, or user has the option of becoming the owner thereof, obligates himself to pay as compensation a sum substantially equivalent to or in excess of the value thereof, or has the right to have all or part of the payments required by such contract applied to the purchase price of such property or similar property; any option, demand, lien, pledge, or similar claim against, or for the delivery of property or money; any purchase, discount, or other acquisition of, or any credit under the security of, any obligation or claim arising out of any of the foregoing; and any transaction or series of transactions having a similar purpose or effect."

[4] Notwithstanding this definition or any other provision of this part, an addition or improvement to an existing structure which will become a "residence" or "multi-unit residence by reason of such additions or improvement shall be treated as an addition or improvement to an existing "residence" or "multi-unit residence" respectively; and, in determining whether the cost or estimated cost of an addition or improvement of the kind mentioned in this footnote is such that it would be a major addition or major improvement within the meaning of § 225.2 (g), and in determining what the maximum loan value is, the determination shall be according to the number of family units which will be in the structure after the addition or improvement has been completed.

[5] As used here, "property" means residential property, multi-unit residential property, a residence on farm property, or a major addition or major improvement to a residence or a multi-unit residence, as the case may be.

[6] The 5 per cent is added when the extension of credit is for the purpose of financing the construction of a residence on farm property in order to take account of the value of the land upon which the residence is to be constructed.

appraised value as determined in good faith by the Registrant who extends the credit. Appraisals pursuant to this provision and other provisions of this part will be subject to inspection by the Board and the Federal Reserve Banks in accordance with § 225.6 (d), and appraisals found to be in excess of those dictated by sound and established practice in the community shall be deemed sufficient ground for the suspension of the Registrant pursuant to § 225.3 (c).

(j) "Bona fide sale price" means the amount paid or to be paid by the vendee in money or its equivalent. It includes, in addition to cash, (1) the value of any property accepted in part payment, (2) the unpaid principal amount of any indebtedness incurred or assumed by the vendee or to which the property remains subject, (3) the amount of any liens for taxes or special assessments which are in default or currently due and payable, (4) the amount of any mechanics' liens or other liens which the vendee is required to discharge, (5) the amount which the vendee agrees to pay for any alteration or other modification made or to be made to the property as an incident to the sale thereof, and (6) any amounts paid by the vendee for closing costs. It does not include any prepaid charges, or any accrued rents which will be paid to the vendee.

(k) "Residence"[7] means any structure which is used or designed for permanent or transient dwelling purposes, and which includes at least one but not more than four family units, if the floor space contained in such family units comprises at least one-half of the floor space of such structure. Houses connected by common walls and commonly known as "row houses" or "semidetached houses" shall be considered separate structures.

(l) "Multi-unit residence"[7] means any structure such as an apartment house or apartment hotel (whether owned cooperatively or otherwise) which is used or designed for permanent or transient dwelling purposes, and which includes more than four family units, if the floor space contained in such family units comprises at least one-half of the floor space of such structure.

(m) "Family unit" means space which is used or designed for dwelling purposes and which includes one or more rooms together with kitchen facilities or space designed for kitchen facilities.

(n) "Residential property" means any real property, other than farm property, on which there is or is to be a residence or residences.

(o) "Farm property" means any real property, other than multi-unit residential property, located outside of urban areas, which is principally used for the production of crops, livestock or other agricultural commodities.

[7] Structures commonly known as hotels, motels, rooming houses, club houses, fraternity or sorority houses, dormitories, hospitals, rest homes, and the like, in which more than one-half of the floor space consists of units which do not include kitchen facilities or space designed for kitchen facilities shall not be deemed to be residences or multi-unit residences.

(p) "Multi-unit residential property" means any real property on which there is or is to be a multi-unit residence or multi-unit residences.

§ 225.3 General requirements and registration—(a) General requirements. No person engaged in the business of extending real estate credit with respect to residences, residential property, or multi-unit residential property shall extend real estate construction credit unless (1) he is registered pursuant to this section, and (2) he has no knowledge of, and has no reason to know, any fact by reason of which such credit fails to comply with any applicable provision of this part.

(b) Registration. Every person engaged in the business of extending real estate credit with respect to residences, residential property, or multi-unit residential property shall be deemed to be registered pursuant to this part from the effective date hereof until such time as the Board, by public announcement, may require registration statements to be filed by all, or any specified classes of, such persons. Should the Board require such registration statements, a person shall continue to be registered after the time such statements are required only if he shall have complied with the requirements of the Board's announcement. Every person who is registered in accordance with the provisions of this paragraph is referred to in this part as a "Registrant".

(c) Suspension of registration. (1) Any Registrant may, after reasonable notice and opportunity for a hearing, be suspended by the Board, as to all or as to particular activities or particular offices and for specified or indefinite periods, because of any willful or negligent failure to comply with any provision of this part.

(2) A suspension for a specified period will terminate upon the expiration of such period. A suspension for an indefinite period may be terminated by the Board, in its discretion, if the Board is satisfied that its action would not lead to further violations of this part by the suspended Registrant and would not be otherwise incompatible with the public interest.

§ 225.4 Extension of credit—(a) Amount; maturity; amortization. Except as otherwise permitted by this part, no Registrant shall, either in connection with a sale or otherwise:

(1) Extend real estate construction credit with respect to residential property or multi-unit residential property (other than major additions or major improvements) if the amount of credit outstanding with respect to the property (including any credit exempt from, or not subject to the prohibitions of, this part) exceeds, or as a result of such extension of credit would exceed, the applicable maximum loan value of such property;

(2) Extend real estate construction credit for the purpose of financing a major addition or major improvement to a residence or multi-unit residence if the amount of credit outstanding for the purpose of financing the major addition or major improvement (including any credit exempt from, or not subject to the prohibitions of, this part) exceeds, or as a result of such extension of credit would exceed, the applicable maximum loan value of such major addition or major improvement;

(3) Extend real estate construction credit for the purpose of financing the construction of a residence on farm property if the amount of credit outstanding for the purpose of financing the construction of the residence (including any credit exempt from, or not subject to the prohibitions of, this part) exceeds, or as a result of such extension of credit would exceed, the applicable maximum loan value of such residence;

(4) Extend real estate construction credit if such credit would have a maturity which exceeds the applicable maximum maturity provisions, or would be repaid in any manner which does not conform with the applicable amortization provisions, set forth in § 225.7;

(5) Purchase, discount or lend on any credit instrument evidencing real estate construction credit which is subject to and not exempt from this part, unless the terms of such credit conformed with the provisions of § 225.7 when such credit was originally extended or conform with the provisions of § 225.7 at the time of such purchase, discount or loan; but for the purposes of this paragraph credit shall be considered to be subject to this part even though extended by a person other than a Registrant;

(6) If the Registrant is acting as principal—sell, or transfer title to, residential property or multi-unit residential property on which there is new construction (which is a residence or multi-unit residence or a major addition or major improvement to a residence or multi-unit residence) and with respect to which the vendee or transferee assumes, or takes such property subject to, indebtedness secured by a mortgage or other lien upon such property, if the amount of outstanding credit (including any credit exempt from, or not subject to the prohibitions of, this part) which was extended after October 12, 1950 (or after January 12, 1951, if it is a sale or transfer of multi-unit residential property) with respect to the property exceeds, or as a result of such sale or transfer would exceed, the applicable maximum loan value of such property, or if any outstanding real estate construction credit (subject to and not exempt from this part) with respect to such property does not conform with the provisions of this part.[8]

(b) Secondary borrowing. Except as otherwise permitted by this part, no Registrant shall extend real estate construction credit if he knows or has reason to know that there is, or that there is to be, any other credit extended with respect to the property[9] (1) which, when added to the credit proposed to be extended by the Registrant, would cause the total amount of credit outstanding with respect to the property[9] (including any credit exempt from, or not subject to the prohibitions of, this part) to exceed the applicable maximum loan value of such property, or (2) which, if it is real estate construction credit subject to and not exempt from this part, does not or would not comply with the applicable maximum maturity and amortization provisions set forth in § 225.7.

(c) Ascertaining nature of credit. No Registrant shall extend any credit unless he is satisfied, and maintains records which reasonably demonstrate on their face, whether such credit is or is not real estate construction credit; provided, however, unless the Registrant has actual knowledge that the credit is real estate construction credit, the requirements of this sentence shall not apply (1) to any extension of credit which is made by a bank, savings and loan association, or similar institution and which is to be repaid within six months and is fully secured by withdrawable shares issued by or savings accounts held with the lender, or (2) to any extension of credit in the ordinary course of business for a commercial, agricultural, or business purpose where the Registrant, because of a previous course of dealings or correspondence between himself and the borrower, has no reason to believe that the credit is or will be real estate construction credit. The preceding sentence does not require that a Registrant obtain a signed statement from each borrower, and if the Registrant is satisfied that credit is not real estate construction credit, other kinds of records may be used to demonstrate this fact. Such records may include, among others, (1) any correspondence, memoranda, loan applications or other documents of any kind, whether or not originating in connection with the credit in question, which on the basis of a reasonable interpretation show that the credit is not real estate construction credit; or (2) a written endorsement or rubber stamp legend, placed upon the credit instrument or upon other papers in connection with the credit and signed by the Registrant or a responsible officer of the Registrant, stating that he is satisfied that the credit in question is not real estate construction credit. If, however, a Registrant desires to obtain, and accepts in good faith, a signed Statement of the Borrower stating that the credit is not wholly or partly secured by, or for the purpose of purchasing or carrying, or for the purpose of financing, or one which involves the right to acquire or use, new construction on real property or real property on which there is new construction (or that such new construction, if any, is not a residence or multi-unit residence or a major addition or major improvement to a residence or multi-unit residence), such Statement shall be deemed to be compliance with the requirements of this subsection.

(d) Statement of the borrower. No Registrant shall extend real estate construction credit unless he has accepted in good faith a signed Statement of the Borrower (1) stating whether the credit is with respect to (i) residential property, (ii) a residence on farm property, (iii) a major addition or a major improvement to a residence, (iv) multi-unit residential property, or (v) a major addition or a major improvement to a multi-unit residence; and (2) stating, if the Registrant claims that such credit is exempt from this part, the reason for such exemption; and, if the credit is not exempt, (3) stating the amount of credit previously extended and outstanding, and the amount of any other credit to be extended, with respect to the residential property, the residence on farm property, the major addition or major improvement to a residence, the multi-unit residential property, or the major addition or major improvement to a multi-unit residence, (4) stating, if the Registrant in computing "value" relies upon cost or estimated cost to the borrower (where such cost or estimated cost may be used for this purpose), the bona fide amount of such cost or estimated cost to the borrower, and (5) stating if the extension of credit is in connection with a sale, the sale price, that the sale price was bona fide, and the value and a brief description of any property accepted in part payment. If the extension of credit is in connection with a sale, such Statement shall state that the vendor of the property has or will have no financial interest in such property or in the proceeds of any subsequent disposition thereof, except such interest as may be fully disclosed to the Registrant. The amount of any such financial interest of the vendor retained in the property or any proceeds of the disposition thereof shall be deemed to be real estate construction credit extended with respect to such property. The Statement of the Borrower may be made, if desired, on a form a sample of which is obtainable at any Federal Reserve Bank or branch.

§ 225.5 Exemptions and exceptions—(a) Minimum amount. The prohibitions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 225.4 shall not apply to any extension of credit if the total amount thereof, including all outstanding credit which was granted after October 12, 1950, with respect to the same property,[10] is not in excess of $2,500.

(b) Short-term residential construction credits. The prohibitions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 225.4 shall not apply to any credit which is for the purpose of financing the construction of a residence or residences or a major addition or major improvement to a residence, if the maturity of such credit is not more than 18 months; provided that this exemption shall not be construed to permit any renewal, revision, consolidation, or refinancing of such credit except on terms which conform with the provisions of this part. If (1) the initial purpose of an extension of credit having a maturity exceeding 18 months is the financing of the construction of a residence or residences or a major addition or major improvement to a residence and (2) an agreement with respect to the credit requires that (i) within 32 days after completion of such construction or the date the Registrant estimates in good faith the construction will be completed or (ii) upon the expiration of a period of not more than 18 months after the extension of the credit, whichever shall first occur, such action must be taken by the parties as may be necessary to make the terms of the credit conform thereafter with the applicable maximum loan value and the applicable maturity and amortization provisions set forth in § 225.7, then in such event the prohibitions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 225.4 shall not apply to such credit until the occurrence of one of the events specified in subdivisions (i) or (ii) of this subparagraph; but if at any time after the date of the extension of such credit, a Registrant sells or transfers title to the property with respect to which the credit is extended, such sale or transfer of title must conform to the provisions of this part.[11]

(c) Short-term multi-unit residential construction credits. The prohibitions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 225.4 shall not apply to any credit which is for the purpose of financing the construction of a multi-unit residence or a major addition or major improvement to a multi-unit residence and which is extended to any person other than the owner of the property and has a maturity of not more than 18 months: Provided, That this exception shall not be construed to permit any renewal, revision, consolidation, or refinancing of such credit except on terms which conform with the provisions of this part.

(d) Medical expenses, etc. The prohibitions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 225.4 shall not apply to any extension of real estate construction credit as to which the Registrant accepts in good faith a signed Statement of the Borrower certifying that the proceeds thereof are to be used for bona fide medical, hospital, dental, or funeral expenses, or to pay debts incurred for such expenses, and that the proceeds of the extension are to be paid over in amounts specified in such Statement to persons whose names, addresses and occupations are stated therein.

(e) Casualties. The prohibitions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 225.4 shall not apply to any extension of real estate construction credit as to which the Registrant accepts in good faith a signed Statement of the Borrower certifying that the proceeds thereof are to be used solely for the replacement, reconstruction or repair of a residence or multi-unit residence destroyed or substantially damaged by flood, fire or other similar casualty.

(f) Contracts to sell. None of the provisions of this part shall apply to a contract to sell real property (1) which does not provide for the payment of any part of the purchase price, or of any amount to be subsequently applied to such price, except a deposit of earnest

[9] As used here, "property" means residential property, multi-unit residential property, a residence on farm property, or a major addition or major improvement to a residence or a multi-unit residence, as the case may be.

money, before the transfer of title to such property, (2) which is to be performed by a transfer of title to such property within six months after the date on which the contract was entered into, and (3) which provides for the subsequent transfer of title to such property on terms which conform to the provisions of this part in effect on the date the contract was entered into.

(g) Contemplated construction. Any builder or other person who had made substantial commitments or undertakings before August 3, 1950, with a view to the building of new construction which is a residence or a major addition or major improvement to a residence and who asserts that his inability to obtain credit to finance such new construction on the basis contemplated by him and by the Registrant prior to August 3, 1950, would cause him substantial hardship, may apply to the Federal Reserve Bank of the district in which the new construction is contemplated for an exemption from this part for such new construction, showing all the facts and submitting all necessary supporting documents with respect to his commitments or undertakings and why compliance with this part would cause him substantial hardship. If such Federal Reserve Bank after consideration of the application and supporting documents determines that substantial commitments were made prior to August 3, 1950, and that substantial hardship would result from the application of this part in such case, it may issue to such builder or other person a certificate approving such application and thereupon any extension of credit to such builder or other person by the Registrant named in such certificate with respect to the new construction that may be specified in such certificate shall be exempt from the prohibitions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 225.4. Applications under this paragraph must be sent to the Federal Reserve Bank prior to March 15, 1951.

(h) Labor and material. No person shall be required to register pursuant to § 225.3 because of the fact that he performs labor or furnishes material for new construction on an open account, unless he shall be otherwise engaged in the business of extending real estate credit.

(i) Credits secured by life insurance policies. None of the provisions of this part shall apply to an extension of real estate construction credit which is fully secured by the loan value or cash surrender value of a life insurance policy; and, notwithstanding any other provisions of this part, a Registrant in determining the amount of credit which he may extend under the provisions of § 225.4 need not take into account any credit which is secured in the manner specified in this paragraph.

(j) Farm property. The prohibitions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 225.4 shall not apply to any extension of real estate construction credit with respect to farm property unless the extension of credit is for the purpose of financing the construction of a residence on farm property or a major addition or major improvement to a residence on farm property.[12]

(k) Exemption for certain new construction. The prohibitions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 225.4 shall not apply to any real estate construction credit extended prior to May 1, 1951, with respect to new construction (1) begun prior to October 12, 1950, if such new construction is a residence or a major addition or major improvement to a residence, or (2) begun prior to January 12, 1951, if such new construction is a multi-unit residence or a major addition or major improvement to a multi-unit residence.[13]

(l) Materials, articles and services used in new construction. None of the provisions of this part shall apply to an extension of credit which is for the purpose of purchasing, or is in connection with a sale of, materials, articles and services for new construction if the credit is extended on terms which provide for a minimum down payment of 10 per cent, or a maximum loan value of 90 per cent, and for repayment within 30 months by (1) substantially equal monthly or weekly payments covering principal and interest or (2) substantially equal monthly or weekly payments of principal.[14]

§ 225.6 Miscellaneous provisions—(a) Evasions. No extension of real estate construction credit complies with the requirements of this part if at the time it is made there is any agreement, arrangement, or understanding, of which the Registrant knows or has reason to know, by which credit is or is to be extended in violation of this part, even though such extension of credit is or is to be made indirectly, or which would otherwise evade or circumvent, or conceal any evasion or circumvention of, any provision of this part. No Registrant extending credit subject to this part shall divide such credit into two or more parts, or enter into any agreement or understanding with any other person as a result of which two or more credits are extended, when the purpose or effect of such action is to circumvent or avoid the amortization or maturity provisions of this part.

(b) Outstanding contracts and obligations. The prohibitions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 225.4 shall not apply to or affect (i) any credit with respect to residential property or a major addition or major improvement to a residence if extended prior to October 12, 1950, or pursuant to any firm commitment to extend credit made prior to such date, or (ii) any credit with respect to multi-unit residential property or a major addition or major improvement to a multi-unit residence if extended prior to January 12, 1951, or pursuant to any firm commitment to extend credit made prior to such date. For this purpose, a firm commitment means either (1) a written agreement under which the Registrant is required without option or discretion on his part to extend credit upon demand by the borrower or upon compliance by the borrower with one or more conditions referred to in such agreement; or (2) any other agreement to extend credit with respect to residential property, a residence, or a major addition or major improvement to a residence which has been entered into in good faith by the parties and in reliance upon which the prospective borrower or builder has taken specific action prior to October 12, 1950, if the Registrant prior to January 1, 1951, shall have sent to the Federal Reserve Bank of the district in which he does business a letter or other statement reciting the facts with respect to such agreement and the specific action taken by the prospective borrower or builder prior to October 12, 1950; or (3) any other agreement to extend credit with respect to multi-unit residential property or a major addition or major improvement to a multi-unit residence which has been entered into in good faith by the parties and in reliance upon which the prospective borrower or builder has taken specific action prior to January 12, 1951, if the Registrant prior to March 15, 1951, shall have sent to the Federal Reserve Bank of the district in which he does business a letter or other statement reciting the facts with respect to such agreement and the specific action taken by the prospective borrower or builder prior to January 12, 1951.[15]

(c) Real property outside the United States. None of the prohibitions of this part shall apply to any extension of real estate construction credit with respect to real property in Alaska, the Panama Canal Zone, or any territory or possession outside the continental United States.

(d) Preservation of records; inspections; administrative reports. For the purpose of determining whether or not there has been compliance with the provisions of this part, every person extending real estate credit with respect to residences, residential property, or multi-unit residential property shall preserve for the period hereinafter specified such accounts, correspondence, memoranda, papers, books, and other records, or photostats or other copies thereof, as are relevant to establishing whether such person is engaged in the business of extending such real estate credit; whether each credit extended is or is not real estate construction credit with respect to residential property, a farm residence, a major addition or major improvement to a residence, multi-unit residential property; or a major addition or major improvement to a multi-unit residence, and whether each extension of real estate construction credit conformed with the provisions of this part. Every such person shall preserve such records for three years after the extension of such credit, or until the repayment of the credit, whichever period is shorter, provided, however, that if such person sells or transfers an obligation evidencing a credit (or releases collateral held as security for such credit) and delivers his records relevant to such credit to the purchaser or transferee, such person need not thereafter maintain such records with respect to the credit but shall keep a record of the identity of the purchaser or transferee and the date of such sale or transfer (or such release). Every such person shall permit the Board or a Federal Reserve Bank, by its duly authorized representatives, to inspect such records and business operations as the Board or a Federal Reserve Bank may deem necessary or appropriate; and when ordered to do so, shall furnish, under oath or otherwise, such reports, information, or records relevant to extensions of credit as the Board or a Federal Reserve Bank may deem necessary or appropriate for the enforcement and administration of this part.[16]

(e) Default and foreclosure; serviceman's preinduction debt. Nothing in this part shall be construed to prevent any Registrant from taking such action as he shall deem necessary in good faith (1) with respect to any extension of credit to any member or former member of the armed forces of the United States which was made to him prior to his induction into such service and assignment to active duty, or (2) for the Registrant's own protection in connection with any credit which is in default and is the subject of a bona fide collection effort by the Registrant. The prohibitions of paragraphs (a) and (b) of § 225.4 shall not apply to an extension of credit by a Registrant in connection with a sale of property acquired by him through foreclosure proceedings if such credit does not exceed the unpaid principal amount of the foreclosed credit, the costs of acquisition through foreclosure, and the costs incurred in the rehabilitation and repair of the property prior to the sale.

(f) Right of Registrant to impose stricter requirements. Any Registrant, if he desires, may refuse to extend credit, extend less credit than the amount permitted by this part, or require that repayment be made within a shorter period or in larger instalments than prescribed in § 225.7.

(g) Reliance upon Statement of the Borrower. The facts set forth in any signed Statement of the Borrower which a Registrant accepts and relies upon in good faith shall be deemed to be correct for the purposes of the Registrant.

(h) False statements. The making or submission by any person of any false, fictitious or fraudulent statement or representation pursuant to, or which is intended to conform to, or show compliance with, any requirement or provision of this part, shall be a violation of this part.

(i) Statutory penalties. The act provides that "Any person who willfully violates any provision of section * * * 602 (relating to real estate construction credit) or any regulation or order issued thereunder, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not more than $5,000 or imprisoned not more than one year, or both."

(j) Enforceability of contracts. Nothing in this part shall affect the enforceability of any contract.

(k) Veterans programs under State law. Nothing in this part shall be construed as prohibiting a State (as distinguished from any other person affected by this part) from according rights and preferences to eligible veterans by extending, guaranteeing or insuring, in whole or in part, real estate construction credit pursuant to State legislation similar in purpose or effect to Title III of the Servicemen's Readjustment Act of 1944, as amended, provided that the terms of the credit are no more liberal than are currently permitted in the case of comparable loans insured or guaranteed under that act.

(l) State housing programs. Nothing in this part shall prohibit extensions of credit to public corporations created pursuant to a public housing program of a State or municipality where such credit is extended, insured, or guaranteed by the State or municipality or the State or municipality has made commitments to furnish funds to assure repayment.

(m) Extension of credit for mixed purposes. In the case of an extension of credit which is partly subject to this part and partly not subject to (or exempt from) this part, the amount and terms of the extension of credit will comply with this part if they satisfy the requirements of this part applicable to the subject portion.

(n) Calculation of maximum maturity. In calculating the maximum maturity of credit subject to this part, a Registrant may use, at his option, as "the date such credit is extended", any date not more than 32 days subsequent to the actual date such credit is extended.

(o) Three- and four-unit residences. Notwithstanding any other provision of this part, the provisions of §§ 225.4 (a) (6), 225.5 (k), and 225.6 (b) which are applicable to multi-unit residences shall be applicable to residences containing three or four family units.

§ 225.7 Supplement.

Schedule I.—One- to four-unit residential property and farm residences—(a) Maximum loan value. For the purposes of this part, maximum loan values for all residential property, farm residences, and major additions and major improvements to residences are prescribed as set forth in the following table. In the table, (1) the term "value" means the value of the residential property, farm residence, or major addition or major improvement, as the case may be, determined in accordance with § 225.2 (i), and (2) the term "value per family unit" means an amount computed by dividing "value" by the number of family units in the structure or proposed structure to which the credit relates. Where a major addition or major improvement will change the number of family units, the value per family unit shall be computed on the basis of the number of family units which the residence will contain after the addition or improvement has been completed. In the case of credit extended with respect to residential property or farm residences involving more than one structure, the maximum loan value may be applied separately with respect to each such structure or with respect to the entire property or all such residences, at the election of the Registrant.

If the value per family unit is	The maximum loan value is

More than $9,000 but not more than $15,000	$7,100 plus 60 percent of excess of value over $9,000.

Over $24,250	50 percent of value.

(b) Maturity. For the purposes of this part, the following maturity requirements are prescribed for credit with respect to residential property, farm residences, and major additions and major improvements to residences: No such credit subject to this part shall have a maturity of more than 20 years from the date such credit is extended except that a credit extended with respect to property having a value (determined as provided in § 225.2 (i)) of $7,000 or less may have a maturity of not more than 25 years if it is to be fully repaid at or before the date of maturity through amortization on the basis prescribed in clause (2) of the following paragraph relating to amortization:

(c) Amortization. For the purposes of this part, the following amortization requirements are prescribed for credit with respect to residential property, farm residences, and major additions and major improvements to residences: With respect to every such credit subject to this part, amortization payments shall be required which either (1) will annually reduce the original principal amount of such credit by not less than 5 percent until the outstanding balance of such credit has been reduced to an amount equal to or less than 50 percent of the value of the property with respect to which such credit was extended or (2) will fully liquidate the original principal amount of such credit not later than the date of the maturity of the credit through substantially equal monthly, quarterly, semiannual, or annual payments covering principal and interest or through substantially equal monthly, quarterly, semiannual, or annual payments of principal. The value referred to in the preceding sentence shall be determined as of the date the credit was extended in the manner provided in § 225.2 (i). If the amount of the credit when extended is not more than 50 percent of such value, such credit shall not be subject to the amortization provisions of this paragraph.

Schedule II. Multi-unit residential property—Maximum loan value. For the purposes of this part, maximum loan values [12] It is to be noted that the term "farm property" as defined in § 225.2 (o) does not include multi-unit residential property; accordingly, the location of multi-unit residential property does not affect the question whether extensions of credit with respect to such property are subject to this part.

[13] For application to three- and four-unit residences, see § 225.6 (o).

[14] It should be noted that in certain circumstances more restrictive terms would be required by this part.

[15] For application to three- and four-unit residences, see § 225.6 (o).

[16] The reporting and record-keeping requirements of this part have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

for all multi-unit residential property and major additions and major improvements to multi-unit residences are prescribed as set forth in the following table. In the table, (1) the term "value" means the value of the multi-unit residential property, or major addition or major improvement, as the case may be, determined in accordance with § 225.2 (l), and (2) the term "value per family unit" means an amount computed by dividing "value" by the number of family units in the structure or proposed structure to which the credit relates. Where a major addition or major improvement will change the number of family units, the value per family unit shall be computed on the basis of the number of family units which the multi-unit residence will contain after the addition or improvement has been completed. In the case of credit extended with respect to multi-unit residential property involving more than one such multi-unit residence, the maximum loan value shall be applied separately with respect to each such multi-unit residence or with respect to the entire property, at the election of the Registrant.

If the value per family unit is	The maximum loan value is
Not more than $7,000	83 percent of value.
More than $7,000 but not more than $15,000	$5,810 plus 53 percent of excess of value over $7,000.
More than $15,000 but not more than $23,500	$10,050 plus 20 percent of excess of value over $15,000.
Over $23,500	50 percent of value.

2. a. Part 225 is issued by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, with the concurrence of the Housing and Home Finance Administrator, under authority of the Defense Production Act of 1950, approved September 8, 1950, and Executive Order No. 10161, dated September 9, 1950.

The purpose of this part is to prescribe appropriate terms in connection with real estate construction credit, including appropriate supporting rules, in order to carry out the purposes and policy of the aforementioned authorities. The principal purpose of this amendment is to broaden the scope of this part by making it applicable to residential real estate credit in connection with three- and four-unit residences and multi-unit residential property. The amendment also makes other changes with the view of providing more workable and effective regulation.

b. Section 709 of the Defense Production Act of 1950 provides that the functions exercised under such Act shall be excluded from the operations of the Administrative Procedure Act (60 Stat. 237) except as to the requirements of section 3 thereof.

In amending this part and in accordance with the requirements of the aforesaid section 709, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

BOARD OF GOVERNORS OF THE FEDERAL RESERVE SYSTEM, [SEAL] S. R. CARPENTER,
Secretary.

TITLE 14—CIVIL AVIATION

Chapter I—Civil Aeronautics Board

[Civil Air Regs., Amdt. 4b-3]

HUMIDITY ACCOUNTABILITY

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 8th day of January, 1951.

Currently effective § 4b.110 provides that the prescribed performance of an airplane shall be determined, and compliance shall be shown, for standard atmospheric conditions and still air. Standard atmosphere is defined in part as a "dry, perfect gas." Thus, this regulation in effect stipulates that whenever an airplane is flight tested in other than standard atmospheric conditions the performance data shall be corrected to the standard atmosphere. In the past, compliance with this provision was shown by correcting the performance data to all of the conditions defining the standard atmosphere except that condition which relates to the humidity of the air. This procedure was considered acceptable because the results of the tests conducted in average atmospheric conditions (i. e. humid instead of dry air) are always conservative. It had not been considered worthwhile to correct for humidity, because the corrections were small and therefore not considered to be of practical significance. Therefore, even though the regulations did not require humidity accountability, accountability to an average degree had in the past actually been introduced in the procedures for the certification of transport airplanes.

With the advent of larger and greater-powered airplanes, it has become evident that the effect of humidity on the performance of the airplane, as expressed in useful load, is of practical significance. As a result, some manufacturers have sought to comply strictly with the regulation which permits correcting the airplane's performance to dry air, i. e. to zero humidity. In their study of this problem both the Administrator and the Board realized that the current requirement has unconservative implications, particularly with respect to the larger and greater-powered airplanes, which were not foreseen at the time of its promulgation. While the Board believes the problem of humidity might be solved more realistically in a manner similar to that used in taking account of temperature effects, namely, by allowing corrections to be made to zero humidity in the certification of airplanes but simultaneously requiring that humidity be taken into account operationally, the development and implementation of an appropriate operational requirement at this time would, it is advised, impose too great a burden upon the manufacturers and operators in view of the increased activity on their part to meet current and anticipated military commitments. On the other hand, we think it undesirable to permit new transport airplane types to be certificated without some form of humidity accountability. Accordingly, we are incorporating in the airworthiness regulations a requirement that humidity be accounted for in determining the performance of newly type certificated transport airplanes.

However, it should be noted that further consideration is to be given to this problem to determine whether it is practicable to establish operational corrections for the humidity factor or for the combined temperature and humidity factors.

Interested persons have been afforded an opportunity to participate in the making of this rule, and due consideration has been given to all relevant matter submitted.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby amends Part 4b of the Civil Air Regulations (14 CFR, Part 4b, as amended) effective February 12, 1951:

By amending § 4b.110 to read as follows:

§ 4b.110 General. With respect to all airplanes type certificated on or after February 12, 1951, the performance prescribed in this subpart shall be determined, and compliance shall be shown, for standard atmospheric conditions and still air, except that the performance as affected by engine power, instead of being based on dry air, shall be based on 80 percent relative humidity.

[Regs., Serial No. SR-359]

PART 34—FLIGHT NAVIGATOR CERTIFICATES

LIMITED CERTIFICATES

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 9th day of January 1951.

As stated in Special Civil Air Regulation Serial Number SR-357 adopted December 15, 1950, the Board's earlier regulations authorizing the issuance of limited flight navigator certificates of a maximum duration of 3 months to individuals, who, while having qualifications for and experience as flight navigators, were unable immediately to meet the full requirements for certification under Part 34 of the Civil Air Regulations served materially to expedite the completion of contract flight operations vitally related to the earlier phase of the United Nations effort in Korea. The Board also pointed out that the current international situation appeared to be even more serious than it was in August 1950 when earlier action was taken. The Board has been advised that the civil air transport operations in the Pacific in support of the military will meet and probably exceed the maximums previously attained.

Pursuant to the authority previously granted the Administrator, more than 90 limited flight navigator certificates were issued, and approximately two-thirds of the recipients thereof have already obtained regular certificates after fully meeting the requirements of Part 34. More are expected to obtain such certificates before the termination date of the limited certificates issued to them. If the immediate and planned participation of civil air transport in the Korean air lift had not been greatly increased in recent weeks, the needs of the air carriers for licensed personnel would have been met.

However, the Board has been advised that operations planned and contracted for necessitate the employment of a considerably greater number of certificated flight navigators than are currently available and that the operators have made diligent efforts to obtain the services of such airmen to no avail. They have, therefore, requested the Board to extend the authorization for the issuance of limited flight navigator certificates. It has been stated that sufficient personnel meeting the requirements previously established for such certificates are available, that they will be given extensive refresher courses by the carriers, and that it is to be expected that they can meet the full requirements of Part 34 within the three-month duration period of the limited certificates. The Civil Aeronautics Administration has joined in the request that authorization be continued for the issuance of limited flight navigator certificates, and although advised of the possibility of such action by the Board no comment has been received from interested labor groups.

The Board is, therefore, extending for an additional 90-day period the authority to issue limited flight navigator certificates limited in duration to a maximum period of 3 months from the date of issuance. Such certificates will not be renewable, nor do we expect that it will be necessary to authorize further extensions of the provisions of this regulation.

For the reasons stated above notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable, unnecessary, and contrary to the public interest, and the Board finds that good cause exists for making this Special Civil Air Regulation effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby makes and promulgates a Special Civil Air Regulation, effective immediately, to read as follows:

1. Contrary provisions of the Civil Air Regulations notwithstanding, the Administrator may issue a limited flight navigator certificate to an individual who meets the following requirements:

(a) The applicant for such certificate shall have served as a flight navigator for at least six months, or for at least 500 hours, since December 7, 1941,

(1) As a member of the armed forces of the United States or a civilian employee thereof,

(2) As an employee of a United States air carrier prior to November 15, 1947,

(3) As an employee of a person engaged in the conduct of military contract operations;

(b) The applicant shall meet the requirements of §§ 34.2 through 34.5 and 34.8; and

(c) The applicant shall satisfactorily accomplish such written examination as may be prescribed by the Administrator.

2. The holder of a limited flight navigator certificate may exercise the same privileges as the holder of a flight navigator certificate issued in accordance with Part 34 of the Civil Air Regulations, except that he may act as a flight navigator only in those operations which are conducted by an air carrier pursuant to a contract entered into by that air carrier with the armed forces.

3. A limited flight navigator certificate, unless sooner surrendered, suspended, or revoked, shall remain in effect for the period of time indicated on the face thereof: Provided, That such period shall not exceed 3 months: And provided further, That limited flight navigator certificates renewed under the provisions of Special Civil Air Regulation SR-357 shall remain in effect until January 31, 1951. A limited flight navigator certificate issued under the provisions of this regulation shall not be renewable.

4. A flight navigator certificate shall be issued to the holder of a limited flight navigator certificate, if such holder accomplishes successfully the written examination prescribed in § 34.7. If such individual fails to accomplish satisfactorily any part of such written examination he may, with the approval of the Administrator, apply, notwithstanding the provisions of § 34.13, at any time, for re-examination on the part failed.

5. All limited flight navigator certificates issued pursuant to the authority of Special Civil Air Regulations SR-347, SR-352, or SR-357 shall have the same effect as though issued hereunder.

This regulation supersedes Special Civil Air Regulations SR-352 and SR-357 and shall terminate March 31, 1951, unless sooner superseded or rescinded.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 602, 52 Stat. 1007, 1008, 62 Stat. 1216; 49 U. S. C. 551, 552, act of July 1, 1948)

TITLE 15—COMMERCE AND FOREIGN TRADE

Chapter III—Bureau of Foreign and Domestic Commerce, Department of Commerce

Subchapter C—Office of International Trade

[5th Gen. Rev. of Export Regs., Amdt. 37 [1]]

PART 381—ENFORCEMENT PROVISIONS

DESTINATION CONTROL

Section 381.4 Destination control is amended to read as follows:

[1] This amendment was published in Current Export Bulletin No. 600 dated January 5, 1951.

§ 381.4 Destination control—(a) Scope and definitions. The provisions of this section apply to all shipments of cargo made under validated licenses and all shipments of Positive List commodities made under either validated or general licenses.

The provisions of this section shall not apply with respect to shipments of cargo effected under general license GO to ports of ultimate destination in Country Group O (North or South America, as listed in Schedule C of the Bureau of the Census).

As used in this section "bill of lading" means the contract of carriage and receipt for commodities issued by the carrier.

(b) Country of ultimate destination. (1) No carrier by water, land, or air, nor any other person on behalf of any carrier, shall issue a bill of lading which provides for delivery of cargo subject to the provisions of this section at any foreign port except a port located in the country of (i) the ultimate consignee, or (ii) the intermediate consignee, named in the authenticated shipper's export declaration.

(2) No carrier shall deliver such cargo at any other country at the request or option of either the shipper, consignor, exporter, purchaser, or ultimate consignee, or their agents, or any other person having custody or control of the shipment, without prior written authorization from the Office of International Trade to the carrier or its agent.

(3) No shipper, consignor, exporter, purchaser or ultimate consignee, or their agents, or any other person, shall, without prior written authorization from the Office of International Trade to the carrier or its agent: (i) Divert any cargo to any country of ultimate destination other than that named in the authenticated shipper's export declaration or in the bill of lading described in paragraph (c) of this section; (ii) request or demand that any carrier or its agent divert such cargo from the country of ultimate destination named in any of such documents. In addition, no agent of any carrier shall instruct or authorize the master of the vessel to divert any such cargo to any other country of ultimate destination without such prior written authorization from the Office of International Trade.

(4) No carrier of such cargo shall issue a bill of lading providing for delivery to the ultimate consignee named in the authenticated shipper's export declaration at optional ports where one of such optional ports is in a country not named as the ultimate country of destination in the license or declaration, unless written authorization has been granted by the Office of International Trade. However, where the authenticated shipper's export declaration provides for delivery of cargo consisting of commodities subject to this section to optional intermediate consignees located in ports in different countries, the carrier may issue a bill of lading providing for delivery at such optional ports.

(c) Statement regarding ultimate destination on declaration, bill of lading and commercial invoice. (1) No shipment of cargo subject to the provisions of this section may be made unless the licensee or his forwarding agent shall place the following statement (filling in the blank space with the name of the country of ultimate destination set forth in the shipper's export declaration) on all copies of the shipper's export declaration presented to the collector of customs at the port of exit for authentication:

These commodities licensed by U. S. for ultimate destination ----------. Diversion contrary to U. S. Law prohibited.

(2) No carrier by water, land, or air shall issue, and no licensee, shipper, consignor, exporter or consignee, or their agents, or any other person, shall prepare or procure a bill of lading covering an exportation of a commodity with respect to which a shipper's export declaration has been authenticated by a collector of customs containing the statement set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph, unless all copies of such bill of lading, including all non-negotiable and office copies, shall contain the same statement.

(3) No licensee, shipper, consignor, exporter, or agent thereof, or any other person shall prepare or issue any commercial invoice and, where required in the course of the transaction, any consular invoice, with respect to any shipment of commodities subject to the provisions of this section, unless such invoice or invoices, and all copies thereof, shall contain on the face thereof the statement set forth in subparagraph (1) of this paragraph.

(d) Notice and prohibition against diversion. (1) Whenever a commercial or consular invoice shall be issued containing the statement prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section, the shipper or other person issuing such invoice shall promptly send copies thereof to (i) the ultimate consignee and the purchaser named in the authenticated shipper's export declaration, (ii) the intermediate consignee and (iii) any other persons named in the invoice who are located in a foreign country. Nothing contained in this section shall be construed to limit the persons or classes of persons to whom such invoices and bills of lading are usually and customarily sent in the course of export trade.

(2) No person, including the ultimate consignee or intermediate consignee and any on-forwarding carrier, shall, after notification of the prohibition against diversion prescribed in paragraph (c) of this section, whether by such invoice or bill of lading or by any other means, divert or cause to be diverted any of the commodities described in such bill of lading to any country of ultimate destination other than that named in such notification.

(e) Proof of notice. In any administrative compliance proceeding brought by the Office of International Trade, evidence of the sending of such invoice or bill of lading or other form of notification of the prohibition against diversion to any person, shall constitute prima facie proof of his receipt thereof and of notification that the commodities have been licensed for a particular country of ultimate destination and may not be lawfully diverted to any other country. In addition, proof of the sending of such notice to the intermediate consignee shall be deemed notification of such prohibition to the ultimate consignee and purchaser.

(f) Unloading of cargo at a port in other than intermediate or ultimate country of destination. Nothing contained in the regulations in this part shall be deemed to prohibit a carrier from unloading cargo at a port in other than the intermediate or ultimate country of destination shown on the authenticated shipper's export declaration where, by reason of an act of God, perils of the sea, damage to the carrier, strikes, war, political disturbances, insurrection, or other causes beyond the control of the carrier set forth as standard provisions of the carrier's bill of lading, it is not feasible to deliver the cargo at the licensed port of destination. Whenever, because of the existence of any of the said causes, cargo is unloaded at a port in any other country:

(1) The carrier shall promptly, and within 10 days from the date of unloading such cargo, report the facts with respect thereto to the nearest American consul and to the agent of the carrier located in the United States. Within 10 days after the receipt of such notice by the agent of the carrier in the United States, such agent shall transmit a copy of the report to the Office of International Trade. This report shall consist of a copy of the manifest of such diverted cargo together with a statement of the place of unloading and the name and address of the person in whose custody the commodities were delivered.

(2) The exporter of such commodities shall, upon notice from the Office of International Trade of such diversion, promptly, and within 10 days, notify the Office of International Trade of the proposed disposition of the commodities.

(3) No person, including the exporter, the licensee, any consignee, or the carrier and any agent or person acting on its behalf, shall take any steps to effect delivery or entry of the commodities into the commerce of the country where unloaded without prior approval of the Office of International Trade. The carrier shall take steps to assure that such commodities are placed in custody under bond or other guaranty not to enter the commerce of such country or any country other than the countries of the ultimate and intermediate consignees shown on the authenticated shipper's export declaration without such prior approval.

(g) Indication of shipper's export declaration number on ship's manifest. The carrier or its agent shall, on all copies of that manifest which is filed with the U. S. collector of customs, indicate thereon, with respect to each shipment, the applicable shipper's export declaration number assigned to each such shipment by the collector of customs.

This amendment shall become effective as of January 22, 1951.

TITLE 44—PUBLIC PROPERTY AND WORKS

Chapter IV—Department of Commerce

PART 401—DISPOSAL OF FOREIGN EXCESS PROPERTY

EXCESS PROPERTY FABRICATED FROM CRITICAL MATERIALS

Determination by the Secretary of Commerce under section 402 of Public Law 152, 81st Congress, and Foreign Excess Property Order 1, as amended August 23, 1950.

Whereas, the President of the United States on December 16, 1950 proclaimed a State of National Emergency, and announced "a very rapid speed-up in the production of military equipment"; and

Whereas, the production of equipment for the defense of the United States will require large quantities of materials already in short supply, including but not limited to steel, non-ferrous metals, natural and synthetic rubber and other materials; and

Whereas, large quantities of foreign excess property originally procured for defense purposes still remain overseas, having been declared surplus to the needs of the Government owning agencies. Much of this property has been sold to civilian purchasers, and can be put to civilian use in this country, thus obviating the consumption of critically short materials in new production for civilian use and conserving such materials for defense production; and

Whereas, foreign excess property may not be imported into the United States, pursuant to section 402 of Public Law 152, 81st Congress, unless the Secretary of Commerce (in the case of non-agricultural property) "determines that the importation of such property would relieve domestic shortages or otherwise be beneficial to the economy of this country."

Now, therefore, pursuant to said section 402 of Public Law 152, 81st Congress, and Foreign Excess Property Order 1, as amended August 23, 1950, the Secretary of Commerce hereby determines:

The importation into the United States of non-agricultural foreign excess property procured for the use of the armed services or other purposes of defense and fabricated from materials now in short supply or required for forthcoming defense production, will be beneficial to the economy of this country.

§ 401.100 Excess property fabricated from critical materials. (a) This section shall apply to non-agricultural items of foreign excess property fabricated for defense use in whole or in part from critical materials.

(b) The Collectors of Customs at the several ports of entry are hereby authorized to permit the entry for consumption of such foreign excess property. If doubt exists as to the admissibility of an item, the Foreign Excess Property Officer shall be consulted by the Collector of Customs before entry is allowed.

(c) All of the commodities coming within the foregoing classification now in the United States under bond or in foreign trade zones may be released immediately or entered in the regular manner under this determination.

(d) No application need be made to the Secretary of Commerce or to his delegated representative, the Foreign Excess Property Officer, Office of Industry and Commerce, Department of Commerce to import any such property.

(e) Any communication concerning this section shall be addressed to the Foreign Excess Property Officer, Office of Industry and Commerce, Department of Commerce, Washington 25, D. C., Ref. F. E. P. Order 1.

Production and Marketing Administration

[7 CFR, Part 930]

[Docket No. AO-72-A15-RO-1]

HANDLING OF MILK IN THE TOLEDO, OHIO, MARKETING AREA

NOTICE OF RECOMMENDED DECISION AND OPPORTUNITY TO FILE WRITTEN EXCEPTIONS WITH RESPECT TO A PROPOSED AMENDMENT TO TENTATIVE MARKETING AGREEMENT, AND TO ORDER, AS AMENDED

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), notice is hereby given of the filing with the Hearing Clerk of the recommended decision of the Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, United States Department of Agriculture, with respect to a proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, regulating the handling of milk in the Toledo, Ohio, marketing area. Interested parties may file written exceptions to this decision with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C., not later than the close of business the 6th day after publication of this decision in the FEDERAL REGISTER. Exceptions should be filed in quadruplicate.

Preliminary statement. The hearing on the record of which the proposed amendment to the tentative marketing agreement and to the order, as amended, was formulated, was conducted at Toledo, Ohio, on June 1, 1950, and reopened on November 30, 1950, pursuant to notices thereof which were issued on May 5, 1950 (15 F. R. 2804) and November 17, 1950 (15 F. R. 7980).

The material issues of record related to:

1. A revision of the marketing area to include certain parts of Monroe County, Michigan.

2. Provision of a procedure for handling milk under the regulation of another Federal Order.

3. A change in the Class I price differentials in certain months and in the Class II price differentials in all months, with provision that such differentials be at lower levels under certain market supply-demand conditions.

Issue number 3 is covered by the findings and conclusions made in this decision. It is determined that early action is necessary regarding this issue. Decision on the remaining issues is reserved to a later date. They involve interrelations with the Detroit market and require appraisal in view of such action as may be taken with respect to a hearing held on a proposed Federal Order for the Detroit area. Decision on these issues should not be permitted to delay action on the issue covered herein.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues decided herein are hereby made upon the basis of the record of the hearing:

The Class I price differentials should be increased 15 cents for the months of January, February, September, October, November and December and 5 cents for the months of March, April, July and August. These differentials should be reduced a like amount if the supply of milk in relation to Class I needs increases so that producer milk receipts for any period of 12 consecutive months average more than 135 percent of gross Class I utilization, and return to the higher level in the event producer milk receipts average less than 125 percent of total Class I utilization for any period of 12 consecutive months. The Class II price differentials should be changed from 70 cents below Class I in January and February and 60 cents below in all other months to 30 cents below in all months.

The proposal to increase the Class I price differentials was based on declining receipts of producer milk in relation to Class I sales, an increasing fall shortage of producer milk for Class I and Class II utilization, a decline in the number of producers supplying the market, adoption of a Grade A milk ordinance, and a reduction in the margin of the Class I price over the prices paid by local dairy manufacturing plants. The record shows that for the six months period ending October 31, 1950, market receipts of producer milk were about 1½ million pounds less than for the corresponding period in 1949. However, Class I utilization for the 1950 period was almost 3 million pounds greater than for the 1949 period. For the month of October 1950, the latest month for which data were available, receipts of producer milk were down 3.8 percent from 1949 while Class I utilization was 6.8 percent greater. Producer milk receipts just barely exceeded Class I utilization for the entire market in October. In that month 1.6 million pounds of other source milk were allocated to Class I compared with slightly over ½ million pounds in October 1949.

The number of producers supplying milk to Toledo handlers dropped below 1900 in June, 1950, and succeeding months. This is the lowest number of producers on the market for several years, and averages over 200 less than for the years of 1948 and 1949. A new Grade A ordinance was made effective in October, 1950, involving stricter requirements for milk production and resulting in some increase in the cost of producing milk to meet city health department approval. It was also pointed out that the margin between the Toledo Class I and Class II prices and the prices paid by local dairy manufacturing plants has been narrowed recently by relatively higher pay prices at the local plants. However, the price incentive needed to induce producers of manufacturing milk to meet city fluid milk requirements is now greater because of increased costs of meeting city standards.

Market conditions shown by the hearing record indicate the need for a small increase in the Class I price. It is concluded that, together with a revision of the Class II price and the supply-demand adjustment discussed below, an increase in the Class I price differential of 15 cents for the six months of September through February and 5 cents for the months of March, April, July and August is appropriate to reflect market conditions and to insure an adequate supply of milk.

It was proposed that the increase in Class I and Class II price differentials be applied to the months of short supply to increase the incentive for more even seasonal production. Milk production in the highest month was 147 percent of the lowest month in 1947, 139 percent in 1948 and 136 percent in 1949, based on average daily deliveries per producer. While a satisfactory trend toward more even production is indicated, it is concluded that a somewhat wider variation in the Class I and Class II prices between spring and fall may be desirable and the increase in differentials should be applied to the months of lowest seasonal production.

It was proposed that the Class II price be fixed at 30 cents below the Class I price. There was originally 60 cents difference between these prices in all months but an amendment in 1950 changing the Class I price differential in January and February results in a difference of 70 cents in those months. The proposal was based on a change in Toledo Health Department regulations effective in October 1950, requiring cream for city consumption to be made from milk produced on farms holding permits for the production of milk for fluid consumption in the city. This requirement might be considered to justify a price for milk used for cream for fluid consumption equal to that for milk for such use. However, it is anticipated that for some time the supply of producer milk in the low production months will be insufficient to furnish fluid milk and cream sales of all handlers. This shortage will be made up largely by the use of other source cream. A total of nearly 1½ million pounds of other source cream was received by handlers in 1949, and about 1⅓ million pounds in the first 10 months of 1950. It was testified that while it is the intention of the health department eventually to require all other source purchases to be of Grade A quality, it is not possible to enforce such a requirement at present. Cream made from producer milk must therefore compete to some extent with cream from non-Grade A sources. It is concluded that under the circumstances producer milk used to produce cream for fluid consumption should be priced 30 cents per hundredweight below milk used for Class I purposes.

An adjustment in the Class I and Class II prices was proposed based on the relationship between receipts of producer milk and gross Class I utilization. A more than adequate supply of producer milk would be indicated by producer milk receipts for a 12 month period in excess of 135 percent of gross Class I utilization and an inadequate supply by receipts less than 125 percent of such utilization, it was testified. Both a fixed 12 month period and a 12 month moving average were considered. Use of a 12 month moving average appears more suitable for this purpose since changes in supply and Class I utilization would be more promptly reflected in price adjustments. Milk needed for Class II averages between 6.5 percent and 7.5 percent of Class I utilization and, allowing for daily variations in receipts and sales and variations between handlers, producer milk receipts for the markets equal to 120 percent of Class I utilization should be adequate to furnish Class I and Class II requirements. Based on records of the last 4 years, a 12 month average of over 130 percent of Class I utilization would be necessary to insure 120 percent in the lowest production month. However, it was testified that it is not considered desirable to encourage sufficient milk production to supply the entire Class I and Class II needs of the market in the short supply months. The market may not be considered seriously short of milk until producer milk receipts fall below 125 percent of gross Class I utilization for a 12 month period. For the last 4 years there has been an average difference of 15 percent between the low month and the year average in the ratio of producer milk receipts to Class I utilization. That is, if producer milk receipts for the month of lowest production average 120 percent of Class I utilization, such receipts may be expected to average about 135 percent of Class I utilization for the full year. A 12 month average of such relationship above 135 percent would indicate an excess supply of milk even in the month of lowest production. It is concluded, therefore, that the Class I price differentials considered necessary under present conditions should remain in effect only so long as producer milk receipts for the most recent 12 month period average not more than 135 percent of gross Class I utilization for the period. In the event this level is exceeded, such differentials should be reduced to the levels now in effect and remain at such levels until a shortage in supply is indicated by a 12 month period in which producer milk receipts average less than 125 percent of gross Class I utilization.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended, will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Rulings on proposed findings and conclusions. Briefs were filed on behalf of producers and handlers.

The briefs contained statements of fact, proposed findings and conclusions, and arguments with respect to the provisions of the proposed amendment. Every point covered in the briefs was carefully considered along with the evidence in the record in making the findings and reaching the conclusions hereinbefore set forth. To the extent that the findings and conclusions proposed in the briefs are inconsistent with the findings and conclusions contained herein, the request to make such findings or to reach such conclusions is denied on the basis of the facts found and stated in connection with the conclusions in this recommended decision.

Recommended marketing agreement and amendment to the order. The following amendment to the order, as amended, is recommended as the detailed and appropriate means by which the foregoing conclusions may be carried out. The recommended marketing agreement is not included in this decision because the regulatory provisions thereof would be identical with those contained in the order, as amended, and as hereby proposed to be further amended.

FRESH PEACHES GROWN IN GEORGIA

FINDINGS AND DETERMINATION WITH RESPECT TO CONTINUATION IN EFFECT OF AMENDED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND ORDER

Pursuant to the applicable provisions of Marketing Agreement No. 99, as amended, and Order No. 62, as amended (7 CFR Part 962; 15 F. R. 4105), and the applicable provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (48 Stat. 31, as amended; 7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), notice was given in the FEDERAL REGISTER on December 8, 1950 (15 F. R. 8715), that a referendum would be conducted among the growers who, during the calendar year 1947 (which period was determined to be a representative period), had been engaged, in the State of Georgia, in the production of peaches for market to determine whether a majority of such growers favor the termination of the amended marketing agreement and order.

Upon the basis of the results of the aforesaid referendum, which was conducted during the period December 9 to December 16, 1950, both dates inclusive, it is hereby found and determined that the termination of the amended marketing agreement and order, regulating the handling of fresh peaches grown in the State of Georgia, is not favored by the requisite majority of such growers.

Done at Washington, D. C., this 8th day of January 1951.

PROCLAMATION OF RESULTS OF REFERENDUM ON MARKETING QUOTAS FOR THE YEARS 1951, 1952 AND 1953

§ 729.204 Basis and purpose. The regulations contained in §§ 729.204 and 729.205 are issued to announce the results of the referendum held December 14, 1950, pursuant to section 358 (b) of the Agricultural Adjustment Act of 1938, as amended, to determine whether farmers favor or oppose marketing quotas for peanuts produced in the three calendar years beginning with 1951. The act requires the results of any peanut marketing quota referendum to be proclaimed within thirty days after the date on which it is held. Since the only purpose of this proclamation is to announce the results of the referendum, it is hereby found and determined that with respect to this proclamation application of the notice and public procedure provisions of the Administrative Procedure Act (5 U. S. C. 1003) is impracticable and unnecessary.

§ 729.205 Proclamation of the results of the marketing quota referendum for peanuts for the crops produced in the three calendar years beginning with the calendar year 1951. In a referendum of farmers engaged in the production of the 1950 crop of peanuts held on December 14, 1950, 71,210 farmers voted. Of those voting 50,417 farmers, or 70.80 percent, favored quotas for peanuts produced in the three calendar years beginning with 1951; 20,793 farmers, or 29.20 percent, were opposed to having quotas in effect for the crops produced in the three calendar years beginning with the calendar year 1951. Since more than two-thirds of the farmers voting favored quotas, the national marketing quota proclaimed by the Secretary of Agriculture for peanuts produced in the calendar year 1951 (15 F. R. 7291) shall be in effect, and national marketing quotas hereafter proclaimed for peanuts for the calendar years 1952 and 1953 shall be effective.

S. C. 1001 et seq.) because the time intervening between the date when information upon which this section is based became available and the time when this section must become effective in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act is insufficient; a reasonable time is permitted, under the circumstances, for preparation for such effective time; and good cause exists for making the provisions of this section effective not later than January 14, 1951. Shipments of grapefruit, grown as aforesaid, have been subject to regulation by grades and sizes, pursuant to the amended marketing agreement and order, since October 15, 1950, and will so continue until January 14, 1951; the recommendation and supporting information for continued regulation subsequent to January 13, 1951, was promptly submitted to the Department after an open meeting of the Administrative Committee on January 4; such meeting was held to consider recommendations for regulation, after giving due notice of such meeting, and interested persons were afforded an opportunity to submit their views at this meeting; the provisions of this section, including the effective time thereof, are identical with the aforesaid recommendation of the committee, and information concerning such provisions and effective time has been disseminated among handlers of such grapefruit; it is necessary, in order to effectuate the declared policy of the act, to make this section effective during the period hereinafter set forth so as to provide for the continued regulation of the handling of grapefruit; and compliance with this section will not require any special preparation on the part of persons subject thereto which cannot be completed by the effective time hereof.

(b) Order. (1) During the period beginning at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., January 14, 1951, and ending at 12:01 a. m., P. s. t., February 18, 1951, no handler shall ship:

(i) Any grapefruit of any variety grown in the State of Arizona; in Imperial County, California; or in that part of Riverside County, California, situated south and east of the San Gorgonio Pass unless such grapefruit are at least fairly well colored, and otherwise grade at least U. S. No. 2; or

(ii) From the State of California or the State of Arizona (a) to any point outside thereof in the United States, any grapefruit, grown as aforesaid, which are of a size smaller than $3\frac{11}{16}$ inches in diameter, or (b) to any point in Canada, any grapefruit, grown as aforesaid, which are of a size smaller than $3\frac{6}{16}$ inches in diameter ("diameter" in each case to be measured midway at a right angle to a straight line running from the stem to the blossom end of the fruit), except that a tolerance of 5 percent, by count, of grapefruit smaller than the foregoing minimum sizes shall be permitted which tolerance shall be applied in accordance with the provisions for the application of tolerance, specified in the revised United States Standards for Grapefruit (California and Arizona), 7 CFR 51.241: Provided, That, in determining the percentage of grapefruit in any lot which are smaller than $3\frac{11}{16}$ inches in diameter, such percentage shall be based only on the grapefruit in such lot which are of a size $4\frac{2}{16}$ inches in diameter and smaller; and in determining the percentage of grapefruit in any lot which are smaller than $3\frac{6}{16}$ inches in diameter, such percentage shall be based only on the grapefruit in such lot which are of a size $3\frac{13}{16}$ inches in diameter and smaller.

(2) As used in this section, "handler," "variety," "grapefruit," and "ship" shall have the same meaning as when used in said amended marketing agreement and order; and the terms "U. S. No. 2" and "fairly well colored" shall each have the same meaning as when used in the revised United States Standards for Grapefruit (California and Arizona), 7 CFR 51.241.

(2) The prorate base of each handler who has made application therefor, as provided in the said amended order, is hereby fixed in accordance with the prorate base schedule which is attached hereto and made a part hereof by this reference.

(3) As used in this section "handled," "handler," "varieties," "carloads," and "prorate base" shall have the same meaning as when used in the said amended order; and the terms "Prorate District No. 1," "Prorate District No. 2," "Prorate District No. 3," and "Prorate District No. 4" shall each have the same meaning as given to the respective terms in § 966.107, as amended (15 F. TITLE 26—INTERNAL REVENUE

Chapter I—Bureau of Internal Revenue, Department of the Treasury

Subchapter A—Income and Excess Profits Taxes

EXTENSION OF TIME FOR FILING DECLARATION OF ESTIMATED TAX FOR 1950 FOR CERTAIN U. S. EMPLOYEES

PARAGRAPH 1. Pursuant to the authority contained in section 58 (e) of the Internal Revenue Code, an extension of time for filing the declaration of estimated tax for the calendar year 1950 is hereby granted up to and including the due date of the return for such year in the case of a citizen who is an employee of the United States or of any agency (civilian, military, or naval) of the United States and who is required to make the declaration of estimated tax for such year solely because of the amendment of section 251 of the Internal Revenue Code made by section 220 of the Revenue Act of 1950, approved September 23, 1950. If the taxpayer files his return for such calendar year on or before the due date of such return, and pays the amount of the tax shown on such return, such return shall also be considered as the declaration of estimated tax for such taxable year. See §§ 29.53-1, 29.53-3, and 29.53-4 of Treasury Regulations 111 for the due date of returns.

PAR. 2. This Treasury decision shall be effective upon its filing for publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER.

Because this Treasury decision merely relieves certain taxpayers from a requirement respecting the filing of declarations of estimated tax for the calendar year 1950, it is found that it is unnecessary to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of such act.

(d) "Rated order" means any purchase order, contract or other form of procurement for materials or services bearing the authorized rating and certification provided for in this part.

(e) "Assignment" of a rating. A rating is assigned when the NPA, or a government agency that it has authorized, grants a person the right to use the rating.

(f) "Application" of a rating. A rating is applied when the person to whom it is assigned uses the rating.

(g) "Extension" of a rating. A rating is extended when it is used by the person to whom it was applied or when it is further used by another person to whom it was extended.

§ 11.3 Rating authorized. Only a single rating is authorized, to be known as a "DO rating". This rating will be identified by the prefix DO and the two digits identifying the procurement program, which must be furnished a supplier by the person using the rating. All DO rated orders will have equal preferential status as provided in this part.

§ 11.4 When ratings may be applied. (a) When a regulation, order or certificate assigns a DO rating to any person either by naming him or by describing the class of persons to which he belongs, that person may apply the DO rating to get delivery of material or the performance of certain services.

(b) No person may place rated orders for more material than he is authorized to rate even though he intends to cancel some of the orders or reduce the quantity of material ordered to the authorized amount before it is all delivered.

§ 11.5 When ratings may be extended for material. (a) When a person has received a rated order for the delivery of material, he may extend the rating to get the material which he will deliver on that order, or which will be physically incorporated in the material which he will deliver, including containers and packaging materials required to make the delivery, and including also chemicals directly used in the production of the material. Such rating may also be used to procure the following accessories for production equipment: jigs, dies, tools, and fixtures directly made use of in the production of such material, if the inability to procure such accessories would result in a failure to meet delivery date established in such rated order. This does not include machine tools or other complete units of production equipment. If the material is to be processed, this includes the portion of it which would normally be consumed or converted into scrap or by-products in the course of processing.

(b) If a person has made delivery of material or has incorporated it into the material which he has delivered on a rated order, he may extend the rating to replace it in his inventory subject to the provisions of Part 10 of this chapter (Regulation 1) on inventory. Whether or not the material is covered by Part 10 of this chapter (Regulation 1) no rating may be used for any inventory replacement which would result in more than a practicable minimum working inventory, as defined in Regulation 1. Any material ordered with a rating as replacement in inventory must be substantially the same as the material which the person delivered or incorporated in the material which he delivered, except for minor variations in size, shape or design.

§ 11.6 Additional restrictions upon the use of ratings for certain materials. (a) A person who has received a rated order may not extend the rating to get material for plant improvement, expansion, or construction, or to get machine tools or other items which he will carry as capital equipment, or to get maintenance, repair or operating supplies, except as is provided in § 11.5 (a).

(b) The ratings established by this part shall have no effect upon deliveries of items in § 11.31, List A. No person shall use ratings to get any of the items in § 11.31, List A, and no person selling such items shall require a rating as a condition of sale. Any rating purporting to be used to get any such items on a preferred basis shall be void.

§ 11.7 Use of ratings for services. (a) When a person is entitled to use a rating to get processed material, he may furnish the unprocessed material to a processor and use the same rating to get the material processed

(b) If the NPA specifically authorizes a person to use a rating to get services, he may use it for that purpose.

(c) Except as provided in paragraphs (a) and (b) of this section, no person may use a rating to get services.

(d) A person to whom a rating for services, as distinct from the production or delivery of material, has been applied or extended may not extend the rating for any purpose.

§ 11.8 How to apply or extend a rating. (a) When a person applies or extends a rating, he must put the prefix DO and the two digits supplied to him, for example DO–39, on his purchase order, or on a separate piece of paper attached to the order or clearly identifying it, together with the words "Certified under NPA Regulation 2," signed as prescribed in this section. This certificate constitutes a representation to the supplier and to the NPA that the purchaser is authorized under the provisions of this part to use the rating for the delivery of the materials covered by the order.

(b) Certifications on purchase or delivery orders must be signed by the person placing the order or by a responsible individual who is duly authorized to sign for that purpose. The signature must be either by hand or in the form of a rubber stamp or other facsimile reproduction of a handwritten signature. If a facsimile signature is used, the individual who uses it must be duly authorized in writing to use it for this purpose by the person whose signature it is, and a written record of the authorization must be kept.

(c) When a rated order is placed by telegram, the rating identification and certificate must be set out in full in the telegram. It will be sufficient if the file copy of the telegram is signed in the manner required for certification by this part.

(d) On rated orders requiring shipment within seven days, the substance of the certification may be stated verbally or by telephone. However, the following rules must be complied with:

(1) The person making the statement for the buyer must be a person duly authorized to make the certification.

(2) Both the buyer and the seller must promptly make a written record of the fact that the certification was given orally and the record must be signed by the buyer in the same way as a certification.

(e) The person who places a rated order, the individual whose signature is used and the individual who approves the use of the signature, will each be considered to be making a representation to the NPA that the statements contained in the certification are true to the best of his knowledge and belief. The person receiving the certification and any other information required to be included with it, shall be entitled to rely on it as a representation of the buyer unless he knows or has reason to believe that it is false.

(f) No person shall knowingly apply or extend or purport to apply or extend a rating to any order unless he is entitled to do so. No person shall apply or extend a rating for material or services after he has received the material or after the services have been performed, and any person who receives such a rating shall not extend it.

§ 11.9 Special provisions applicable to extensions; grouping of orders. (a) No person may extend any rating to replace inventory after three months have passed from the time he could have first extended it.

(b) If the purchase requirements for filling a number of rated orders for different items bearing different rating identifications are combined in one purchase order, each applicable rating identification must be placed alongside the related item.

(c) If the purchase requirements for filling a number of rated orders for the same material but bearing different rating identifications are combined in one purchase order, the purchase order must show the amount of each material to which a particular rating identification is extended.

(d) In the case of a manufacturer of common components or shelf items or any other person who has a number of rated orders for which he cannot place orders for minimum commercially procurable quantities of materials, to fill the rated orders individually, he may place one rated order for all the materials using the identification symbol DO–99. However, the amounts so ordered may not exceed the total amount of the material required for the rated orders so combined.

§ 11.10 Rules for acceptance and rejection of rated orders. Every order bearing a rating must be accepted and filled regardless of existing contracts and orders except as provided in this section. The "existing contracts and orders" referred to include not only ordinary purchase contracts but other arrangements achieving substantially the same results, though in form they may concern the use of production facilities rather than the material produced.

(a) A person must not accept a rated order for delivery on a date which would interfere with delivery of rated orders which he has already accepted, nor if delivery of the material ordered would interfere with delivery on an order which the NPA has previously directed him to fill.

(b) If a person when receiving a rated order bearing a specific delivery date does not expect to be able to fill it by the time requested, he must not accept it for delivery at that time. He must either (1) reject the order, stating when he could fill it, or (2) accept it for delivery on the earliest date he expects to be able to deliver, informing the customer of that date. He may adopt either of these two courses, depending on his understanding of which his customer would prefer. He may not reject a rated order just because he expects to receive other rated orders in the future.

(c) A supplier does not have to accept a rated order in any of the following cases, but there must be no discrimination in such cases against rated orders or between rated orders of different customers:

(1) If the person seeking to place the order is unwilling or unable to meet regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment. When a person who has a rated order asks a supplier to quote his regularly established prices and terms of sale or payment, the supplier must do so, except that if this would require detailed engineering or accounting work, he may give his best estimate without such work and say that it is not binding. However, the supplier need not quote if he is not required to accept the rated order and advises the person seeking the quotation of the reason for his refusal.

(2) If the order is for the manufacture of a product or the performance of a service of a kind which the person to whom the order is offered has not usually made or performed, and in addition, if either (i) he cannot fill the order without substantially altering or adding to his facilities or (ii) the order can readily be performed by someone else who has usually accepted and performed such orders.

(3) If an order for material is offered to a person who produces or acquires it for his own use only, and he has not filled any orders for that material within the past two years. If he has filled any orders within that period, but the rated order would take more than the excess over his own needs, he may reject the order for any amount over the excess.

(4) If filling the order would stop or interrupt the supplier's operations during the next 60 days in a way which would cause a substantial loss of total production or a substantial delay in operations.

(d) A manufacturer or processor need not accept a rated order from another person who manufactures or processes the same product, unless specifically directed to do so by the NPA.

(e) Any person who refuses to accept a rated order shall, upon written request of the person placing the order, promptly give his reasons in writing for his refusal.

§ 11.11 Report to NPA of improperly rejected orders. When a rated order is rejected in violation of this part, a report of the relevant facts may be filed with the NPA, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: Regulation 2. The NPA will take such action as it considers appropriate after requiring an explanation from the person rejecting the order.

§ 11.12 Cancellation of ratings. If a rating which has been used by a person is revoked he must immediately, in the case of each order to which he has applied such rating, either cancel the order or inform his supplier that it is no longer to be treated as a rated order. If any person receives notice from his customer or otherwise that the customer's order is no longer a rated order or that the customer's order is cancelled, he must immediately withdraw any extensions of that rating which he has made to any purchase order placed by him.

§ 11.13 Sequence of filling rated orders. (a) Every person who has rated orders on hand must schedule his operations, if possible, so as to fill each rated order by the required delivery or performance date. If this is not possible, for any reason, he must give precedence to all rated orders over unrated orders.

(b) As between conflicting rated orders, precedence must be given to the order which was received first with the rating: Provided, That orders received prior to October 3, 1950, and which receive ratings prior to October 31, 1950, take precedence as of the dates on which orders were first placed. As between conflicting rated orders received on the same date, precedence must be given to the order which has the earliest required delivery or performance date.

(c) A rated order calling for earlier delivery than a rated order already accepted must not be allowed to interfere with scheduled delivery on the first order, but if both deliveries can be made on schedule it is not necessary to produce or make delivery on the first customer's order ahead of the second.

(d) In the usual case, the date on which specifications have been furnished to the manufacturer in sufficient detail to enable him to put the product into production is to be considered the date on which the rated order is received.

(e) If a rated order or a rating applicable to an order is cancelled when the supplier has material in production to fill it, he need not immediately stop processing in order to put other rated orders into production. He may continue to process the material which he had put into production for the cancelled order to a stage of completion which will avoid a substantial loss of total production, but he may not incorporate any material which he needs to fill any rated orders on hand. He may not, however, delay putting other rated orders into production for more than 15 days.

§ 11.14 Changes in customers' orders. (a) The general rule is that any change in a customer's rated order constitutes a cancellation of the order and must be considered as a new order received on the date of the change, if the change will require the manufactuer to interfere with his production. For example:

(1) A change in shipping destination does not constitute the placing of a new order.

(2) An increase in the total amount ordered is a new order to the extent of the increase unless it can be filled with only a negligible interference with the filling of later rated orders.

(3) A change in the date of the delivery, whether advanced or deferred, when made by the customer, is a new rated order if it interferes with production or delays delivery on another rated order.

(4) A reduction in the total amount ordered will presumably not require a change in the manufacturer's schedule and will not constitute a new rated order. If the quantity is reduced below a minimum production quantity, the manufacturer may insist on the delivery of not less than a minimum production quantity. If the customer is not willing to order that amount, the manufacturer may reject the order. The manufacturer may not discriminate between customers in requiring delivery of minimum production amounts.

(5) When the customer directs the manufacturer to hold or suspend production without specifying a new delivery date, the rated order must be considered cancelled. If requested to do so within ten days after receiving such an instruction, the manufacturer must reinstate the order as nearly as possible to its former place in his proposed schedule of delivery as long as the reinstatement does not cause loss of production or delay in the scheduled deliveries of other rated orders. Any request for reinstatement made after ten days shall be treated as the placing of a new rated order.

(6) Where minor variations in size, design, capacity, etc., are requested by the customer and can be arranged by the manufacturer without interfering with his production, such changes do not constitute a new rated order.

(b) Where a change in an order constitutes a new rated order, the conditions existing at the time the change is received govern the acceptance of the rated order and its sequence in delivery under the rules of this part.

§ 11.15 Delivery or performance dates. (a) Every rated order must specify delivery or performance on a particular date or dates or during a particular month, which, in no case, may be earlier than required by the person placing the order. Any order which fails to comply with this requirement shall not be treated as a rated order. The words "immediately" or "as soon as possible" or other words to that effect do not meet the requirements of this paragraph.

(b) The required delivery or performance date, for purposes of determining the sequence of deliveries or performance pursuant to § 11.13, shall be the date on which delivery or performance is actually required. The person with whom the rated order is placed may assume that the required delivery or performance date is the date specified in the order or contract unless he knows either (1) that the date so specified was earlier than required at the time the order was placed, or (2) that delivery or performance by the date originally specified is no longer required by reason of any change of circumstances. A delay in the scheduled receipt of any other material which the person placing the order requires prior to or concurrently with the material ordered, shall be deemed a change of circumstances.

(c) If, after accepting a rated order which specifies the time of delivery, the person with whom it is placed finds that he cannot fill it approximately on time, he must promptly notify the customer, telling him when he expects to be able to fill the order.

§ 11.16 Relation of ratings and directives. Special directives or authorizations issued by NPA take precedence over rated orders previously or subsequently received, unless a contrary instruction appears on the directive or authorization.

§ 11.17 Use or disposition of material acquired under this part. (a) Any person who gets material with a rating or through a specific authorization or a directive of the NPA must, if possible, use or dispose of it (or of the product into which it has been incorporated) for the purpose for which the assistance was given. Physical segregation is not required as long as the restrictions applicable to any specific lot of material or product are observed with respect to an equivalent amount of the same material or product.

(b) The restriction in paragraph (a) of this section does not apply when a material, or a product into which it has been incorporated, can no longer be used for the purpose for which the priority assistance was given, for example, when the assistance was given to fill a particular order and the material or product does not meet the customer's specifications or the contract order is cancelled. In such cases the rules on further use or disposition in paragraph (c) of this section must be observed.

(c) The holder of a material or product subject to paragraph (b) of this section may sell it as long as he complies with all requirements of other applicable sections of this part and of other orders and regulations of the NPA, or he may use it himself in any manner or for any purpose as long as he complies with such requirements.

§ 11.18 Delivery for unlawful purposes prohibited. No person shall deliver any material which he knows or has reason to believe will be accepted, redelivered, held or used in violation of any order or regulation of the NPA.

§ 11.19 Intra-company deliveries. The provisions of this part apply not only to deliveries to other persons, including affiliates, and subsidiaries, but also to deliveries from one branch, division or section of a single enterprise to another branch, division or section of the same or any other enterprise under common ownership or control.

§ 11.20 Inventory restrictions on materials acquired with a rating. The inventory restrictions described in Part 10 of this chapter (NPA Regulation 1) apply to all listed materials acquired with ratings or other priorities assistance.

§ 11.21 Scope of regulations and orders. (a) All regulations and orders of the NPA (including directions, directives and other instructions) apply to all subsequent transactions even though they are covered by contracts previously entered into. Regulations and orders apply to transactions in the territories or insular possessions of the United States unless the regulation or order specifically states that it is limited to the continental United States or to the 48 States and the District of Columbia. However, restrictions of NPA orders or regulations on the use of material or on the amount of inventory shall not apply when the material is used or the inventory is held directly by the Department of Defense outside the 48 States and the District of Columbia, unless otherwise specifically provided.

(b) All orders and regulations of the NPA which control the sale, transfer or delivery of any material, product or equipment, apply to sales made by any person, whether for his own account or for the account of others, and all restrictions upon accepting delivery apply to acceptance of delivery at any type of sale, including sales made by auctioneers, receivers, trustees in bankruptcy, and other cases where the assets of a business are being liquidated.

§ 11.22 Defense against claims for damages. No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for any default under any contract or order which shall result directly or indirectly from compliance with any regulation or order of the NPA (including any direction, directive or other instruction) notwithstanding that any such regulation or order shall thereafter be declared by judicial or other competent authority to be invalid.

§ 11.23 Records. Each person participating in any transaction covered by this part shall retain in his possession for at least two years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this part have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

§ 11.24 Audit and inspection. All records required by this part shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the NPA.

§ 11.25 Reports. Persons subject to this part shall make such records and submit such reports to the NPA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act.

§ 11.26 Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this part or any other regulation or order of the NPA, or furnishes false information or conceals any material fact in the course of operation under any such regulation or order, is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

§ 11.27 Adjustments and exceptions. Any person affected by any provision of this part may file an application for an adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an unreasonable hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense.

§ 11.31 List A. Allocation and distribution of the following items is subject to regulation by other government agencies and these items are therefore not subject to ratings issued by or under authority of NPA. However, producers of such items are subject to NPA regulations with respect to other materials and products used by them:

Electric power.[1]
Farm equipment.[2]
Fertilizer, commercial.[2]
Food.[2]
Fuels, solid.[1]
Gas.[1]
Petroleum.[1]
Source and fissionable materials.[3]
Transportation services, domestic, storage and port facilities.[4]

The following items are not subject to any ratings issued by or under authority of the NPA at the present time, and no rating issued by NPA may be extended to obtain such items unless specific authorization is given by NPA:

Communications services.
Ice.
Mineral aggregates:
  Sand.
  Gravel.
  Crushed stone.
  Slag.
Ores and scrap.
Steam heating, central.
Transportation services, other.
Waste paper.
Water.
Wood pulp.

INTERPRETATIONS

§ 11.100 Certain containers, packaging and chemicals. (a) The authority to apply ratings under the priorities system established by this part (NPA Reg. 2) to direct contracts and purchase orders for certain purposes has been delegated, subject to stated limitations, to the Secretary of Defense and the Atomic Energy Commission (NPA Delegations 1 and 2). However, this part (Reg. 2) does not apply to the items specified in § 11.31 List A, including Petroleum and Food. The Secretary of Defense and the Atomic Energy Commission may not therefore, apply a rating to a purchase order for Petroleum or Food.

(b) In addition, the Secretary of Defense and the Atomic Energy Commission have been authorized by the same delegations to assign the right to apply ratings to persons placing orders for materials to be delivered to the Department of Defense and to the Commission, respectively. The "Assignment" of a rating is defined by § 11.2 (e) of Reg. 2 as follows:

A rating is assigned when the NPA, or a government agency that it has authorized, grants a person the right to use the rating.

(c) In view of the Delegations of Authority mentioned and of the provisions of this part (Reg. 2), the Secretary of Defense and the Atomic Energy Commission, and their respective authorized representatives, may assign to their suppliers of Petroleum and Food the right to apply ratings to get the drums, cans and other containers and packaging required for the delivery of the Petroleum and Food, and to get chemicals required for use (i) directly in the production of the Petroleum and Food, or (ii) in processing the Petroleum and Food and which will be consumed or converted into by-products in the course of the processing. These ratings may not be used to get containers, packaging or chemicals, in excess of the minimum quantities required to fill such orders for Petroleum and Food.

(1) Illustration 1. The Department of the Navy places an order with the X Refining Company for 500 drums of gasoline. This is not a rated order. An authorized Navy representative may assign to the X Company the right to apply a rating to get the drums required for delivery of the 500 drums of gasoline.

(2) Illustration 2. The Department of the Army places an order with the X Company for 100 bbls. of flour. This is not a rated order. An authorized Army representative may assign to the X Company the right to apply a rating to get the packages or containers required for the delivery of the 100 bbls. of flour.

(3) Illustration 3. The Department of the Air Force places an order with the Z Refining Company for 100 cans of lubricating oil. This is not a rated order. The Z Company requires two types of chemicals to be used in filling this order: (i) A chemical to be directly used in the production of the oil, and (ii) a chemical that will be consumed or converted into by-products in the course of processing the oil. An authorized representative of the Air Force may assign to the Z Company the right to apply a rating to get the chemicals so required.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this regulation have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This part as amended shall be effective January 11, 1951.

AUTHORITY: §§ 74.1 to 74.12 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105.

§ 74.1 What this part does. This part applies to producers, distributors and users of methylene chloride. In view of the fact that the refined grade of methylene chloride is in short supply, this part prohibits the use thereof for manufacture or process where the paint remover grade of methylene chloride will meet the requirements therefor. It also limits in certain instances the extension of DO rated orders for methylene chloride of the refined grade. This part supplements Part 11 of this Chapter (NPA Regulation 2) but only those provisions of Part 11 which are inconsistent with this part are superseded and all other provisions of Part 11 continue to apply to the methylene chloride industry.

§ 74.2 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "NPA" means National Production Authority in the Department of Commerce.

§ 74.3 Methylene chloride to which this part applies. This part applies to (a) the refined grade (also known as the refrigerant grade) of methylene chloride, and (b) the paint remover grade of methylene chloride which is suitable for use in the manufacture of paint remover and for dry cleaning and various other purposes.

§ 74.4 Prohibited use of refined grade of methylene chloride. No person shall use the refined grade of methylene chloride in the manufacture of paint remover or for dry cleaning or for any other purpose where the paint remover grade of methylene chloride will meet the requirements of the product or process for which it will be used.

§ 74.5 Limitation on extension of DO rated orders for methylene chloride. A DO rated order for methylene chloride for use in the manufacture of paint remover or for any other purpose where the paint remover grade of methylene chloride will meet the requirements for the product or process for which it will be used, shall not be extended to obtain refined methylene chloride, regardless of whether the person who extends such order may have used, prior to the effective date of this part, refined methylene chloride to fill a rated order for which the paint remover grade could have been used.

§ 74.6 Prohibited delivery for unlawful purposes. No person shall accept an order for, sell or deliver the refined grade of methylene chloride which he knows or has reason to believe will be accepted, held or used in violation of any provision of this part.

§ 74.7 Delivery and certification of certain orders for methylene chloride. No producer or distributor may deliver refined methylene chloride, except under a DO rated order, to any buyer for use in the manufacture of photographic film or medical or industrial X-ray film unless the purchaser has previously delivered a signed certification to the producer or distributor as follows:

Certified under NPA Order M-21

This certificate constitutes a representation to the seller and to NPA that the purchaser is authorized, under the provisions of this part, to accept delivery of refined methylene chloride as permitted in this part, for use exclusively for the manufacture of photographic film or medical or industrial X-ray film and that such delivery is not prohibited by other applicable orders or regulations of NPA.

§ 74.8 Exception. This part shall not prevent the completion of the manufacture or process of any product containing the refined grade of methylene chloride, which was commenced on or prior to the effective date of this part.

§ 74.9 Adjustments and exceptions. Any person affected by any provision of this part may file with NPA a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In considering requests for adjustment which claim that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this part, consideration will be given to the requirements of public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each such request shall be in writing and shall set forth all pertinent facts, the nature of the relief sought and the justification therefor.

§ 74.10 Records, audit, inspection and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this part shall retain in his possession for at least two years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction whether the provisions of this part have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

(b) All records required by this part shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of NPA.

(c) Persons subject to this part shall make such records and submit such reports to NPA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act (Pub. Law 831, 77th Cong., 5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this part have been approved by the Bureau of Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 74.11 Communications. All communications concerning this order shall be addressed to National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-21.

§ 74.12 Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this part or any other order or regulation of NPA or willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this part is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

This part shall take effect on January 11, 1951.

SUMMARY OF UNIFORM INSTRUCTIONS

Uniform instructions for the selection of sponsors and processing of housing projects constructed under the provisions of Title VIII of the National Housing Act, as amended (Pub. Law 211, 81st Cong., as amended by Pub. Law 498, 81st Cong.), which have been issued for the guidance of field offices of the Departments of the Army, Navy and Air Force, are summarized as follows:

1. Development of plans for projects. Plans and specifications for proposed housing projects may be developed by local architect-engineers employed under contract by the Government, under the supervision of field representatives of the Chief of Engineers, U. S. Army, or the Chief, Bureau of Yards and Docks, U. S. Navy (hereinafter referred to as "Military Field Offices"). The sponsor, when selected, will be required to reimburse the Government for the use of the plans and specifications in an amount equal to the amount paid by the Government for architect-engineer services incident to development of the project. The Federal Housing Administration will authorize the inclusion of a sufficient amount in the initial release of mortgage proceeds to permit the sponsor to reimburse the Government for this expense.

2. Approval of plans by Federal Housing Administration. The plans development will be approved by the FHA, which will furnish to the Military Field Office an "Appraisal and Eligibility Statement," FHA Form 3303, containing the information specified in paragraph 3–h below.

3. Invitations for proposals. Invitations for proposals will be issued from Military Field Officers to interested persons. The Invitation will state the following but not be limited thereto:

a. That proposals shall include submittal of FHA Form 2013–W completed in detail except for page 1.

b. That the approved rental schedule will be based upon a "net return" not exceeding 6½% of the sponsor's estimated replacement cost or the FHA estimate of replacement cost, whichever is the lesser. By "net return" is meant the amount after the provision for payment of all operating expenses, reserves and taxes, and vacancy allowance, but before payment of debt service.

c. That the maximum approved amount of insurable mortgage will in no event exceed 90% of the sponsor's total estimated replacement cost stipulated in his proposal.

d. That the FHA will require escrow deposits or other satisfactory assurance of the mortgagor's ability to complete the project, determined on the basis of the amount required to meet the difference between the mortgage amount and the FHA estimate of replacement cost or the mortgagor's estimate of replacement cost stipulated in his proposal, whichever is greater. Additional escrows will be required to cover off-site requirements and to provide initial working capital in the amount of 1½ percent of the mortgage.

e. That the sponsor selected will be required to reimburse the Government for the use of the plans and specifications in an amount equal to the amount paid by the Government for architect-engineer services incident to development of the project, and further will be required to pay the usual processing fees to FHA.

f. That the proposal of a sponsor which provides desired housing at the lowest bid replacement cost (Total Estimated Requirements, FHA Form 2013–W) will be selected. The sponsor selected will complete his arrangements with the Military Field Office for obtaining any lease, utilities sales contracts, or other written contracts involved in the project, will make arrangements for mortgage financing, and will submit to the FHA, through the mortgage, the required application for mortgage insurance with all of the required exhibits attached, including the proposed rent schedule and the certificate of the respective Secretary as to the need for the housing.

g. That the sponsor will submit with his proposal the name and business address of his principal contractor and the management firm. Any change in principal contractor or management firm will be subject to prior approval of the FHA and the using Service.

h. The Appraisal and Eligibility Statement information obtained from the FHA, including the FHA estimated total replacement cost, the maximum allowable insurable mortgage, the maximum allowable rental schedule, the percentage of assumed vacancies, the amount of total operating expense and reserves for replacements per room per year included in the FHA maximum allowable rent, the estimate of real estate taxes (where applicable) and the equipment and services included in the rent will be made available to sponsors in order that they may know the factors which enter into the preparation and evaluation of proposals.

Invitations for proposals for housing projects to be located on sites purchased by the sponsor will state the following, in addition to the information above, but not be limited thereto:

a. That the Government has procured an assignable option for the purchase of the housing project site which will be assigned to the sponsor selected for exercise by him. The sponsor will be required to pay all costs incident to obtaining the site, including reimbursement to the Government of all amounts expended in connection with procurement of the option.

b. That the sponsor shall include in his total bid replacement cost (Total Estimated Requirements, FHA Form 2013–W) all costs to be incurred by the sponsor in acquiring the site, including the amount to be reimbursed to the Government for costs incurred by the Government incident to the procurement of the option for the site.

c. That the sponsor selected shall, within 15 calendar days after the date of notice of his selection or such longer period as may be granted, submit to the FHA, through the proposed mortgagee, the required application for mortgage insurance with all necesary exhibits attached, including the proposed rent schedule and the Certification of Need for Military Housing (FHA Form 3301) which has been furnished by the military department.

d. That if the sponsor selected fails to complete arrangements for mortgage financing and FHA insurance within the period of the FHA Commitment for Insurance (as it may be extended), he will be required to reassign the said option to the Government or its designee, or, if the sponsor has already acquired title to the site, to convey the said site promptly to whomever the Government may designate, on condition that he shall be fully reimbursed by the grantee for the cost of the site, including option costs.

e. That, at or about the time of closing with the FHA, the sponsor selected will be required to enter into the Agreement, which, with its Exhibits A and B, is attached to and is made a part of this Invitation,[1] and which, with Exhibits A and B, sets forth the mutual agreements between the sponsor (designated "Owner" in the Agreement) and the Government, and provides for the eventual acquisition by the Government, without cost of any kind to the Government, of all right, title, and interest in the housing project site and the improvements thereon.

f. That each proposal submitted shall contain a statement that the sponsor agrees to be bound by and to comply strictly with all the terms and conditions set forth in the Invitation, with its Attachments.

g. That each proposal shall include a statement as follows, with the appropriate box checked: "The bidder represents that he [ ] has, [ ] has not, employed or retained a company or person (other than a full-time employee) to solicit or secure his designation by the Department of the _____, as sponsor of the housing project, and agrees to furnish information relating thereto as requested by the said Department."

Copies of the plans for the housing project, and any lease, utility sales contract, or other agreement which the sponsor will be required to execute will be furnished with the invitation for proposals.

4. Selection of sponsor. a. The Military Field Office will select the proposal which provides the desired housing at the lowest bid replacement cost, and will request certification to the FHA by the Secretary of the military department concerned.

b. The sponsor selected will be furnished the Certification of Need for Military Housing (FHA Form 3301) and will file his completed application for mortgage insurance on FHA Form 2013–W with the FHA insuring office, at which time the qualifications of the mortgagor will be examined.

c. If the sponsor so selected is not qualified, the Military Field Office will be so advised by the FHA, and the sponsor submitting the next higher proposal will file his application for mortgage insurance as outlined in step (b) above. The same procedure will be followed, if necessary, with other sponsors in order.

5. Inspection of construction and advances of mortgage proceeds. Inspection of construction will be made by the FHA in accordance with its normal procedures, and advances of mortgage proceeds during construction will be based on percentages of completion shown by these inspections.

6. Utilities and related services. Utilities and related services, if not otherwise available from local private or public sources, and the Government has facilities available, may be furnished by the Government on a reimbursable basis.

7. Eventual acquisition of project by the Government. Projects may be located either on sites owned by the Government and leased to the sponsor, or on sites purchased by the sponsor from a private party under an option obtained by the Government and assigned to the sponsor.

The lease executed in connection with a site owned by the Government will be for a term of seventy-five years but will provide further that the Government shall have the right, at its option, to terminate the lease and all rights of the lessee thereunder at any time after thirty-nine years from the date thereof, provided the FHA has certified that its interest in the lease and in any mortgage on the leasehold interest, as insurer or otherwise, has been fully terminated. Upon expiration or termination of the lease, all improvements made upon the leased premises shall remain on the premises and be the property of the Government without compensation.

In connection with sites purchased by the sponsor, provision will be made by an Agreement entered into between the sponsor and the Government, at or about the time the FHA insures a mortgage on the housing project, for the sponsor (or his successor or assignee) to convey the housing project (consisting of the site and the improvements thereon) to the Government, without cost of any kind to the Government, at the end of twenty years from the date of the Agreement. The conveyance may be made subject to the mortgage endorsed for insurance by the FHA at or about the date of the execution of the Agreement, or to any modification, renewal, extension or increase thereof or substitute mortgage therefor while insured or held by the FHA. In return the Government will agree to lease the housing project back to the sponsor, at a total rent of one dollar ($1.00), for a period of fifty-five years, said lease to be subordinate to any mortgage on the housing project, as described above. Such lease will provide that the Government shall have the right, at its option, to terminate the lease, and all rights of the lessee thereunder, at any time after nineteen years from the date thereof, provided the FHA has certified that its interest in the lease and in any mortgage on the housing project, as described above, as insurer, holder, or otherwise, has been fully terminated. All improvements to the housing project shall remain on the premises as the property of the Government without compensation.

8. Additional information. Additional information concerning the above instructions may be obtained from local Army installations, and from Army Area Headquarters, Offices of the Division Engineer, Corps of Engineers, U. S. Army, and District Public Works Offices, Bureau of Yards and Docks, Navy Headquarters, at the locations listed below. S. C. section 682a), as hereinafter indicated, the following described land in the Nevada land district, embracing approximately 60 acres,

NEVADA SMALL TRACT CLASSIFICATION NO. 64

For lease only for home and business sites:

T. 27 S., R. 59 E., M. D. M., Sec. 8, NW¼NE¼ and E½NE¼ NW¼

The lands are situated in Clark County, Nevada, and lie along U. S. Highway 91, the main highway from Los Angeles, California, to Las Vegas, Nevada. The nearest town that has all of the usual community services is Las Vegas, Nevada, about 40 miles distant. The area is one that is used extensively for health and recreational purposes. Also lands along the main highway are in demand for business site purposes.

2. As to applications regularly filed prior to 10:00 a. m., October 23, 1950, and are for the type of site for which the land is classified, this order shall become effective upon the date it is signed.

3. As to the land not covered by applications referred to in paragraph 2, this order shall not become effective to permit leasing under the Small Tract Act until 10:00 a. m., February 23, 1951. At that time such land shall, subject to valid existing rights, become subject to application as follows:

(a) Ninety-day preference period for qualified veterans of World War II from 10:00 a. m., February 23, 1951, to close of business on May 24, 1951.

(b) Advance period for veterans' simultaneous filings from 10:00 a. m., October 23, 1950, to 10:00 a. m., February 23, 1951.

4. Any of the land remaining unappropriated shall become subject to application under the Small Tract Act by the public generally, commencing at 10:00 a. m., May 25, 1951.

(a) Advance period for simultaneous nonpreference filings from 10:00 a. m., October 23, 1950, to 10:00 a. m., May 25, 1951.

5. Applications filed within the periods mentioned in paragraphs 3 (b) and 4 (a) will be treated as simultaneously filed.

A veteran shall accompany his application with a complete photostatic, or other copy (both sides), of his certificate of honorable discharge, or of an official document of his branch of the service which shows clearly his honorable discharge as defined in § 181.36 of Title 43 of the Code of Federal Regulations, or constitutes evidence of other facts upon which the claim for preference is based and which shows clearly the period of service. Other persons claiming credit for service of veterans must furnish like proof in support of their claims. Persons asserting preference rights, through settlement or otherwise, and those having equitable claims, shall accompany their application by duly corroborated statements in support thereof, setting forth in detail all facts relevant to their claims.

6. Because of the State Highway right-of-way that traverses the lands, the tracts will be leased to extend east and west except in the E½E½NW¼NE¼ and W½E½NE¼NW¼ where they will extend north and south, each being approximately 330 by 660 feet, containing approximately 5 acres.

7. Preference right leases referred to in paragraph 2 will be issued for the land described in the application irrespective of the direction of the tract, provided the tract conforms to or is made to conform to the area and the dimension specified in paragraph 6.

8. Where only one 5-acre tract in a 10-acre subdivision is embraced in a preference right application, an application for the remaining 5-acre tract extending in the same direction will be accepted in order to fill out the subdivision notwithstanding the direction specified in paragraph 6.

9. Leases will be for a period of five years at an annual rental of $5.00 payable for the entire lease period in advance of the issuance of the lease. Leases will contain an option to purchase clause at the appraised value of $20.00 per acre, application for which may be filed at or after the expiration of one year from date the lease is issued.

10. Tracts will be subject to a State Highway right-of-way that extends north and south through the NW¼NE¼ and to all other existing rights-of-way, and will also be subject to rights-of-way not exceeding 33 feet in width along or near the edges thereof for road purposes and public utilities. Such rights-of-way may be utilized by the Federal Government, or the State, County or municipality in which the tract is situated, or by any agency thereof. The rights-of-way may, in the discretion of the authorized officer of the Bureau of Land Management, be definitely located prior to the issuance of the patent. If not so located, they may be subject to location after patent is issued.

11. All inquiries relating to these lands should be addressed to the Manager, Nevada Land and Survey Office, Reno, Nevada.

MERCER GAS LIGHT AND FUEL CO.

ORDER FIXING DATE OF HEARING

JANUARY 9, 1951.

On June 5, 1950, Mercer Gas Light and Fuel Company (Applicant), filed an application pursuant to section 7 (a) of the Natural Gas Act, for an order requiring the establishment of a physical connection with the transmission facilities of the Tennessee Gas Transmission Company (Tennessee Gas) and the sale of natural gas by Tennessee Gas to Applicant.

On June 13, 1950, Tennessee Gas filed its answer alleging, among other things, that the segment of its pipeline located near Mercer, Pennsylvania, is now under construction pursuant to authority granted Tennessee Gas in Docket No. G-962; that Applicant was not a party in the proceedings in Docket No. G-962; that the facilities to be constructed pursuant to authority sought in Docket No. G-1248 involves only additions to its pipeline system as previously authorized. [Project No. 2039]

DELAWARE RIVER DEVELOPMENT CORP.

ORDER FIXING HEARING

JANUARY 9, 1951.

On January 16, 1950, The Delaware River Development Corporation of New York City filed application for preliminary permit under the Federal Power Act for a proposed hydroelectric development on the Delaware River (Project No. 2039) in Sussex and Warren Counties, New Jersey; Monroe, Northampton and Pike Counties, Pennsylvania; and Orange County, New York.

The proposed project would consist of: (1) A dam at the Tocks Island site approximately 10.5 miles below the mouth of Bushkill Creek, a reservoir having a usable storage capacity of about 537,900 acre-feet, and a powerhouse with installed capacity of 150,000 horsepower; (2) a dam at the Belvidere site about 1 mile above the highway bridge at Belvidere, New Jersey, a reservoir having a usable storage capacity of about 16,900 acre-feet, and a powerhouse with installed capacity of 72,000 horsepower; (3) a dam at the Chestnut Hill site approximately 2.43 miles above the highway bridge between Easton, Pennsylvania and Phillipsburg, New Jersey, a reservoir having a usable storage capacity of about 3,900 acre-feet, and a powerhouse with installed capacity of 60,000 horsepower; and (4) transmission lines and other appurtenant facilities.

Public notice of the filing of the application has been given.

The proposed project as described above would conflict with proposed Project No. 2034, application for license for which was filed October 18, 1949, by The Electric Power Company of New Jersey, Inc. However, that application is incomplete in that it fails to show the requisite financial ability to construct the project or a plan of financing construction which appears reasonably certain of success. For that reason, the applicant in that proceeding was given a period of sixty days from April 6, 1950, to submit a reasonable plan of financing, which period, by virtue of extensions granted, will expire on February 2, 1951.

By letter dated October 30, 1950, the applicant for Project No. 2039 has requested an early disposition of its pending application for permit by hearing or otherwise, advising that under its charter work must commence on the project within two years from the date of applicant's incorporation, which would be on or before January 16, 1952, or it would lose its charter.

Numerous protests against the application in Project No. 2039 have been received from State and county agencies, States, an interstate commission, and local associations and individuals.

The Commission finds: It is in the public interest to hold a public hearing on the aforementioned application for preliminary permit for proposed Project No. 2039.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to the authority contained in and subject to the jurisdiction conferred upon the Commission by the Federal Power Act, particularly sections 4, 6, and 308 thereof, and the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (in force January 1, 1948, as amended and supplemented), a public hearing be held on the 12th day of February, 1951, at 10:00 a. m. e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Commission, 12th Floor, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.

(B) As provided in Rule 30 (18 CFR 1.30) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, the officer hereafter designated to preside at the hearing shall certify the record of the hearing, including his report thereon, to the Commission for its decision and the presiding officer's report shall constitute a recommended decision.

Date of issuance: January 10, 1951.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PRESCRIBING OR AMENDING PORTIONS OF THE SELECTIVE SERVICE REGULATIONS

By virtue of the authority vested in me by Title I of the Selective Service Act of 1948 (62 Stat. 604), as amended, it is ordered as follows:

1. I hereby prescribe the following portion of the regulations governing the administration of Title I of the said Act, as amended, which shall constitute a portion of Part 1630 of Chapter XVI of Title 32 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and a portion of the Selective Service Regulations:

PART 1630—VOLUNTEERS

Sec.
1630.1 Who may volunteer.
1630.2 Where person may volunteer.
1630.3 Registration of certain volunteers.
1630.4 Classification of volunteers.
1630.5 Selection of volunteer.

§ 1630.1 Who may volunteer. Registrants who have reached the eighteenth anniversary of the day of their birth and who have not reached the twenty-sixth anniversary of the day of their birth may volunteer at their local board for induction into the armed forces by filing an Application for Voluntary Induction (SSS Form No. 254).

§ 1630.2 Where person may volunteer. (a) If a man has been registered and desires to volunteer for induction, he may so volunteer only through his own local board. If a man has not been registered and desires to volunteer for induction, he may register and then volunteer, but may do so only through the local board having jurisdiction of the area in which his place of residence is located.

(b) A registrant who is so far from his local board that it would be a hardship for him to appear in person at such local board in order to volunteer may present himself at a local board having jurisdiction of the area in which he is at the time located, and such local board shall assist him by correspondence or other means to volunteer through his own local board to the end that all uncompleted procedure with reference to such man's registration, classification, selection, and induction may be completed as soon as possible, including when necessary, transfer for classification, transfer for physical examination, transfer for delivery, or any of such steps which may be considered proper for the purpose.

§ 1630.3 Registration of certain volunteers. (a) If a person who is required to be registered but who has failed to register volunteers for induction, he shall be registered and shall be given a selective service number in the same manner as in the case of a late registrant. In all such cases, as well as in the cases of persons already registered a "V" shall be placed at the top of the Registration Card (SSS Form No. 1) to indicate that such a registrant is a volunteer.

(b) If a person not required to be registered volunteers for induction, he shall be registered and shall be given a selective service number in exactly the same manner as any other registrant. A "V" shall be placed at the top of the Registration Card (SSS Form No. 1) to indicate that such person is a volunteer.

(c) In registering the volunteer, the local board shall follow the procedure set forth in Part 1613 of this chapter, and, as in the case of any other registrant, the local board for the area in which the residence of the registrant (the place indicated on line 2 of the Registration Card (SSS Form No. 1)) is located will have jurisdiction of such registrant.

§ 1630.4 Classification of volunteers. When a man files an Application for Voluntary Induction (SSS Form No. 254) under the provisions of § 1630.1, he shall be classified as soon as possible and placed in a class available for military service unless:

(a) Disregarding all other grounds for deferment, he would be classified in Class II-A, Class II-C, or Class III-A;

(b) He is the Vice President of the United States, a Governor of a State, any other State official chosen by the voters of the entire State, a member of the Congress of the United States, a member of a State legislative body, or a judge of a court of record of the United States or of a State, required to be deferred by law; or

(c) Under the provisions of § 1622.21 of this chapter he is found to be physically, mentally, or morally unfit.

§ 1630.5 Selection of volunteer. A volunteer who is placed in Class I-A or Class I–A–O shall be selected for armed forces physical examination and for induction in the manner prescribed in Parts 1628 and 1631 of this chapter.

2. I hereby prescribe the following amendments of the Selective Service Regulations prescribed in part by Executive Order No. 9979 of July 20, 1948, in part by Executive Order No. 9988 of August 20, 1948, in part by Executive Order No. 9992 of August 28, 1948, in part by Executive Order No. 10001 of September 17, 1948, and in part by Executive Order No. 10116 of March 9, 1950, and constituting portions of Chapter XVI of Title 32 of the Code of Federal Regulations:

(a) (1) Paragraph (d) of § 1604.1 of Part 1604, Selective Service Officers, is amended to read as follows:

(d) To appoint, and to fix, in accordance with the Classification Act of 1949, as amended, so far as applicable, the compensation of, such officers, agents, and employees as shall be necessary for carrying out the functions of the Selective Service System.

(2) The table of contents of Part 1604 is amended by inserting, immediately after "1604.52 Composition and appointment.", the following: "1604.52a Panels of local boards.".

(3) The following new section is added to Part 1604 immediately following § 1604.52:

§ 1604.52a Panels of local boards. (a) Whenever the State Director of Selective Service determines that the work load of a local board has become too great to be handled without undue delay, he is authorized to establish panels of such local board in such number as he may determine, but not to exceed one panel for each three local board members. The jurisdiction of each such panel shall be the same as the jurisdiction of the local board subject to the limitations contained hereafter in this section.

(b) Whenever the State Director of Selective Service establishes panels in a local board, the chairman of such local board shall assign at least three members of the local board to each such panel. Each local board member, including the chairman, shall be assigned to a panel. No member shall be assigned to more than one panel at the same time.

(c) The chairman of the local board shall not alter the assignment of members of the local board to panels without the written consent of the State Director of Selective Service. A member of a local board shall not be qualified to vote on any question or classification which arises before any panel of the board except the one to which he is assigned, but all questions arising in the selection of registrants for armed forces physical examination or for induction, except questions concerning the classification of registrants, shall be determined by the local board as a whole without regard to panel assignments.

(d) A majority of the members of the local board assigned to a panel of the board shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business before that panel. A majority of the members assigned to a panel who are present at any meeting of the panel at which a quorum is present shall decide any question or classification properly before the panel. Every member of the panel present, unless disqualified, shall vote on every question or classification. In case of a tie vote on any question or classification, the panel shall postpone action on the question or classification until it can be decided by a majority vote.

(e) The chairman of the local board shall assign the cases of registrants to the panels thereof in such manner that the resultant classification actions shall establish a single availability list for the board so that registrants shall be available generally in the order of their liability for service in the armed forces. Except as otherwise provided in this paragraph, no panel of a local board other than the panel to which the case of a registrant is initially assigned shall determine any question or classification with respect to such registrant. After the case of a registrant has been assigned to a panel, the chairman of the local board may reassign any such case to another panel when he determines such action is necessary in order to prevent undue delay in the processing of registrants. Whenever, because of the provisions of paragraph (a) of § 1604.55, a majority of a panel is disqualified to act on the case of a registrant assigned to the panel, the chairman of the local board shall reassign the case to another panel, or, if all of the panels of the local board are similarly disqualified to act on the case, the local board shall request the State Director of Selective Service to designate another local board to which the registrant shall be transferred for action on his case. The panel to which the case of a registrant is reassigned shall thereafter retain jurisdiction to determine all questions or classifications with respect to that registrant to the same extent as though it were the panel of initial assignment.

(b) Paragraph (e) of § 1621.9 of Part 1621, Preparation for Classification, is amended to read as follows:

(e) The local board shall not mail a Classification Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 100) to a registrant who has not attained the age of nineteen years unless such registrant previously volunteers for induction.

(c) (1) The headnote for § 1622.7 in the table of contents of Part 1622, Classification Rules and Principles, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1622.7 Class I–C. Member of armed forces of the United States, the Coast and Geodetic Survey or the Public Health Service, and certain registrants separated therefrom.

(2) Section 1622.2 of Part 1622 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1622.2 The five classes. Each registrant shall be classified in one of five main classes as follows:

Class I: Available for military service. Members of the armed forces, the Coast and Geodetic Survey or the Public Health Service. Members of reserve components or students taking military training.

Class II: Deferred because of occupational status.

Class III: Deferred because of dependency.

Class IV: Deferred specifically by law or because unfit for military service.

Class V: Over the age of liability for military service.

(3) Section 1622.3 of Part 1622 is amended to read as follows:

Class I

Class I–A: Available for military service.

Class I–A–O: Conscientious objector available for noncombatant service only.

(5) Paragraph (a) of § 1622.8 of Part 1622 is amended to read as follows:

(a) In Class I–D shall be placed any registrant who served honorably on active duty between September 16, 1940, and June 24, 1948, for a period of 90 days or more but less than 12 months in the Army, the Air Force, the Navy, the Marine Corps, the Coast Guard, the Public Health Service, or the armed forces of any country allied with the United States in World War II prior to September 2, 1945, when such period of active duty does not include a period in excess of 90 days between December 7, 1941, and September 2, 1945, if—

(1) The local board determines that he is regularly enlisted or commissioned in any organized unit of a reserve component of the armed force in which he served, provided such unit is reasonably accessible to such person without unduly interrupting his normal pursuits and activities (including attendance at a college or university in which he is regularly enrolled), or in a reserve component (other than in an organized unit) of such armed force in any case in which enlistment or commission in an organized unit of a reserve component of such armed force is not available to him; or

(2) The local board determines that enlistment or commission in a reserve component of such armed force is not available to him or that he has voluntarily enlisted or accepted appointment in an organized unit of a reserve component of an armed force other than the armed force in which he served.

(6) Paragraph (c) of § 1622.18 of Part 1622 is amended to read as follows:

(c) In Class IV–C shall be placed any registrant who is an alien and who is a citizen of a foreign country and who, being not otherwise deferrable or exempt from training and service, has, prior to his induction, made application to be relieved from liability for training and service in the armed forces of the United States by filing with the local board an Application by Alien for Relief from Training and Service in the Armed Forces (SSS Form No. 130), executed in duplicate. The local board shall forward the original of such form to the Director of Selective Service through the State Director of Selective Service and shall retain the duplicate in the registrant's Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101).

(d) (1) Section 1623.2 of Part 1623, Classification Procedure, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1623.2 Consideration of classes. Upon undertaking to classify any registrant, unless grounds are established to place the registrant in Class I–C under the provisions of § 1622.7 of this chapter, the registrant shall be classified in the lowest class for which he is determined to be eligible with Class I–A considered the highest class and Class V–A considered the lowest class according to the following table:

Class:		Class:
	I–D		IV–D
	II–A		IV–F
	II–C		V–A
	III–A

(2) Paragraph (b) of § 1623.9 of Part 1623 is amended to read as follows:

(b) After returning the Classification Questionnaire (SSS Form No. 100), a registrant may be transferred to another local board for classification at any time (1) when the local board cannot act on his case because of disqualification under the provisions of § 1604.52a or § 1604.55 of this chapter, or (2) when a majority of the members of the local board, or a majority of the members of every panel thereof if the board has separate panels, withdraw from consideration of the registrant's classification because of any conflicting interest, bias, or other reason.

(e) (1) Subparagraph (4) of paragraph (d) of § 1628.4 of Part 1628, Physical Examination, is amended to read as follows:

(4) The local board shall note in the "Disposition" column of the Physical Examination List (SSS Form No. 225), if the registrant's name appears thereon, the fact that he has been found disqualified for service in the armed forces.

(2) Paragraph (b) of § 1628.11 of Part 1628 is amended to read as follows:

(b) In complying with such directive, the local board shall mail an Order to Report for Armed Forces Physical Examination (SSS Form No. 223) to registrants who have been classified in Class I–A and Class I–A–O without regard to whether the registrants have requested or will request a personal appearance before the local board and without regard to whether an appeal has been or will be taken. The local board in complying with such directive shall, so far as is practicable, select and order to report for armed forces physical examination first such registrants who are volunteers in the sequence in which they have volunteered for induction and then such registrants who are nonvolunteers in the order of their liability for service.

(3) Subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) and paragraph (b) of § 1628.13 of Part 1628 are amended to read as follows:

(1) Prepare in quintuplicate a Physical Examination List (SSS Form No. 225), completing thereon the entries in columns (1) and (2) for each such registrant.

* * * * *

(b) Whenever a registrant referred to in paragraph (a) of this section is transferred to another local board for armed forces physical examination, a notation of such transfer shall be made in the "Remarks" column of the Physical Examination List (SSS Form No. 225) and all of the other records of such registrant prepared in the manner provided in paragraph (a) of this section shall be transmitted to the local board to which such registrant is transferred for armed forces physical examination in the manner and at the time provided in § 1628.14.

(4) Subparagraph (1) of paragraph (a) of § 1628.25 of Part 1628 is amended to read as follows:

(1) For all registrants whether found acceptable or not acceptable for service in the armed forces, the original Physical Examination List (SSS Form No. 225) indicating in the "Disposition" column the disposition of each registrant forwarded for armed forces physical examination, and the original and one copy of Certificate of Acceptability (DD Form No. 62).

(5) Part 1628 is amended by substituting "(DD Form No. 47)" for "(NME Form No. 47)" wherever the latter appears in such part and by substituting "(DD Form No. 62)" for "(NME Form No. 62)" wherever the latter appears in such part.

(f) (1) Section 1631.2 of Part 1631, Quotas and Calls, is amended by substituting "Notification(s) of Home Address at Time of Latest Entry into Active Service (DD Form No. 53)" for "Report(s) of Home Address at Time of Last Entry into Service (NME Form No. 53)" wherever the latter appears in such section.

(2) Section 1631.7 of Part 1631 is amended to read as follows:

§ 1631.7 Action by local board upon receipt of notice of call. (a) Each local board, upon receiving a Notice of Call on Local Board (SSS Form No. 201) from the State Director of Selective Service for a specified number of men shall select and order to report for induction the number of men required to fill the call from among its registrants who have been classified in Class I–A and Class I–A–O and have been found acceptable for service in the armed forces and to whom the local board has mailed a Certificate of Acceptability (DD Form No. 62) at least 21 days before the date fixed for induction: Provided, That a registrant classified in Class I–A or Class I–A–O who is a delinquent may be selected and ordered to report for induction to fill an induction call notwithstanding the fact that he has not been found acceptable for service in the armed forces and has not been mailed a Certificate of Acceptability (DD Form No. 62): And provided further, That a registrant classified in Class I–A or Class I–A–O who has volunteered for induction may, if an appeal is not pending in his case and the period during which an appeal may be taken has expired, be selected and ordered to report for induction notwithstanding the fact that he has not been found acceptable for service in the armed forces and regardless of whether or not a Certificate of Acceptability (DD Form No. 62) has been mailed to him. Such registrants shall be selected and ordered to report for induction in the following order:

(1) Volunteers in the sequence in which they have volunteered for induction.

(2) Nonvolunteers in the order of their dates of birth with the oldest being selected first except that a delinquent shall, regardless of his age, be selected and ordered to report for induction before any other nonvolunteer. When two or more such registrants have the same date of birth they shall, as among themselves, be selected in alphabetical order.

(b) Whenever the number of postponements of induction materially reduces the number of men the local board actually can deliver in response to a call, the local board shall issue orders to report for induction to such numbers of additional men as may be necessary to meet the call, taking into account the number of men to be delivered following the expiration of postponements previously granted.

(g) (1) Section 1632.1 of Part 1632, Delivery and Induction, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1632.1 Order to report for induction. Immediately upon determining which men are to report for induction, the local board shall prepare for each man an Order to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 252) in duplicate. The date specified for reporting for induction shall be at least 10 days after the date on which the Order to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 252) is mailed, except that a registrant classified in Class I–A or Class I–A–O who has volunteered for induction may be ordered to report for induction on any date after he has so volunteered if an appeal is not pending in his case and the period during which an appeal may be taken has expired. The local board shall mail the original of the Order to Report for Induction (SSS Form No. 252) to the registrant and shall file the copy in his Cover Sheet (SSS Form No. 101).

(2) Part 1632 is amended by substituting "(DD Form No. 47)" for "(NME Form No. 47)" wherever the latter appears in such part.

(h) (1) Section 1642.12 of Part 1642, Delinquents, is amended to read as follows:

§ 1642.12 Classification of registrant delinquent. Any delinquent registrant between the ages of 19 and 26 and any delinquent registrant between the ages of 18 and 26 who volunteers for induction may be classified in or reclassified into Class I–A or Class I–A–O, whichever is applicable, regardless of other circumstances: Provided, That the following may not be classified in or reclassified into Class I–A or Class I–A–O under this section unless such action is specifically authorized by the Director of Selective Service:

RULES AND REGULATIONS

TITLE 7—AGRICULTURE

Chapter VIII—Production and Marketing Administration (Sugar Branch), Department of Agriculture

Subchapter H—Determination of Wage Rates

[Sugar Determination 864.3]

CALENDAR YEAR 1951

Pursuant to the provisions of section 301 (c) (1) of the Sugar Act of 1948 (herein referred to as "act"), after investigation, and consideration of the evidence obtained at the public hearing held in Thibodaux, Louisiana, on July 14, 1950, the following determination is hereby issued:

§ 864.3 Fair and reasonable wage rates for persons employed in the production and cultivation of sugarcane in Louisiana during the calendar year 1951—(a) Requirements. The requirements of section 301 (c) (1) of the act shall be deemed to have been met with respect to the production and cultivation of sugarcane in Louisiana during the calendar year 1951, if the producer complies with the following:

(1) Wage rates. All persons employed on the farm in the production and cultivation of sugarcane shall have been paid in full for all such work and shall have been paid wages in cash therefor at rates as agreed upon between the producer and the laborer but, after the date of issuance of this section, not less than the following:

(i) Basic wage rates and adjustments for sugar price changes. When the average price of raw sugar is within the base price range of $5.60 to $6.00, inclusive, per one hundred pounds for the two-week period immediately preceding the two-week period during which the work is performed, and for each full 10 cents that such price shall average more than $6.00 or less than $5.60, the basic day wage rates in the following table shall be applicable:

TABLE OF RAW SUGAR PRICE RANGES AND APPLICABLE BASIC WAGE RATES[1]

Operations	Price ranges—2-week average price of 100 pounds of raw sugar
At least	$5.201	$5.301	$5.401	$5.501	$6.100	$6.200	$6.300
But not more than	5.300	5.400	5.500	6.099	6.199	6.299	6.399
				Base price range $5.60–$6
For all work except as otherwise specified:
Adult females, per 9-hour day	$2.45	$2.50	$2.55	$2.60	$2.65	$2.70	$2.75
Adult males, per 9-hour day	2.95	3.00	3.05	3.10	3.15	3.20	3.25
Tractor drivers, per 9-hour day	3.70	3.75	3.80	3.85	3.90	3.95	4.00
Teamsters, per 9-hour day	2.95	3.00	3.05	3.10	3.15	3.20	3.25
Workers between 14 and 16 years of age, per 8-hour day	2.25	2.30	2.35	2.40	2.45	2.50	2.55

[1] For each successive full 10-cent price change above $6.30 or below $5.30, the basic wage rates shall be increased or decreased, correspondingly, by the same amounts as shown above for each full 10-cent price change.

(ii) Hourly rates. Where workers are employed on an hourly basis, the basic wage rate per hour shall be determined by dividing the applicable basic day wage rate in subdivision (i) of this subparagraph by 9 in the case of adult workers, and by 8 in the case of workers between 14 and 16 years of age.

(iii) Piecework rates. The piecework rate for any class of work shall be that agreed upon between the producer and worker: Provided, That the hourly rate of earnings for each worker for the time involved on each separate unit of work for which a piecework rate is agreed upon shall be not less than the applicable hourly rate specified in subdivision (ii) of this subparagraph.

(iv) Determination of average sugar prices. The two-week average price of raw sugar shall be determined by taking the simple average of the daily spot quotations of 96° raw sugar of the Louisiana Sugar Exchange, Inc., adjusted to a one hundred pound basis, except that if the Director of the Sugar Branch determines that for any two-week period such average price does not reflect the true market value of raw sugar, because of inadequate volume, failure to report sales in accordance with the rules of such Exchange or other factors, the Director may designate the average price to be effective under this section. For the purpose of this section the average price of raw sugar prevailing during the period from December 15 through December 28, 1950, shall determine the wage rates from January 1 through January 11, 1951, and thereafter the wage rates in successive two-week work periods shall be determined by the average price of raw sugar prevailing in the immediately preceding two-week period.

(2) Perquisites. In addition to the foregoing, the producer shall furnish to the laborer, without charge, the perquisites customarily furnished by him, such as a habitable house, medical attention, and similar items.

(b) Subterfuge. The producer shall not reduce the wage rates to laborers below those determined in this section through any subterfuge or device whatsoever.

(c) Claim for unpaid wages. Any person who believes he has not been paid in accordance with this section may file a wage claim with the local county Production and Marketing Administration Committee against the producer on whose farm the work was performed. Such claim must be filed within two years from the date the work with respect to which the claim is made was performed. Detailed instructions and wage claim forms are available at the office of the local county Production and Marketing Committee. Upon receipt of a wage claim the county Production and Marketing Administration Committee shall thereupon notify the producer against whom the claim is made concerning the representation made by the laborer, and, after making such investigation as it deems necessary, notify the producer and laborer in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If either party is not satisfied with the recommended settlement, an appeal may be made to the State Production and Marketing Administration Committee, University Station, Baton Rouge, Louisiana, which shall likewise consider the facts and notify the producer and laborer in writing of its recommendation for settlement of the claim. If the recommendation of the State Production and Marketing Administration Committee is not acceptable, either party may file an appeal with the Director of the Sugar Branch, Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture, Washington 25, D. C. All such appeals shall be filed within 15 days after receipt of the recommended settlement from the respective committee, otherwise such recommended settlement will be applied in making payments under the act. If a claim is appealed to the Director of the Sugar Branch, his decision shall be binding on all parties insofar as payments under the act are concerned.

STATEMENT OF BASES AND CONSIDERATIONS

(a) General. The foregoing determination provides fair and reasonable wage rates which a producer must pay, as a minimum, for work performed by persons employed in the production and cultivation of sugarcane in Louisiana during the calendar year 1951 as one of the conditions for payment under the act. In this statement, the foregoing determination, as well as determinations for prior years, will be referred to as "wage determination", identified by the calendar year for which effective.

(b) Requirements of the act and standards employed. In determining fair and reasonable wage rates, the act requires that a public hearing be held, that investigations be made, and that consideration be given to (1) the standards formerly established by the Secretary of Agriculture under the Agricultural Adjustment Act, as amended, and (2) the differences in conditions among various sugar producing areas.

A public hearing was held in Thibodaux, Louisiana, on July 14, 1950, at which interested persons presented testimony with respect to fair and reasonable wage rates for production and cultivation work during the calendar year 1951. In addition, investigations have been made of the conditions affecting wage rates in Louisiana. In this determination consideration has been given to testimony presented at the hearing and to the information resulting from investigations. The primary factors which have been considered are (1) prices of sugar and by-products; (2) income from sugarcane; (3) cost of production; (4) cost of living; and (5) relationship of labor cost to total cost. Other economic influences also have been considered.

(c) Background. Determinations of fair and reasonable wage rates for work in production and cultivation of sugarcane in Louisiana have been issued for each calendar year beginning with 1938. In the 1938 and 1939 wage determinations specific time rates were provided for adult males and adult females. Beginning with the 1940 wage determination coverage was extended to tractor drivers, teamsters and workers between 14 and 16 years of age.

The 1938 wage determination increased basic adult male wages for production and cultivation work 20 cents per day over those of the previous year. An increase in producer income at the same time permitted the maintenance of the customary relationship of wages to income that had existed in prior years. The basic wage rates were not changed during the years from 1938 to 1941 and the wage-income relationship remained relatively constant.

In the 1942 wage determination, the basic wage rates were increased 30 cents per day and were increased in varying amounts each subsequent year until 1948. The basic rates established in 1948 were unchanged in the 1949 and 1950 wage determinations. Throughout the years the wage rates have been established primarily on the basis of the historical wage-income relationship, although in more recent years adjustments have been made to give recognition to significant changes which have occurred in other factors customarily considered in establishing wage rates. Since the 1938–40 base period the weighted average of basic time rates for production and cultivation work increased from 13.4 cents per hour to 33.0 cent. in 1950, an increase of 146.3 percent.

In order that the wage rates might be more responsive to significant changes in sugar prices and producer income than was possible under the fixed wage levels of preceding determinations, there was included in the 1949 wage determination a modified wage-price escalator scale. Provision was made that basic time and piecework rates for a two-week work period be increased or decreased for each full 10 cents that the average price of 96° raw sugar was more than $6.25 or less than $5.60 per one hundred pounds for the two-week period immediately preceding the two-week period during which the work was performed. The amount of increase or decrease was $0.05 per 9-hour day.

In the 1950 wage determination the upper limit of the base sugar price range was lowered from $6.25 to $6.00. During 1950 the operation of the modified wage-price escalator resulted in both increases and decreases in the basic wage rates because raw sugar prices were at times above and below the base price range for two-week periods.

(d) 1951 wage determination. In the 1951 wage determination basic wage rates are increased 20 cents per day for all classes of workers. The wage determination provides a minimum basic wage per 9-hour day for adult male workers equivalent to 34.4 cents per hour. Other provisions of the wage determination continue unchanged from those in the 1950 wage determination.

The increases in the 1951 wage determination represent an adjustment in the basic time rates. The adjustment is in conformity with that made in the wage determination for the harvesting of the 1950 crop. The wage rates will further be influenced by operation of the wage-price escalator to the extent that basic wage rates increase or decrease with each full 10-cent change in raw sugar prices for a two-week period above or below the $5.60–$6.00 base price range.

In this determination consideration has been given to the standards customarily considered with particular reference to the wage needs of workers to obtain a reasonable standard of living and the ability of producers to pay such wages. In this analysis the Department had available data on the costs, returns, profits and related factors of the Louisiana sugar industry. On the basis of the examination of all factors, it is indicated that the basic wages provided in the determination are fair and reasonable.

As in previous wage determinations, in addition to the cash wages, producers must provide workers, without charge, perquisites customarily furnished such as a habitable house, medical attention, and similar items.

Accordingly, I hereby find and conclude that the foregoing wage determination will effectuate the wage provisions of the Sugar Act of 1948.

§ 1.1 Definitions. For the purposes of the regulations in this part, the following terms shall be construed, respectively, to mean:

(a) Act. The Federal-Aid Road Act of July 11, 1916, and all acts amendatory thereof or supplementary thereto (U. S. C. 23), except those provisions which relate to national forest roads and highways, national park and national park approach roads and parkways, and Indian reservation roads.

(b) Secretary. The Secretary of Commerce, Department of Commerce.

(c) Commissioner. The Commissioner of Public Roads, Bureau of Public Roads, Department of Commerce.

(d) State highway department. The department of each State government adequately organized and equipped to exercise all the functions incident to operations under the Federal highway legislation and authorized, by the laws of the State, to make final decisions for the State in all matters relating to, and to enter into, on behalf of the State, all contracts and agreements providing for State-Federal cooperative road projects.

(e) Latest available Federal census. The Federal census of 1950.

(f) Urban area. An area including and adjacent to a municipality or other urban place of five thousand or more as shown by the latest available Federal census.

(g) Rural areas. All areas of the State not included in "urban areas."

§ 1.2 Purpose. (a) To establish the pattern for a long-range program of highway development designed for the national defense and to serve the major classes of highway traffic broadly defined as (1) interstate or interregional, (2) intercity or intrastate, (3) rural secondary or farm-to-market, and (4) intra-urban;

(b) To recognize the State highway department as the legal representative of the State including all government subdivisions in the administration of the act within each State;

(c) To provide for a more comprehensive rural-road program through cooperation between the State highway department, the county or other appropriate local road officials, and the Bureau of Public Roads in the selection and improvement of the Federal-aid secondary system;

(d) To insure continuity in the direction of expenditures to accomplish the objectives of the long-range program by the selection of road systems and by annual improvement programs of projects lying upon each system;

(e) To create for the purposes of the act "urban areas" which are urban in character and which may include suburban communities outside municipal boundaries and to make provision for aiding the planning and development of arterial highways to serve such areas.

§ 1.3 Organization and powers of State highway department. Each State shall maintain at its own expense a State highway department as defined in § 1.1, having adequate powers and suitably equipped and organized to discharge to the satisfaction of the Secretary the duties required by the act and by the regulations in this part. From time to time as the Secretary may determine, there shall be furnished to him, by or on behalf of a State, information concerning: (a) Laws affecting roads and the authority of the State and local officials in reference to the acquisition of rights-of-way, construction, maintenance, and control of roads; (b) the State highway department, how equipped and organized; (c) constitutional and legislative provisions relative to revenues for the administration, construction, reconstruction, and maintenance of roads; and (d) funds that will be available to meet the State's share of the cost of construction work to be performed and the sources of such funds.

§ 1.4 Selection and designation of highway systems. The highway systems designated to become the pattern for the long-range development of adequate highway service shall be so selected as to form an integrated net within each State and with like systems at State boundaries. There is no predetermined time limit for the submission of the full selection of the systems and no fixed maximum for the mileage of the systems other than the specific limitations of the act.

The extent of the over-all mileage of the systems as finally approved shall be determined by the ratio of the estimated annual income that will be available from all sources for, and the estimated annual costs of, the maintenance, construction, and reconstruction of the mileage included in the long-range program and shall be so balanced as to permit completion of the initial improvements within a reasonable period of years. The conservation and development of natural resources and of economic and social values, particularly those encouraging desirable land utilization, by providing adequately improved and maintained highways are to be given greater weight in the selection of routes for inclusion in the several systems than is the existing numerical traffic volume.

The highway systems to be selected and designated in accord with the requirements of the act are:

(a) A national system of interstate highways as required by section 7 of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1944.

(b) The Federal-aid highway system as now constituted and approved, with such revisions as may be approved. Transfers, if conditions warrant, may be made between the systems.

(c) A Federal-aid secondary system as required by the act. The roads selected shall be roads not included in the Federal-aid highway system and shall be exclusively within "rural areas", except that in States which have a population density exceeding 200 per square mile, roads and streets within "urban areas" may be included. The system so selected in cooperation with local road officials shall be submitted to the Commissioner of Public Roads in the form required by him and shall be subject to his approval.

§ 1.5 Establishment of "urban area" boundaries. Prior to the inclusion in a proposed program of any project involving funds authorized for urban areas, the boundaries of the particular urban area or areas involved shall be submitted by the State highway department and approved by the Commissioner, in accord with the terms of the act. Projects in urban areas for which the boundaries have been established may be approved prior to the determination of the boundaries of all urban areas within a State.

§ 1.6 Programs of proposed projects. Each State highway department shall prepare and submit to the Commissioner for approval detailed programs of proposed projects for the utilization of any apportionment of funds made to the State under the provisions of the act. Projects for construction on the Federal-aid secondary system shall be selected and the specifications with respect thereto shall be determined by the State highway department and the appropriate local officials in cooperation with each other, subject to approval by the Commissioner as provided by the act. These programs shall be in such form and shall be supported by such information as the Commissioner may require. Prior to the inclusion in the program of projects lying off the approved systems, the routes of which such projects form an integral part shall be submitted by the State highway department and approved by the Commissioner as routes of the appropriate system.

§ 1.7 Project statements. (a) The program required by § 1.6 may be accepted as constituting the project statement referred to in the act.

(b) The Commissioner shall not authorize the advertisement of any project and shall not concur in the award of any contract for any project until the program which includes such project has been approved.

§ 1.8 Surveys, plans, specifications, and estimates. (a) Surveys, plans, specifications, and estimates for all projects shall be prepared by or under the immediate direction of the State highway department and shall show in convenient form and detail the work to be performed and the probable cost thereof, all in conformity with the standards governing form and arrangement prescribed by the Commissioner.

(b) The State highway department may utilize the services of well-qualified and suitably equipped engineering organizations of counties, municipalities, or other local subdivisions, acting under its direction, for making surveys, preparing plans, specifications, and estimates, and for supervising the construction of any project. Inasmuch as the act requires each State to maintain at its own expense a State highway department having adequate powers and suitably equipped and organized to discharge the duties required, no part of the cost of maintaining the central office of a State highway department or the central office of any publicly maintained engineering organization which may be utilized by the State shall be paid with Federal funds.

The State highway department may utilize the services of the engineering organizations of the affected railroad companies for railway-highway crossing projects subject to the same limitations as to the general overhead costs.

The services of private engineering organizations and of consulting engineers may be utilized on the basis of contracts for work of an unusual character requiring highly specialized knowledge and experience.

(c) Until plans, specifications, and estimates for a project or part thereof have been submitted and found satisfactory by the authorized representative of the Commissioner, and the State has been so notified, no project or part thereof shall be advertised for contract.

(d) If any part of the cost of a project is to be provided by a county, municipality, or other local subdivision of a State, the State highway department shall determine the official actions to be taken by, and shall enter into such agreements with, the appropriate local officials as the department shall find desirable to safeguard its responsibility under the act for the fulfillment of the project agreement and the continuous maintenance of the project.

§ 1.9 Project agreements. (a) A project agreement between the State highway department and the Commissioner shall be executed for each project on a form furnished by the Commissioner. No payment on any project shall be made by the United States unless and until such agreement has been executed, nor on account of costs incurred prior to authorization by the authorized representative of the Commissioner.

(b) Subsequent to execution of the project agreement no change shall be made which will increase the cost of a project to the Federal Government or alter its termini, type, or other conditions except upon agreement with the Commissioner.

§ 1.10 Construction and contracts. (a) Actual construction work shall be performed by the contract method unless another method is recommended by the State highway department and approved by the Commissioner for the reason that, under the circumstances, the interests of the public will be served, or that the proposed work is of a character not adapted to normal contract procedures. Before any work is undertaken by direct labor, the State highway department shall determine that the organization that is to undertake the work is able and equipped to perform such work at costs which are reasonable and which compare favorably with similar contract work.

(b) No part of the Federal money set aside on account of any project shall be paid until it has been shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner that adequate methods, either advertising or other devices appropriate for the purpose, were employed, prior to the beginning of construction, to insure economy and efficiency in the expenditure of such money. An advertising period of 2 weeks may be accepted, provided a suitable mailing list of contractors is maintained by a State highway department to whom notices of new work are mailed, and public advertisement is inserted at least once a week for 2 weeks in such publications as will insure adequate publicity, the first insertion to be 2 weeks prior to the opening of bids. In case of emergency an advertising period of less than 2 weeks, or another method insuring competitive prices, may be approved.

(c) All contracts for the construction of highways under the act shall require the contractor to furnish all materials entering into the work, except as otherwise authorized by the prior approval of the Commissioner. No requirement shall be contained in any contract entered into by any State providing price differentials for, requiring the use of, or otherwise discriminating in favor of materials produced within the State.

(d) No procedure or requirement shall be approved which, in the judgment of the Secretary, is designed or may operate to prevent the submission of a bid by, or the award of a contract to, any responsible contractor, whether resident or nonresident of the State wherein the work is to be performed, such as laws or regulations which require the licensing of a contractor before he may submit a bid or which prohibit the consideration of a bid submitted by a contractor not so licensed, or rules which govern the prequalification of contractors by which the amount of work that may be awarded to a contractor is limited otherwise than by a full and appropriate evaluation of his experience, equipment, financial resources, and performance record.

(e) No contract for any project or part thereof shall be entered into or award therefor made by any State without prior concurrence in such action by the Commissioner, and no alteration in the contract subsequently shall be made without the approval of the Commissioner.

(f) Where bids for a project are received on alternate types of construction, the award of contract shall be made to the responsible bidder submitting the lowest acceptable bid irrespective of type, unless it be satisfactorily shown that it is in the public interest to accept a higher bid.

(g) All contracts for projects under the act shall contain suitable stipulations designed to insure that the contractor shall perform with his own organization work amounting to not less than 50 percent of the combined value of all items of work covered by the contract for each project: Provided, however, That any work under the contract which will require highly specialized knowledge, craftsmanship, or equipment not ordinarily available in contracting organizations qualified to bid on the project, may be designated and shown in the advertised specifications as "Specialty Items" and the items so designated may be performed by subcontract without regard to the above limitation.

(h) No part of the money apportioned under the act shall be used, directly or indirectly, to pay or to reimburse a State, county, or local subdivision for the payment of any premium or royalty on any patented or proprietary material, specification, or process for a distinctive type of construction unless purchased or obtained on open actual competitive bidding at the same or a less cost than unpatented articles or methods, if any, equally suitable for the same purpose: Provided, however, That patented or proprietary articles or methods of reasonable cost which constitute minor elements of a contract item may be specified and paid for if purchased in competition with one or more equally suitable patented or proprietary articles or methods or if information is included in the advertisement stating the price at which such patented or proprietary articles or methods are availabe to all contractors. Manufactured patented or proprietary articles which constitute a major part of the cost of a contract item may be specified and paid for if competition is assured with unpatented or nonproprietary articles or between two or more manufactured patented or proprietary articles accepted as equally suitable for the same purpose. Nothing in this section shall be construed as a prohibition against the use of any patented or proprietary material, specification, or process for a distinctive type of construction on relatively short sections of road for experimental purposes.

(i) Construction engineering and inspection charges reimbursable with Federal funds shall be limited to the salaries of individuals directly employed on a project and to other necessary costs incurred in connection with such engineering and inspection.

(j) Where a public or private utility occupies a public highway right-of-way and the facilities of such utility have to be moved, adjusted, or changed because of the construction of a project, the State highway department shall make a formal finding as to the extent that such utility is required to move, adjust, or change its facilities at its own expense, or is relieved of that obligation by law or otherwise. The Commissioner will determine in all such cases whether reimbursement from Federal funds may be made. Reimbursement from Federal funds in any case shall not exceed the regular Federal pro rata share of the cost of such work actually paid by the State or its subdivisions. Work for the necessary adjustment of public utility facilities in connection with the construction of a project may be undertaken, if so determined by the State highway department, by the utility concerned on a force account basis. Maintenance of railroad traffic, including temporary support trestles, track adjustments, signal installations and adjustments, the rearrangement of telegraph and telephone lines on railroad rights-of-way, and the adjustment of existing drainage facilities, may be undertaken by agreement with the State highway department. Any material furnished by a railroad company or other utility for temporary work will be reimbursed at actual cost less fair salvage value when the material is released.

§ 1.11 Right-of-way. Federal participation in right-of-way shall be restricted to costs of new or additional lands required and acquired subsequent to the date of approval of the program which includes the project for which such right-of-way is acquired. Payment will not be made for any land owned by a State or its subdivisions that is not acquired for and used as a part of the right-of-way for such project, but payment may be made in proper cases for the readjustment, repair, or restoration of facilities and improvements on such publicly owned lands made necessary by reason of the construction of the highway project thereon. Only such right-of-way costs as are paid from public funds of the State or its subdivisions shall be eligible for reimbursement.

§ 1.12 Labor and employment. (a) No convict labor shall be employed and no materials manufactured or produced by convict labor shall be used on any project constructed under the regulations in this part.

(b) The selection of labor to be employed on any work undertaken under the act in each State shall be in conformity with the laws of such State.

(c) To prevent the exploitation of labor all contracts shall prescribe the minimum rates of wages for skilled, intermediate, and unskilled labor, as predetermined by the State highway department, which contractors shall pay, and such minimum rates shall be stated in the specifications advertised in the call for bids on the proposed project.

(d) All contracts for the construction of projects shall require that the wages of all labor shall be paid in legal tender of the United States. This condition will be considered satisfied if payment is made by a negotiable check on a solvent bank, which may be readily cashed by the employee in the immediate community for the full amount, without discount or collection charges of any kind.

§ 1.13 Highway planning and research projects. Each State highway department shall prepare and submit a detailed program of proposed engineering and economic investigations and highway research necessary in connection therewith, showing the amount of Federal and State funds proposed for expenditure on each item of the program. The program shall be subject to the approval and project agreement procedure provided for construction projects. Pending the submission and approval of a final program 1½ percent of the total apportionment to each State shall be reserved for highway planning and research projects.

§ 1.14 Railway-highway crossing projects. (a) Before a project for the elimination of hazards at a railway-highway crossing shall be approved for construction on agreement shall be entered into between the State highway department and the railroad concerned for the construction and maintenance of such project. Each such project to be financed in whole or in part from funds provided under the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1944 and subsequent acts shall be classified and the benefits to be derived from and contributions to be made to such project by the railroad shall be determined in accordance with the classification and procedure established for that purpose, and the estimate of benefits and contributions so determined shall be included in the agreement between the State highway department and the railroad.

(b) State laws pursuant to which contributions are imposed upon railroads for the elimination of hazards at railway-highway crossings shall be held not to apply to Federal-aid projects.

§ 1.15 Coordination of airport and highway location. Federal highway funds shall not be used for the reconstruction or relocation of any highway giving access to, or closed or impaired by, an airport constructed or extended after December 20, 1944 unless, prior to such construction or extension, the State highway department and the Bureau of Public Roads have concurred with the officials in charge of the airport that the location or extension of such airport and the consequent reconstruction or relocation of the highway are in the public interest.

§ 1.16 Maintenance of projects. (a) Maintenance of all projects constructed under the provisions of the act shall be the responsibility of the State except for those projects or portions thereof which may be eliminated from the Federal-aid highway system or from the Federal-aid secondary system through relocation in connection with further improvement of a project. The State highway department, acting under the laws of the State, may provide for maintenance of Federal-aid projects by agreement with municipal or other local authorities, but the responsibility of the State to maintain such projects satisfactorily remains unchanged under the requirements of section 14 of the Federal Highway Act as amended by section 6 of the Federal-Aid Highway Act of 1950.

(b) A project for which the State highway department proposes to provide maintenance by an agreement with a municipality or a county shall not be approved if any project previously improved with Federal funds under the provisions of the Federal Highway Act, as amended and supplemented, which the said county or other subdivision has agreed to maintain, is not being satisfactorily maintained, or shall not be approved until such previously improved project shall have been placed in a proper condition of maintenance, as determined by the Commissioner.

§ 1.17 Traffic signs and signals. (a) All signs and traffic-control devices and other protective structures, whether paid for from Federal or other funds, erected on or in connection with highways or structures on which Federal funds are expended, shall be in conformity with such manual or uniform traffic-control devices as may be adopted by the American Association of State Highway Officials, approved by the State highway department, and concurred in by the Commissioner.

(b) The rights-of-way provided for Federal-aid highway projects shall be held inviolate for public highway purposes and no signs (other than those specified in paragraph (a) of this section), posters, billboards, roadside stands or other private installations shall be permitted within the right-of-way limits.

§ 1.18 Diversion of gasoline and motor-vehicle taxes; reduction of apportionment. If the Secretary shall find at any time that lesser amounts of the revenues derived from State motor-vehicle registration fees, licenses, gasoline taxes, and other special taxes on motor-vehicle owners and operators in any State are required by its laws to be applied to highway purposes than were required to be so applied by the laws of such State on June 18, 1934, he shall take such action as he may deem necessary to comply with the provisions of section 12 of the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 995), by reducing the apportionment of Federal funds to such State by not to exceed one-third of the amount to which it otherwise would be entitled for any fiscal year in which such finding may be made.

§ 1.19 Records and cost keeping. (a) Such records of the cost of construction, of inspection, of tests, and of maintenance done by or on behalf of the State, shall be kept, by or under the direction of the State highway department, as will enable the State to report, upon the request of the Commissioner, the amount and nature of the expenditure for these purposes.

(b) The accounts and records, together with all supporting documents, shall be open at all times to inspection by the Commissioner, or his authorized representatives, and copies thereof shall be furnished when requested.

§ 1.20 Payments. Vouchers in the form provided by the Commissioner and certified as therein prescribed, showing amounts expended on any project and the amount claimed to be due from the Federal Government, shall be submitted by the State highway department to the Bureau of Public Roads, either after completion of the project or as the work progresses.

§ 1.21 Advance of funds. If necessary to enable any State highway department to make prompt payment for work as it progresses and thereby insure expeditious completion of projects, the Commissioner may advance the Federal share of the cost of such projects to any State that does not after June 30, 1945, divert to other than highway uses road-user revenues in violation of section 12 of the act of June 18, 1934 (48 Stat. 995). Such advances shall be made in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed by the Commissioner.

§ 1.22 Delegation of authority. The Commissioner of Public Roads shall perform the functions vested in the Secretary by the act except for the following: (a) Making regulations; (b) functions reserved to the Secretary by these regulations; (c) apportioning Federal-aid road funds among the States; and (d) functions reserved to the Secretary by internal directives and administrative regulations of the Department. The Commissioner may redelegate any power or authority conferred upon him by this section to any official or officials of the Bureau of Public Roads as in his judgment will result in economy and efficiency in effectuating the purposes of the act and the regulations in this part.

§ 1.23 Operating procedures and instructions. The Commissioner is hereby authorized to issue such operating procedures and instructions not in conflict with the act or with the regulations in this part as he may deem necessary for carrying out the provisions and effectuating the purposes of the act and the regulations in this part, and all such operating procedures and instructions issued by him shall be and continue in full force and effect from the date on which issued or made effective until modified or revoked by him.

Commissioner of Public Roads.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

SUBPART C—DISTRIBUTION OF ALUMINUM SCRAP

This order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. However, consultation with representatives of all trades and industries affected in advance of the issuance of this order has been rendered impracticable due to the necessity for immediate action, and because the order affects a large number of different trades and industries.

AUTHORITY: §§ 26.51 to 26.61 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105.

§ 26.51 What this subpart does. The primary purpose of this subpart is to regulate the segregation, acceptance, delivery and distribution (whether on purchase, toll agreement or otherwise) of aluminum scrap. The subpart also prohibits undue accumulations of such scrap.

§ 26.52 Definitions. As used in this subpart:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Aluminum scrap" means all materials or objects which are the waste or by-product of industrial fabrication, or which have been discarded on account of obsolescence, failure or other reason, the principal ingredient of which by either weight or volume is metallic aluminum either of domestic generation or imported in either loose or pig form, and shall include all types and grades of aluminum residues, such as drosses, skimmings, fines, grindings, sawings and buffings: Provided, however, That the recoverable metallic aluminum content, as determined by fire assay, hydrogen evolution or other method of comparable efficiency, constitutes 50 percent or more by weight of such residues.

(c) "Producer" means the following prime producers: Aluminum Company of America, Reynolds Metals Company, and Kaiser Aluminum and Chemical Corporation; and such other producers of metallic aluminum who may be designated by the National Production Authority from time to time.

(d) "Approved smelter" means any person whose name appears on List A attached to this subpart, as the same may be amended from time to time.

(e) "Approved fabricator" means any independent fabricator whose name appears on List B attached to this subpart, as the same may be amended from time to time.

(f) "Dealer" means any person regularly engaged in the business of buying and selling aluminum scrap.

(g) "Generator of aluminum scrap" means any person who in manufacture or fabrication produces aluminum scrap.

§ 26.53 Restrictions on use of aluminum scrap. (a) Unless specifically authorized in writing by the National Production Authority, no person, other than a producer, approved smelter or approved fabricator shall melt, reprocess, smelt or otherwise use aluminum scrap: Provided, however, That a foundry may remelt the gates, sprues, risers and defective castings resulting from its own operations if in so doing it does not debase or contaminate the material, and if, in acquiring aluminum, it reduces the requirements contained in its orders to its suppliers by an amount equal to the anticipated recoverable metal; a foundry may also accept on a return a new casting of its own production which was found to be defective, or use a casting that was spoiled in machining, and recast such castings to replace castings of the same alloy.

(b) The National Production Authority may, from time to time, issue directives: (1) To producers, smelters, fabricators and others who are permitted to melt or use aluminum scrap, which directives may specify the exact alloy or alloys which must be produced therewith and the amount of such alloy or alloys, and may prohibit the production of certain alloys; (2) prescribing the amount of secondary ingot that all fabricators (both independent and integrated) will be required to blend with primary ingot in the production of fabricated shapes; and (3) designating certain smelters who will be the only smelters permitted to receive and melt scrap of specified alloys or who will be the only smelters permitted to produce specified alloys. Directives with respect to the foregoing may contain directions as to the production schedule of the persons to whom they are issued.

§ 26.54 Restrictions on distribution of aluminum scrap—(a) Delivery by scrap owners and originators. Except as provided in § 26.53 (a) or as specifically authorized in writing by the National Production Authority, any person (other than a producer, approved smelter, approved fabricator or dealer) who owns or originates any aluminum scrap shall deliver such scrap to any producer, approved smelter, approved fabricator or dealer and shall not dispose of such scrap in any other way.

(b) Time of delivery. Except as provided in § 26.53 (a) or as specifically authorized in writing by the National Production Authority, any person who generates or holds any aluminum scrap shall deliver such scrap to any producer, approved smelter, approved fabricator or dealer at intervals not longer than required to accumulate a minimum carload or at intervals not exceeding 60 days, whichever shall first occur.

(c) Time of delivery by dealers. Except as specifically authorized in writing by the National Production Authority, every dealer shall deliver any aluminum scrap (whether or not deemed to be usable in its "as is" form) to any producer, approved smelter or approved fabricator at intervals not longer than required to accumulate a minimum carload or at intervals not exceeding 60 days, whichever shall first occur: Provided, however, That any dealer may sell any such scrap to another dealer, if, in the regular course of business, he does not collect sufficient scrap to make it practicable for him to sell directly to a producer, approved smelter or approved fabricator.

§ 26.55 Segregation of aluminum scrap. (a) Any generator of aluminum scrap must segregate such scrap by alloy and shall not mix scrap of one alloy with any other alloy or material: Provided, however, That this segregation requirement does not apply to skimmings, drosses, grindings, buffings and sawings.

(b) Any dealer receiving aluminum scrap in segregated form must maintain such segregation.

§ 26.56 Restrictions on toll agreements. (a) No aluminum scrap shall be delivered or received pursuant to any existing or future toll, conversion or repurchase agreement or any similar arrangement unless the person delivering or owning the scrap or the person for whose benefit the processing of the scrap will be effected has received approval in writing from National Production Authority for such transaction: Provided, however, That genuine aluminum billet butts generated by an extruded shape manufacturer may be returned to an extrusion ingot supplier for conversion into extrusion ingots of the same alloy.

(b) Persons requesting such approval shall file with the National Production Authority a letter setting forth: the names and addresses of the parties to any existing or proposed toll, conversion or repurchase agreement; the kind, grade and form of the scrap involved; the tonnage of the scrap and the estimated tonnage of the aluminum resulting; the estimated rate and dates of delivery of such aluminum; the length of time such agreement or other similar agreement between the same parties has been in force; the duration of the agreement; the purpose for which such aluminum is to be used; and such other information as the applicant may wish to submit.

§ 26.57 No acquisition or delivery in violation of order. No person shall acquire or deliver aluminum scrap or products made therefrom if he knows or has reason to believe that such material has been or will be used in violation of this or of any other order of the National Production Authority: Provided, however, That any producer, approved smelter or approved fabricator may acquire aluminum scrap for any use permitted by this subpart whether or not the person from whom it is acquired has complied with this subpart.

§ 26.58 Applications for adjustment. Any person affected by any provision of this subpart may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that any provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. All such requests shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–22. In considering requests for adjustment claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this subpart, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

§ 26.59 Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this subpart shall retain in his possession for at least two years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this subpart have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

(b) All records required by this subpart shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority.

(c) All persons, including producers, smelters, and others authorized by the National Production Authority, who melt or smelt any aluminum scrap, shall file with the Department of the Interior, Bureau of Mines, Washington 25, D. C., in duplicate, report Form 6–1114–M. Such report shall be filed on or before January 15, 1951, and on or before the 15th day of each month thereafter with respect to the preceding month.

(d) Persons subject to this subpart shall make such records and submit such reports to the National Production Authority as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act (Pub. Law 831, 77th Cong., 5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

§ 26.60 Communications. Except as provided in § 26.59 (c), all communications concerning this subpart shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M–22.

§ 26.61 Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provision of this subpart or any other order or regulation of the National Production Authority in the course of operation under this subpart is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this order have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act.

This subpart shall take effect on January 12, 1951.

PART 73—PIGS' AND HOGS' BRISTLES AND BRISTLE PRODUCTS

This part, as amended, is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority granted by section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this part there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

This amendment constitutes, in effect, a completely new order and rescinds all sections of Part 73 (NPA Order M–18) as issued December 21, 1950, and substitutes the following in lieu thereof:

Sec.
73.1 What this part does.
73.2 Definitions.
73.3 Inventories.
73.4 Required mixture of other materials.
73.5 Prohibition of bleaching and cutting bristles.
73.6 Restriction on sale of bristles.
73.7 Prohibited deliveries.
73.8 Reports.
73.9 Records.
73.10 Communications.
73.11 Application for adjustment or exception.
73.12 Audit and inspection.
73.13 Violations.

AUTHORITY: § 73.1 to § 73.13 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong.; sec. 101, E. O. 10161, September 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105.

§ 73.1 What this part does. This part sets forth limitations on inventories of bristles. It calls for reports and explains the conditions under which reports are required in connection with the distribution, use and inventories of bristles. It imposes limitations on the processing, mixing or preparation for manufacture of bristles.

§ 73.2 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association or any other organized group of persons and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Bristles" means pigs' or hogs' bristles, including riflings, whether new, reclaimed, raw, dressed, imported or domestic.

(c) "Dealer" means a person who regularly purchases and sells bristles without processing or changing their condition.

(d) "Dresser" means a person who grades, sorts, dresses, reclaims or in any way processes bristles.

(e) "Process" means to boil, sterilize, comb or mix bristles.

(f) "Import" means to transport in any manner into the Continental United States from any foreign country or from any territory or possession of the United States. It includes shipments into a free port, free zone or bonded custody of the United States Bureau of Customs (bonded warehouse) in the Continental United States and shipments into the Continental United States for processing or manufacture in bond for exportation. "Import" does not include shipments in transit in bond through the Continental United States, without processing or manufacture to Canada, Mexico or any other foreign country, or shipments through a free port or free zone to a foreign country without processing or manufacture. However, if any material in such shipments in transit in bond is, because of a change in plans, to be sold or used in the Continental United States or subjected to processing or manufacture in the Continental United States, it becomes an "import" for the purposes of this order and requires the reports specified in § 73.8.

§ 73.3 Inventories. No person obtaining bristles for use in the manufacture of brushes or other products containing bristles, shall purchase, receive or accept deliveries of bristles if his inventory of such bristles is, or by such receipt would become, more than the smallest quantity that would be required by his scheduled method and rate of operations for the manufacture of brushes or other products containing bristles, during the 120 day period succeeding the effective date of this amendment or in excess of a "practicable minimum working inventory", as defined in Part 10 of this chapter (NPA Reg. 1), whichever is less.

§ 73.4 Required mixture of other materials. No person shall manufacture brushes or other products containing bristles using bristles longer than 2⅝" unless such brushes or products contain at least 30 percent by weight of filling material other than bristles as defined in this order: Provided, however, This restriction shall not apply:

(a) To bristle brushes or products containing 100 percent of bristles manufactured on or prior to fifteen days after the effective date of this amendment to this part, using therein only such bristles as had on the effective date of this part been processed, mixed, or otherwise prepared.

(b) To the manufacture of brushes or products containing bristles where the applicable federal specifications require the use of bristles exclusively, and the brushes or other products are for delivery to or for the account of an agency of the United States.

§ 73.5 Prohibition of bleaching and cutting bristles. No manufacturer, dealer, dresser or other person may bleach or make cuts from any bristles longer than 2⅝".

§ 73.6 Restriction on sale of bristles. No person may sell bristles except to a dealer, dresser or manufacturer of brushes or products containing bristles.

§ 73.7 Prohibited deliveries. No person shall accept an order for, sell, deliver or cause to be delivered bristles which he knows, or has reason to believe will be accepted, held or used in violation of the provisions of this part.

§ 73.8 Reports. (a) Any person who imports, distributes or has in his possession bristles for the purpose of manufacture of brushes or other products containing bristles or who otherwise may have bristles in his possession, must report each month his entries, receipts, deliveries, inventories, balance of entries and all other transactions in bristles, by completing and filing report Form NPAF–14 on or before the 10th day of each month, with respect to all such operations and transactions.

(b) Other reports. Other persons having any interest in or taking any action with respect to the importation of bristles or having control over bristles while they are physically in the Continental United States, even though in bond or in transit, except common carriers, whether as owner, agent, consignee, or otherwise having bristles in his possession or under his control shall file the report called for in paragraph (a) of this section and such other reports as may be required from time to time by the National Production Authority, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act (Pub. Law 831–77 Cong. 5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this part have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 73.9 Records. Each person participating in any transaction covered by this part shall retain in his possession for at least 2 years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this part have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

§ 73.10 Communications. All communications concerning this part shall be addressed to National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref.: Order M–18.

§ 73.11 Application for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this part may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry, or its enforcement against him should not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In considering requests for adjustment claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this part, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing, shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

§ 73.12 Audit and Inspection. All records required by this part shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representative of the National Production Authority.

§ 73.13 Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this part or any other order or regulation of the National Production Authority or wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this part is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

This part shall take effect on January 12, 1951.

This order is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the authority granted by Section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

75.2 Definitions.
75.3 Forms of carded cotton sales yarn to which this part applies.

AUTHORITY: §§ 75.1 to 75.11 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105.

§ 75.1 What this part does. This part applies particularly to producers of carded cotton sales yarn, and provides rules for placing, accepting, and scheduling rated orders therefor. Its purpose is to provide equitable distribution of rated orders among all carded cotton sales yarn producers of the particular types mentioned in § 75.3 in order to make possible maximum production of such yarn and to reduce to a minimum disruption of its normal distribution. It supplements Part 11 of this chapter (NPA Regulation 2) but only those provisions of Part 11 which are inconsistent with this part are superseded, and all other provisions of Part 11 continue to apply to the carded cotton sales yarn industry.

§ 75.2 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons and includes agencies of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Producer" means any person engaged in the business of spinning carded cotton yarn produced for sale as such.

(c) "NPA" means National Production Authority in the Department of Commerce.

§ 75.3 Forms of carded cotton sales yarn to which this part applies. This part applies to carded cotton yarn produced for sale as such, regardless of count or ply or put-up and whether undyed, dyed, tinted, or otherwise treated, including all second quality yarns, and waste or waste content yarns.

§ 75.4 Required delivery dates. A rated order for carded cotton sales yarn must specify delivery on a particular date or in a particular month, which in no case may be earlier than required by the person placing the order. The producer of carded cotton sales yarn must schedule the order for delivery within the requested month as close to the requested delivery date as is practicable considering the need for maximum production.

§ 75.5 Rejection of rated orders. Unless specifically directed otherwise by NPA, a producer of carded cotton sales yarn need not accept a rated order that is (a) received less than 15 days prior to the first day of the month in which shipment is requested, or (b) for a yarn of a specification or put-up not normally made by such producer and is of a type that would cause lack of balance in mill production.

§ 75.6 Limitation for acceptance of rated orders. Unless specifically directed by NPA, no producer shall be required to accept rated orders for shipment in any one month in excess of 10 percent of his average monthly shipments of carded cotton sales yarn made by him during the period from January 1, 1950 through August 31, 1950.

§ 75.7 NPA assistance in placing rated orders. Any person who is unable to place a rated order for carded cotton sales yarn due to the limitation imposed by § 75.6 should apply to NPA, Ref: Order M-23, specifying the producers who refused to accept the order. NPA will arrange to assist him in locating other sources of supply.

§ 75.8 Adjustments or exceptions. Any person affected by any provision of this part may file with NPA a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that such provision works an undue and exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others, or that its enforcement against him would not be in the interests of national defense or in the public interest. In considering requests for adjustment which claim that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this part, consideration will be given to the requirements of public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each such request shall be in writing and shall set forth pertinent facts, the nature of the relief sought and the justification therefor.

§ 75.9 Communications. All communications concerning this part shall be addressed to National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-23.

§ 75.10 Records, audit, inspection and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this part shall retain in his possession for at least two years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction whether the provisions of this part have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

(b) All records required by this part shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of NPA.

(c) Persons subject to this part shall make such records and submit such reports to NPA as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act (Pub. Law 831, 77th Cong., 5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this part have been approved by the Bureau of Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

§ 75.11 Violations. Any person who willfully violates any provision of this part or any other order or regulation of NPA or willfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this part is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

This part shall take effect on January 12, 1951.

SECURITIES AND EXCHANGE COMMISSION

[17 CFR, Parts 210, 250]

REPORTING REQUIREMENTS APPLICABLE TO REGISTERED PUBLIC UTILITY HOLDING COMPANIES

NOTICE OF PROPOSED RULE MAKING

Notice is hereby given that the Securities and Exchange Commission has under consideration a proposal for the simplification of its annual reporting requirements applicable to public utility holding companies registered under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935. The revised requirements would apply to annual reports filed by such companies under both the above-mentioned act and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. The proposed revision takes the form of a revised annual report form which would replace the existing Forms U5S [1] and U-14-3 (17 CFR 259.5s and 259.314) under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 and Forms U5-K and U5-MD (17 CFR 249.350 and 249.450) under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as well as Form 10-K (17 CFR

[1] Filed as part of the original document.

249.310) under the latter act insofar as it applies to such registered holding companies. Under the new arrangement, registered holding companies would be permitted to file a single annual report under both acts. However, any such company which wished to do so would be permitted to use Form 10–K for its annual report under the 1934 Act.

In connection with the proposed revision, the following changes would be made in the general rules and regulations under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935:

1. Paragraph (c) of § 250.1 (Rule U–1) would be amended to read as follows:

§ 250.1 Registration. * * *

(c) Annual report. Every registered holding company shall file, on or before the first of May in the year following that in which it filed its registration statement, and in every succeeding year, an annual report on Form U5S (17 CFR 259.5s): Provided, however, That where any holding company system includes more than one registered holding company, the annual report shall be filed by the top registered holding company in such system and shall be signed on behalf of each registered holding company in such system by the authorized officer of each such registered holding company.

2. Paragraph (d) of § 250.26 (Rule U-26) would be deleted.

3. In connection with the proposed revision, the following change would be made in Form U5B (17 CFR 259.5b), Registration Statement under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935:

Add the following to the text of Exhibit D:

The consolidating balance sheet and consolidating statements of income and surplus of the registrant and its subsidiaries shall be prepared and certified in accordance with the requirements of Part 210 of this chapter, which governs the certification, form and content of such statements, including the basis of consolidation, and prescribes the schedules to be filed in support thereof.

4. In connection with the proposed revision, the following changes would be made in Part 210 (Regulation S–X):

a. Section 210.1–01 (Rule 1–01) would be amended to read as follows:

§ 210.1–01 Application of this part. (a) This part (together with the Accounting Series Releases) states the form and content of all financial statements required to be filed as part of:

(1) Registration statements under the Securities Act of 1933, filed on Form S–1, S–2, S–3, S–4, S–5, S–6 or S–11 (17 CFR 239.11, 239.12, 239.13, 239.14, 239.15, 239.16, 239.18), except as otherwise specifically provided in such forms;

(2) Applications for registration of securities under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, filed on Form 8–A, 8–B, 10 or 14 (17 CFR 249.208a, 249.208b, 249.210, 249.214);

(3) Supplemental or periodic reports under section 13 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 filed on Form 8–K, 9–K, 10–K, 14–K, 16–K or U5S; (17 CFR 249.303, 249.309, 249.310, 249.314, 249.316, 259.5s);

(4) Supplemental or periodic reports under section 15 (d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 filed on Form 10–K, 2–MD, 4–MD or U5S (17 CFR 249.310, 249.402, 249.404, 259.5s);

(5) Registration statements and annual reports under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935; and

(6) Registration statements and annual reports under the Investment Company Act of 1940.

(b) The term "financial statements" as used in this part shall be deemed to include all supporting schedules.

b. Section 210.4–13 would be amended to read as follows:

§ 210.4–13 Special requirements as to Public Utility Holding Companies. (a) There shall be shown in the consolidated balance sheet of a public utility holding company the difference between the amount at which the parent's investment is carried and the underlying book equity of the subsidiaries as at the respective dates of acquisition.

(b) Public utility holding companies registered under the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 shall file in their registration statements under such act and in their annual reports, consolidating statements which set forth the individual statements of the parent company and subsidiaries included in consolidation. Where any holding company system includes more than one registered holding company, the annual report shall include separate consolidating statements for each such registered holding company and its subsidiaries. The schedules and notes required by this part shall be filed in support of the consolidated statements and the corporate statements of the parent company included in such consolidating statements, but separate schedules and notes need not be filed in support of individual statements of subsidiaries included in such consolidating statements.

All interested persons are invited to submit their views and comments on these proposals, in writing, to the Securities and Exchange Commission at its principal office, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C., on or before February 5, 1951.

By the Commission.

D & Z EMPLOYEES' TRUST FUND

NOTICE OF APPLICATION

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of January A. D. 1951.

Notice is hereby given that D & Z Employees' Trust Fund (hereinafter referred to as "fund") has filed an application pursuant to section 6 (b) of the Investment Company Act of 1940[1] for an order of the Commission exempting it from all the provisions of the act, or, in the alternative, exempting it in whole or part from the following sections of the act and rules promulgated thereunder: Section 8 (b) and Rule N-8B-2 other than the requirement to file information called for by Part V of Form N-8B-1 entitled "Policy of Registrant", section 16 (a), section 17 (a) to the extent that the fund shall be permitted to purchase from Day and Zimmerman, Incorporated, (hereinafter referred to as "corporation") shares of the latter's own stock acquired by it and held in its treasury, other than shares acquired after October 2, 1950, from an affiliated person, or an affiliated person of an affiliated person of the fund,[2] section 17 (f) and Rule N-17F-2, section 20 (a) and Rule N-20A-1, section 23 (b), section 23 (c) and Rule N-23C-1, section 30 (a) and Rule N-30A-1 other than the requirement to file information called for by Part V of Form N-30A-1 entitled "Policy of Registrant", section 30 (b) and Rule N-30B1-1, also Rule N-30B2-1 to the extent that the fund shall not be required to file copies of routine reports sent monthly to holders of its units pursuant to section 3 of Article IV of the trust agreement pursuant to which the fund is organized, section 30 (d) and Rule N-30D-1 to the extent that the fund shall be permitted to transmit reports to stockholders annually instead of semi-annually, section 30 (f) and Rule N-30F-2 to the extent that a person required to file Form N-30F-2 shall not be required to file such reports more often than once each six months, except that if such person should buy units issued by the fund from persons other than the fund or should sell such units[3] to persons other than the fund, such person shall file a report on Form N-30F-2 for the month in which the purchase is made, for each of the six months preceding that month, and for each of the six months succeeding that month, and section 32 (a).[3]

[1] Section 6 (b) reads as follows: "Upon application by any employees' security company, the Commission shall by order exempt such company from the provisions of this title and of the rules and regulations hereunder, if and to the extent that such exemption is consistent with the protection of investors. In determining the provisions to which such an order of exemption shall apply, the Commission shall give due weight, among other things, to the form or organization and the capital structure of such company, the persons by whom its voting securities, evidences of indebtedness, and other securities are owned and controlled, the prices at which securities issued by such company are sold and the sales load thereon, the disposition of the proceeds of such sales, the character of the securities in which such proceeds are invested, and any relationship between such company and the issuer of any such security."

[2] At the present time the corporation has 2,127 shares of stock in its treasury all of which would be exempt from the provisions of section 17 (a), if the exemption is granted.

[3] The following is a brief description of the sections and rules from which an exemption is requested. Section 8 (b) and Rule N-8B-2 require a registered investment company to file certain data and information. Section 16 (a) requires directors to be chosen by the holders of the outstanding voting securities of a registered investment company, with certain exceptions. Section 17 (a) prohibits a registered investment company from purchasing securities or property from certain affiliated persons. Section 17 (f) and Rule N-17F-2 require that securities and similar investments of certain registered investment companies be held in the custody of a bank, or in accordance with rules promulgated by the Commission if held in the custody of a member of a national securities exchange or of the investment company. Section 20 (a) and Rule N-20A-1 prohibit a solicitation of proxies in respect of any security of which a registered investment company is the issuer except in accordance with rules and regulations promulgated by the Commission. Section 23 (b) provides that no registered closed-end company may sell any common stock below the current net asset value, with certain exceptions. Section 23 (c) and Rule N-23C-1 prohibit a registered closed-end company from purchasing any securities of which it is the issuer except on a securities exchange or pursuant to tenders or under such other circumstances as the Commission may permit by rules and regulations or orders. Section 30 (a) and Rule N-30A-1 require a registered investment company to file annual reports with the Commission. Section 30 (b) requires a registered investment company to file such current information on a semiannual or quarterly basis as the Commission may require. Rule N-30B1-1 prescribes a form for a quarterly report to be filed pursuant to section 30 (b) (1) and Rule N-30B2-1 requires certain financial reports transmitted to stockholders to be filed with the Commission. Section 30 (d) and Rule N-30D-1 require an investment company to transmit semiannual reports to the stockholders. Section 30 (f) extends the duties and liabilities of section 16 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 to every person who is the beneficial owner of more than 10% of any class of outstanding securities of which a registered investment company is the issuer or who is an officer or director of such company or has certain other relationship with such company, and Rule N-30F-2 requires such persons to file reports showing changes in the ownership of securities of such company. Section 32 (a) provides that accountants shall be selected by certain members of the board of directors and that such selection shall be submitted to stockholders for ratification or rejection.

The fund is a common law trust which was organized in 1939 pursuant to the laws of the State of Pennsylvania to provide a medium by which employees, including officers of the corporation could by means of relatively small weekly or other periodic payments acquire the corporation's outstanding common stock with a view to confining the ownership of such stock, ultimately and so far as practicable, to persons in the employ of the corporation.[4] The trust by its terms will terminate on December 31, 1953 but may be terminated sooner. The occasion for the application is that the fund's holdings of stock of the corporation were approaching 25% of the total outstanding shares of the corporation. When this percentage was reached, the fund would be presumed, under section 2 (a) (9) of the act to control the corporation, which might be illegal by virtue of section 7 (a) (5) of the act, unless the fund is registered under the act, (or exempt from the act) inasmuch as the corporation may be engaged in business in interstate commerce.[5] The fund has requested, in the alternative, an exemption in whole or in part from certain provisions of the act and rules promulgated thereunder for the reasons that it desires to avoid the expense of complying with all the provisions of the act and to facilitate its operations and activities, in case an exemption from all the provisions of the act is not granted.

[4] The corporation is engaged in the general engineering business and its principal office is located in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

[5] As of April 30, 1950, the fund held 3,693 shares of the 14,285 outstanding shares of stock of the corporation (exclusive of 2,127 shares held in the corporation's treasury), or 25.8 percent of the outstanding shares.

Section 7 (a) (5) reads as follows: "No investment company organized or otherwise created under the laws of the United States or of a State and having a board of directors, unless registered under section 8, shall directly or indirectly * * * control any company which is engaged in any business in interstate commerce."

Participation in the fund is available to all employees having a reasonably permanent connection with the corporation and who have been employed a minimum of four years, which minimum service requirements may be and have been lowered in specific cases at the option of the trustees. Contributions of participants consist of periodic payments which normally do not exceed 10 per cent of the participant's weekly salary. The Fund issues units which represent a proportionate participation in the net assets of the Fund.

The management of the trust is vested in a board of six trustees, three of whom are designated by the corporation from among its officers who are participants in the Fund and three are selected by participants from among such of their number who are not officers and directors of the corporation. The trustees serve without compensation. The participation units issued by the Fund are nonnegotiable and are not transferable until the participant either ceases to be an employee of the corporation or notifies the trustees of his desire to sell his participating units, and unless and until 60 days following either of such events, during which the trustees are given an option to repurchase such units, shall have elapsed without the exercise of such option. Units are sold and repurchased at their current value and without a sales load. In computing current value, the stock of the corporation held by the Fund is reckoned at book value as shown by the corporation's balance sheet for the last day of the preceding month, certified by the corporation's principal accounting officer.

It is the intention of the Commission, if an exemption is granted, (1) to provide that the exemption shall continue only until December 31, 1953, or until the trust is terminated, if terminated before then, unless extended by order upon application, and (2) to reserve the right to modify or revoke its order, after notice and opportunity for a hearing, if at any time in its opinion such action is necessary or appropriate.

All interested persons are referred to said application which is on file in the offices of the Commission for a detailed statement of the proposed transactions and the matters of fact and law asserted.

Notice is further given that an order granting one of the alternative exemptions requested by the Fund, in whole or in part and upon such conditions as the Commission may deem necessary or appropriate, may be issued by the Commission on or at any time after February 1, 1951, unless prior thereto a hearing upon the application is ordered by this Commission, as provided in Rule N-5 of the rules and regulations promulgated under the act. Any interested person may submit to the Commission in writing, not later than January 30, 1951, at 5:30 p. m., his views or any additional facts bearing upon the application or the desirability of a hearing thereon, or a request to the Commission that a hearing be held thereon. Any such communication or request should state briefly the nature of the interest of the person submitting such information or requesting a hearing, the reasons for such request, and the issues of fact or law raised by the application which he desires to controvert. Any such communication or request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington, D. C.

By the Commission.

Secretary.

TITLE 3—THE PRESIDENT

PRESCRIBING REGULATIONS GOVERNING THE PAYMENT OF BASIC ALLOWANCES FOR QUARTERS

By virtue of and pursuant to the authority vested in me by section 302 of the Career Compensation Act of 1949, approved October 12, 1949 (Public Law 351, 81st Congress), and as President of the United States and Commander in Chief of the armed forces of the United States, I hereby prescribe the following regulations governing the payment of basic allowances for quarters to members of the uniformed services.

1. Definitions. As used in these regulations or regulations prescribed pursuant hereto:

(a) The term "entitled to receive basic pay" shall apply to a member while on the active list or while required to perform duty in accordance with law for which he is entitled to basic pay: Provided, that such term shall not apply to any member while absent from duty under conditions which, under laws governing the particular service concerned, would prevent him from receiving full basic pay.

(b) The term "field duty" shall mean service by a member under orders with troops operating against an enemy, actual or potential, or service with troops on maneuvers, war games, field exercises, or similar types of operations.

(c) The term "sea duty" shall mean service performed by either officer or enlisted members under conditions for which "sea duty" pay is payable to enlisted members in accordance with section 206 of the said Career Compensation Act of 1949, and regulations issued thereunder.

(d) The term "permanent station" shall mean the place on shore where a member is assigned to duty, or the home yard or the home port of a ship in which a member is required to perform duty, under orders in each case which do not in terms provide for the termination thereof; and any station on shore or any receiving ship where a member is assigned and in fact occupies, with his dependents, if any, quarters under the jurisdiction of any of the uniformed services shall also be deemed during such occupancy to be his permanent station: Provided, that in the case of members of the National Guard, the Air National Guard or Reserve components of any of the uniformed services on active duty for training, the place where the training duty is being performed shall be deemed to be the permanent station of such members for the purposes of these regulations.

2. Except as otherwise by statute heretofore or hereafter provided, a member shall be entitled to payment of basic allowances for quarters, in accordance with these regulations and any regulations prescribed pursuant hereto, during such time or times as he is entitled to receive basic pay.

3. Any quarters or housing facilities under the jurisdiction of any of the uniformed services in fact occupied without payment of rental charges (a) by a member and his dependents, or (b) at his permanent station by a member without dependents, or (c) by the dependents of a member on field duty or on sea duty or on duty at a station where adequate quarters are not available for his dependents, shall be deemed to have been assigned to such member as appropriate and adequate quarters, and no basic allowance for quarters shall accrue to such member under such circumstances unless the occupancy is because of a social visit of a temporary nature.

4. When adequate quarters for his dependents are not available for assignment at his permanent station to a member with dependents, he may occupy not more than one room and a bath at such station, without affecting his right to receive payment of basic allowances for quarters, if permitted or required personally to occupy quarters at such station.

5. A member away from his permanent station may occupy not more than one room and a bath at his temporary post or station without affecting his right to receive payment of basic allowances for quarters, or to assignment of quarters at his permanent station.

6. The Secretaries concerned (within the meaning of section 102 (f) of the said Career Compensation Act of 1949), with respect to personnel of the uniformed services within their respective departments and agency, are hereby authorized to prescribe such supplementary regulations not inconsistent herewith as they may deem necessary or desirable for carrying out these

SAFETY BELTS

Adopted by the Civil Aeronautics Board at its office in Washington, D. C., on the 11th day of January 1951.

Currently effective Civil Air Regulations require that aircraft manufactured after January 1, 1951, shall be equipped with safety belts approved on the basis of TSO C–22a in accordance with the amendments adopted by the Board on December 29, 1949.

The Board recognizes that current demands upon our domestic economy are resulting in shortages of materials and that requirements may necessitate restraints on their civilian use. Accordingly, this regulation is intended to permit aircraft manufacturers to utilize safety belts which comply with the provisions of the Civil Air Regulations effective prior to January 1, 1951, whenever, as at present, shortages in the supply of safety belts which comply with Technical Standard Order C–22a or of safety belts which meet substantially equivalent standards, particularly those meeting military standards, would seriously delay the delivery of newly manufactured aircraft. It should be noted that this regulation is not intended to permit the continued manufacture for civilian use of safety belts which do not comply with TSO C–22a.

For the reasons set forth above, notice and public procedure hereon are impracticable and contrary to public interest, and the Board finds that good cause exists for making this Special Civil Air Regulation effective immediately.

In consideration of the foregoing the Civil Aeronautics Board hereby makes and promulgates a Special Civil Air Regulation, effective immediately, to read as follows:

Contrary provisions of the Civil Air Regulations notwithstanding, the Administrator shall authorize the installation in newly manufactured aircraft of safety belts which comply with the provisions of the Civil Air Regulations effective prior to January 1, 1951, where, because of shortages, there is no available supply of safety belts which comply with Technical Standard Order C–22a or of safety belts which are substantially equivalent, particularly those meeting military standards. Each safety belt assembly installed for use in civilian aircraft shall be marked on both ends with its date of manufacture.

This regulation shall terminate December 31, 1951, unless sooner superseded or rescinded.

(Sec. 205, 52 Stat. 984; 49 U. S. C. 425. Interpret or apply secs. 601, 603, 52 Stat. 1007, 1009; 49 U. S. C. 551, 553)

[Docket No. 9775]

LIST OF BAND ARRANGEMENTS

JANUARY 4, 1951.

In the matter of list of assignments in the bands below 27,500 kc. and especially those in the band 2000-3500 kc. to be recommended for International Registration in connection with the Extraordinary Administrative Radio Conference of the International Telecommunication Union; Docket No. 9775.

On August 25, 1950, the Commission released a Public Notice in Docket 9775 (Mimeo 53477) which was intended to advise interested parties concerning progress being made and of the further steps contemplated in order to bring into force the new international table of frequency allocations for the spectrum 2000-3500 kc. based upon the provisions of the Final Acts of the Atlantic City Telecommunication and Radio Conferences (1947), of the FIAR Conference, (Washington, 1949), and of Region 2 (ITU) (Washington, 1949).[1] Appendices of that Public Notice contained lists summarizing the manner in which the non-Government assignments contained in the complete United States list (List A) were proposed to be made. The Commission requested all interested parties to comment upon List A or the appended non-Government lists not later than October 9, 1950. Comments were received from:

Aeronautical Radio Inc., (ARINC)
American Telephone and Telegraph Co. (AT&T).
Lake Carriers' Association.
Lorain County Radio Corporation.
National Federation of American Shipping.
National Broadcasting Company (NBC).
RCA Communications, Inc. (RCA).
Radiomarine Corporation of America (RMCA).
Tropical Radio, Inc. (TRT).

[1] Appendix A, Part 2 of FCC Rules, lists pertinent radio treaties and information as to how copies may be obtained.

A summary of the comments are as follows:

A. Aeronautical Radio Inc. (Aeronautical fixed):

(1) Listed the basic frequency requirements of the Aeronautical Fixed Service in the Caribbean area.

(2) Requested changes in the list resulting from the recent transfer of certain operations at Miami, Florida, from the Civil Aeronautics Administration to non-Government licensees and the transfer of the primary Texas operation from Brownsville to Houston, Texas.

(3) Called attention to several listings expected to cause co-channel and adjacent channel interference to the aeronautical fixed operations proposed.

(4) Requested the opportunity to be heard in the event "List A" could not be modified to satisfy the criteria set forth.

B. AT&T (Marine Telephone):

(1) Believes insufficient frequencies have been provided for the service.

(2) Requests 2110 kc. be retained because of large number of assignments now outstanding on that frequency.

(3) Wants daytime protection from remote pickup within 700 mile radius of all coastal harbor stations.

(4) Wants minimum of 32 kc. separation between coastal-harbor frequencies and between ship frequencies in the same area.

(5) Recommends all ship frequencies be adjacent to or in existing ship block and all coastal harbor frequencies be adjacent to or in existing coastal harbor block.

(6) Desires greater frequency separation between certain coast and ship assignments.

(7) Desires greater distance separation on certain co-channel assignments.

(8) Recommends a minimum separation of 42.5 kc between ship and shore frequencies in a given pair.

C. Lake Carriers Association (Marine Telephone): On the frequencies 2158, 2550, 2118 and 2514 kc., requests no sharing. Expresses concern over proposed sharing 2003 kc. by San Francisco with Great Lakes.

D. Lorain County Radio, Inc. (Marine Telephone):

(1) Objects to sharing of 2003 kc. by San Francisco with Great Lakes.

(2) Objects to night time sharing by Tampa with Great Lakes.

(3) Objects to night time sharing by Miami with Great Lakes.

(4) Suggests that Tampa-Great Lakes-Eureka pair 2158-2550 kc. be limited to day only at Tampa and Eureka on account of increase of Great Lakes traffic. Proposes 2390-2458 kc. pair be used full time at Tampa.

(5) Suggests that Miami-Great Lakes pair 2118-2514 kc. be limited to day only at Miami and 3280-3212.5 kc. Miami pair be used full time.

E. National Federation of American Shipping (Marine Services):

(1) Favors 2 Mc. telegraphy and telephony plans.

(2) Recommends expanded use of telephony in ship bands at foreign ports.

(3) Supports 2830 kc. for intership use. Recommends Canadian use of 2830 kc. in North Atlantic area.

F. NBC Remote Pickup):

(1) Believes frequency separations provided are inadequate.

(2) Objects to limitations on hours of usage.

G. RCAC (International Fixed Public Service):

(1) Suggests 3257.5 kc as a replacement for 3327.5 kc. at New York since interference with Atlantic City Region 1 assignments is believed certain.

(2) Agrees with the plan in general.

(3) Urges the consideration of sharing for future needs as they arise.

H. RMCA (Marine Services):

(1) Telegraph portion of the plan is acceptable.

(2) Marine telephone plan is generally acceptable except for need for greater separation between legs of a given ship-shore pair. Believes that a minimum separation of 10 percent is necessary.

(3) Believes that telephone frequencies provided above 3 Mc. should be moved below 3 Mc.

I. Tropical Radio Telegraph Co. (International Fixed Public Service):

(1) Points out that replacement frequencies were not provided for 2264 and 3280 kc. frequencies. Replacement of the latter frequency is important for satisfactory operation of the Miami to Nassau circuit.

(2) Requests that an exclusive frequency in the band 3000-3500 kc. be assigned since 2 Mc. frequency would be too low on account of high noise level and a 4 Mc. frequency would be too high during low sunspot periods. The hours of use necessary are 9:00 p. m. to 6:00 a. m., e. s. t.

The following is a list of changes and revisions made in the Appendices and in List A affecting the non-Government services:

A. Maritime Mobile (telephone) Service:

(1) The ship frequency 3280 kc. is deleted at Miami because of the necessity for retention of the existing fixed circuit on this frequency between Miami and Nassau (TRT request). The frequency 2031.5 kc. is added in lieu of 3280 for the ship frequency paired with the 3212.5 coast frequency at Miami. This also assists in meeting the RMCA recommendation to use frequencies below 3000 kc. for the Marine Service and the AT&T recommendations to make new marine assignments as close as possible to the existing ship and coastal harbor station frequency blocks.

(2) The "day only" pairs 2118-2514 kc. are deleted at Boston and Seattle because of objection (AT&T) to insufficient spacing from adjacent pairs (2126-2522 kc.) to be assigned at the same location or same area (Seattle, New York). No workable substitute pairs could be found.

(3) For the same reason as (2) above, New York is deleted from the 2134-2530 kc. pair. No workable substitute pair could be found.

(4) In order that the future assignments in the Los Angeles-San Diego service area be flexible so that assignment can be made to either location as future events may determine, all new pairs now list both locations. Los Angeles is added to the 2126–2522 and 3255–3222.5 kc. pairs. San Diego is added to the 2206–2595 and 3275–3242.5 kc. pairs.

(5) This also will permit the operation of the new daytime pairs at San Francisco and Eureka to be coordinated in the same manner as the existing operations at these locations if found desirable. Eureka is deleted from the 2158–2558 kc. pair (AT&T request) and added to the 2142–2538 kc. pair in order to overcome the AT&T objection to "splitting pairs".

(6) Because of inadequate provision for a Fixed requirement at New York (RCAC) and on objection (AT&T) to sharing a pair between Boston and New Orleans, 3242.5 kc. is assigned to the Fixed service at New York, and Boston is deleted from the 3322.5–3242.5 kc. pair. In order to provide Boston with more than one pair, New York is deleted from the 3255–3232.5 kc. pair and Boston is added to that pair.

(7) In Appendix 1 the frequencies 3222.5, 3232.5, and 3242.5 kc. were listed as ship telephone frequencies and 3255, 3275 and 3322.5 kc. were listed for coastal harbor frequencies when in fact (as was correctly shown in Appendix 2) the intention was just the reverse. For this reason Appendix 1 has been corrected to show the lower 3 frequencies available for coastal harbor stations and the upper 3 for ship telephone.

(8) After consideration of comments relative to Tampa and Miami sharing with the Great Lakes, (AT&T, Lake Carriers, Lorain County Radio) the use of the 2118–2514 and 2158–2550 kc. pairs at Miami and Tampa have been restricted (footnote 4, Appendix 1 and footnote 2 Appendix 2) today only during the season the Great Lakes are open to shipping.

(9) See Appendix 1 and 2 below for the revised listings.

B. Maritime mobile (coastal telegraph) Service:

(1) Since List A and Appendix 1 were published, certain existing coastal telegraph assignments are no longer required. For this reason, listings at Thomaston, Me., Jupiter, Fla., Beaumont, Texas, Kailua, T. H., and Norfolk, Va., have been deleted from List A and Appendix 1.

(2) Because of the requirement for a substitute ship telephone frequency at Miami and the deleted requirements noted above (1), the frequencies 2028.5, 2030, 2031.5, 2033 and 2034.5 have been deleted as coastal telegraph frequencies and 2031.5 listed for Miami ship telephone.

(3) Because of the frequency deletions noted in (2) above, all listings as previously shown in Appendix 1 have been shifted upward, the lowest coastal telegraph frequency now being 2036 kc.

(4) The Baltimore, Md., and Kent, Washington, locations are added to the new Galveston, Texas, frequency (2063 kc.).

(5) A new requirement (in lieu of the deleted Jupiter, Florida, listing) at Jacksonville, Florida, is added to the New York, N. Y., frequency (2051 kc.).

(6) A new requirement at Lake Charles, La., is added to the Ensenada, P. R., and Alaska frequency (2052.5 kc.). The Kahuku, T. H., requirement has also been added to this frequency.

(7) See the revised Appendix 1 attached hereto for a complete listing of the revised coastal telegraph assignments.

C. Aeronautical (Fixed) Service:

(1) Since List A, Appendix 1 and Appendix 6 were published, certain CAA (Government) operations have been transferred to Aeronautical Radio, Inc. For this reason the lists have been corrected to show aeronautical fixed, Florida, on 2784 kc. as a replacement for 2644 kc. and 3222.5 kc. as a replacement for 3405 kc.

(2) List A is corrected as follows:

2784 kc—removed call WBR and changed coordinates to read 25 49 N, 80 16 W.

2848 kc—changed second "Brownsville" entry to "Houston" in column 4a and coordinates to 29 39 N, 95 16 W and in column 4b changed receiving point to "Caribbean". Deleted WBR from this frequency since ARINC is now handling this traffic.

3222.5 kc—1. Changed Miami Aeronautical Fixed entry to show different coordinates and such other particulars as necessary to show existing non-Government operations now on 3405 kc.; 2. Added U. S. (South Central) Aeronautical Fixed entry.

(3) See revised Appendix 1 and 6 for revised non-Government listings in the Aviation services.

D. Fixed Public Service:

(1) The 3190 kc Puerto Rico listing in Appendix 1 has been added to the revised Appendix 7, the omission of this frequency from the latter appendix having been in error.

(2) Because of the continuing requirement for the Miami and San Juan fixed operations now on 3280 kc and a request that this operation not be deleted (TRT), Florida and Puerto Rico were added to 3280 kc for the fixed service.

(3) Because of probable interference with assignments of Region 1 countries (RCAC) on 3327.5 kc, two new frequencies (for nighttime only) are added for the New York location, 3242.5 kc and 3322.5 kc.

Appendix 3 (Remote Pickup), 4 (Public Safety), 5 (Industrial) and 8 (Fixed and Coast stations in Alaska) are not changed. Appendices 1 through 9 appear below.

The AT&T requested that 2110 kc be retained for ship telephone use on account of the number of ships now equipped for that frequency. The Commission cannot justify the retention of this frequency on the basis of hardship to a group of ships representing a small percentage of the total number of ships licensed for radiotelephone use of medium frequencies. To tie the planning of the frequency list down to such limitations would result in contraction of frequency availability to the Maritime service in this band as well as to the other services. Attempts to satisfy the objections raised by the AT&T by making shifts and changing frequencies with other services proved to be hopeless owing to the extreme congested state of the assignments and owing to the large number of changes which would be necessary.

Considering that the R. T. C. M. 2 Mc. marine telephone recommendations as to additional frequencies for certain ports result in the present situation which is apparently objectionable to the AT&T, it is proposed that certain frequencies be deleted from the plan in order that those remaining may be made more workable and the basic objections of AT&T resolved. While the deletions and changes, as proposed, would provide something less than that recommended by the R. T. C. M., nevertheless it provides for a greatly expanded marine telephone service much more than is presently provided for and at the same time overcomes most of the objections as to frequency separation between frequencies of a duplex pair or between two pairs of frequencies at a given port.

At the present time there are 11 exclusive and 1 shared frequency assigned for broadcast pickup operation between 1600 and 3000 kilocycles. Under the assignment plan proposed herein 3 of these frequencies, between 1600 and 2000 kilocycles (1606, 1622 and 1646 kilocycles) are not involved; 2 frequencies (2150 and 2790 kilocycles) are unchanged, and 1 frequency (2758 kilocycles) is changed only insofar as Alaska stations are involved. The 6 deleted frequencies have been replaced by 10 new frequencies, 7 of which are restricted to daytime operation only. Of these 10 frequencies, 1 (2598 kilocycles) is limited to Alaska only, 7 are limited to the continental United States, and 2 are unrestricted; 1 of the present 12 frequencies (2830 kilocycles) is retained for use in Alaska and Puerto Rico only, but is deleted insofar as continental United States stations are concerned.

RCA, in commenting on behalf of the National Broadcasting Company, Inc. states that the quality and continuity of remote pickup broadcasts will be degraded both by the closer adjacent channel assignments and the daytime only restriction on some of the frequencies. It is difficult to evaluate the overall effect of the proposed adjacent channel operation although it may be assumed that some degradation will result in certain areas due to adjacent channel interference. It is not the purpose of this assignment plan to restrict the bandwidth of emission to ± 2 kilocycles and List A shows 10A3 emission for remote pickup stations. As to the daytime only restriction this should have little overall effect on the service for two reasons; (1) the majority of remote broadcasts originate during daylight hours, and (2) frequencies in this range are subject to severe skywave interference at night and are generally usable only when a ground wave signal of sufficient intensity to completely over-ride the interference is available. Where this condition cannot be obtained in the Medium Frequency range, operation in the High Frequency, VHF, and even UHF region is usually possible and generally more satisfactory. Frequencies are available above 25 Megacycles for broadcast pickup operation.

Some doubt was expressed in behalf of the aeronautical fixed service by ARINC as to the practicability of sharing the frequency 2848 kc. in Texas with the fixed service now operating on that frequency in California. The type of operation now being carried on in California is such that no interference is anticipated. Existing sharing on that frequency bears this out.

Aeronautical Radio, Inc. has requested to be heard in the event their suggested changes cannot be accommodated. It is believed that the plan as revised will adequately accommodate the existing operations in the aeronautical fixed service.

The proposed list, when implemented, may require certain adjustments. Some assignments may find interference conditions such that the service will find it desirable to move to the VHF or consolidate with existing operations.

Some of the comments received in connection with "List A" presented a question concerning the "engineering basis" upon which some of the assignments were proposed. It is pointed out that to the greatest extent possible, engineering considerations do form the basis for the list. However, it must be borne in mind that in preparing the list the avenues of approach required consideration of the fact that the authorized frequency occupancy of the band already approaches saturation. "List A" is not based entirely upon theoretical engineering considerations but takes the present frequency assignment structure remaining in-band under Atlantic City and adds to it those assignments which are out of band. The retention of all present assignments in less spectrum space automatically results in more interference to all.

In some cases of excessive interference, it is contemplated that improvement may be obtained, for example, by a change in frequency assignment based upon actual operating experience or by a greater utilization of VHF wherever possible. Future problems of interference may also be minimized, for example, on the basis of more equalized transmitter power outputs among the entries in List A, more stringent frequency tolerances, more selective receivers, use of directive antennas, single sideband and, in general, a tightening up of various technical standards.

The Commission is transmitting the above mentioned list to the Department of State with the recommendation that it be appropriately considered and coordinated with other American countries.

Secretary.

It appearing, that the above-entitled application of Heart of the Black Hills Station for a permit to change the facilities of Station KDSJ from 1450 kc., 250 w., unlimited to 1420 kc., 500 w., 1 kw–LS, unlimited time, at Deadwood, South Dakota, was designated for hearing November 14, 1950, because of interference with existing stations and because it might not otherwise comply with the Standards of Good Engineering Practice particularly with reference to the coverage of the city of Deadwood, South Dakota, said hearing being scheduled to commence at 10:00 a. m., on January 11, 1951, at Washington, D. [Docket Nos. G–884, G–887]

SOUTHERN NATURAL GAS CO. AND ATLANTIC GULF GAS CO.

ORDER OMITTING INTERMEDIATE DECISION PROCEDURE AND FIXING DATE FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

In the matters of Southern Natural Gas Company, Docket No. G–884; Atlantic Gulf Gas Company, Docket No. G–887.

On October 24, 1950, during the course of the hearing in the above-consolidated proceedings, Atlantic Gulf Gas Company, applicant at Docket No. G–887, moved that the Commission omit the intermediate decision procedure, reserving the right to file briefs; and that the Commission forthwith render the final decision herein.

All counsel, including Staff Counsel, except counsel for the railroad and labor intervenors, concurred in the waiver of the intermediate decision procedure.

The application of Atlantic Gulf at Docket No. G–887 is interrelated with the application of United Gas Pipe Line Company at Docket No. G–1263. The Commission, by order of January 10, 1951, has omitted the intermediate decision procedure at said Docket No. G–1263.

The Commission finds:

(1) It is in the public interest that the proceedings herein be considered at the same time as the proceeding at Docket No. G–1263.

(2) Due and timely execution of its functions imperatively and unavoidably requires that the intermediate decision in the proceedings herein be omitted and that the Commission forthwith render the final decision herein.

(3) It is in the public interest to grant oral argument herein as hereinafter ordered.

(4) Parties to the proceedings herein, who desire to do so, should file briefs, memoranda or proposed findings and conclusions with the Commission on or before January 22, 1951.

The Commission orders:

(A) Pursuant to § 1.30 (c) (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (18 CFR 1.30 (c) (2)), the intermediate decision herein be and the same is hereby omitted.

(B) Oral argument in the proceedings herein be had before the Commission, commencing on January 23, 1951, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t., in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington, D. C.

(C) All parties to these proceedings, who desire to do so, should file briefs, memoranda or proposed findings and conclusions with the Commission on or before January 22, 1951.

(D) All parties to these proceedings who desire to participate in the oral argument are required to so notify the Presiding Examiner, together with the estimated time for their argument, on or before January 19, 1951.

(E) Interested State Commissions may participate as provided by §§ 1.8 and 1.37 (f) (18 CFR 1.8 and 1.37 (f)) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

Date of issuance: January 11, 1951.

TEXAS EASTERN TRANSMISSION CORP. ET AL.

ORDER OMITTING INTERMEDIATE DECISION PROCEDURE CONSOLIDATING PROCEEDINGS, AND FIXING DATE FOR ORAL ARGUMENT

JANUARY 10, 1951.

In the matters of Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation, Docket No. G–1012; United Gas Pipe Line Company, Docket No. G–1263; Algonquin Gas Transmission Company, Docket No. G–1319; United Gas Pipe Line Company, Docket No. G–1447.

On December 15, 1950, during the course of the hearing in the proceedings at Docket No. G–1263 and Docket No. G–1447, United Gas Pipe Line Company (United), applicant therein, moved that the Commission omit the intermediate decision procedure, waive the filing of briefs, fix a date for oral argument, and forthwith render its final decision in those proceedings, pursuant to the provisions of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure (§ 1.30 (c) (2)).

On January 8, 1951, Texas Eastern Transmission Corporation (Texas Eastern), applicant in Docket No. G–1012, filed a motion therein requesting the Commission to omit the intermediate decision procedure as permitted by § 1.30 (c) (2) of said rules of practice and procedure, waiving opportunity for presenting proposed findings and conclusions and for filing exceptions, and requesting opportunity to present oral argument on January 22, 1950, or five days after the adjournment of the hearing therein scheduled to resume on January 15, 1951.

On January 8, 1951, Algonquin Gas Transmission Company (Algonquin), applicant in Docket No. G–1319, filed a motion therein requesting the Commission to omit the intermediate decision procedure as permitted by § 1.30 (c) (2) of said rules of practice and procedure, waiving opportunity for presenting proposed findings and conclusions and for filing exceptions, and requesting opportunity to present oral argument on January 22, 1951, or five days after the adjournment the hearing therein scheduled to resume on January 15, 1951.

It appears that Mississippi River Fuel Corporation, whom United proposes to serve by means of facilities applied for in Docket No. G–1447, has contracts which expire in 1952 for a supply of gas to St. Louis, Missouri, and other markets, which contracts must be replaced by other deliveries of gas on or before March 1, 1952. It also appears that United's contract to supply Texas Eastern with natural gas permits either party to terminate said contract upon notice, unless certain conditions are met, including receipts by United and Texas Eastern of certificates of public convenience and necessity from this Commission on or before February 1, 1951. It further appears that United's contracts to supply Atlantic Gulf, its affiliate, contains similar conditions, including a March 31, 1951, deadline date.

It further appears that United has a gas purchase contract with the Pure Oil Company, covering gas reserves in the Eugene Island area off-shore Louisiana, and that Pure Oil Company holds its leases from the State of Louisiana, which leases require that production be marketed from those reserves on or before November 1, 1951. It further appears that United's contract with Pure Oil Company is conditioned upon United obtaining a certificate of public convenience and necessity on or before March 1, 1951, and taking gas from Pure Oil Company on or before November 1, 1951.

In support of its motion, Texas Eastern states that it is necessary for it to commence construction at the earliest possible date in order to make gas supplies available in the Appalachian, New Jersey and New England areas during the winter of 1951–1952; and that it has contractual commitments for the purchase and sale of gas, for the purchase of material and for financing, which require it to obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity within specified time limits as shown by the evidence of record in Docket No. G–1012.

In support of its motion, Algonquin states that it is necessary that a certificate of public convenience and necessity issue to Algonquin at an early date in order that actual construction may proceed as early in 1951 as weather conditions may permit to afford natural gas service to New England at the earliest practicable time, and that Algonquin has contractual commitments for the purchase of gas from Texas Eastern which require it to obtain a certificate of public convenience and necessity on or before February 1, 1951.

The Commission finds:

(1) There is an immediate need for natural gas service in the areas proposed to be served by applicants in Docket Nos. G–1012, G–1319 and G–1447 at the earliest practicable date.

(2) The matters involved and the issues presented in the proceedings at Docket Nos. G–1263 and G–1447 are closely connected inasmuch as United Gas Pipe Line Company's evidence as to gas supply in Docket No. G–1263 is identical with the evidence submitted by it at Docket No. G–1447.

(3) Pursuant to § 1.30 (c) (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure, due and timely execution of its functions imperatively and unavoidably requires that the intermediate decision in the proceedings at Docket Nos. G–1012, G–1263, G–1319, and G–1447 be omitted.

(4) Good cause has been shown and it is desirable in the public interest that the motion made by United Gas Pipe Line Company at Docket Nos. G–1263 and G–1447 be granted.

(5) Good cause exists and it is desirable in the public interest for the Commission, on its own motion, to omit the intermediate decision procedure at Docket Nos. G–1012 and G–1319, and to grant oral argument therein at the time and place hereinafter fixed.

(6) Any parties to the proceedings at Docket Nos. G–1012, G–1263, G–1319, and G–1447, who desire to do so, should file briefs, memoranda, or proposed findings and conclusions with the Commission on or before the time hereinafter fixed for oral argument.

(7) In view of the interrelationship shown by the evidence to exist between the applications in these proceedings, good cause exists and its is desirable and in the public interest for the Commission on its own motion to consolidate these proceedings for the purposes only of oral argument, consideration, and decision.

The Commission orders:

(A) The motion made by United Gas Pipe Line Company on December 15, 1950, in the proceedings at Docket Nos. G–1263 and G–1447 to omit the intermediate decision procedure, to waive the filing of briefs, and for the fixing of a date for oral argument be and the same hereby is granted, and the intermediate decision procedure be and the same hereby is omitted therein in accordance with the provisions of § 1.30 (c) (2) of the Commission's rules of practice and procedure.

(B) The intermediate decision procedure in the proceedings at Docket Nos. G–1012 and G–1319 be and the same is hereby omitted.

(C) The proceedings at Docket Nos. G–1012, G–1263, G–1319, and G–1447 be and the same are hereby consolidated for the purposes of argument, consideration, and decision.

(D) Oral argument be had before the Commission on January 23, 1951, at 10:00 a. m., e. s. t. in the said consolidated proceedings in the Hearing Room of the Federal Power Commission, 1800 Pennsylvania Avenue NW., Washington,

D. C., and all parties to these consolidated proceedings may file briefs, memoranda, or proposed findings and conclusions with the Commission on or before January 22, 1951. Parties who desire to participate in an oral argument shall notify the Presiding Examiner on or before January 19, 1951, together with estimated time for argument.

Date of issuance: January 11, 1951.

GEORGE HARRIS ET AL.

MEMORANDUM OPINION AND ORDER REVOKING REGISTRATIONS

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of January A. D. 1951.

In the Matter of George Harris, Windsor Hotel, Cumberland, Maryland; Frank B. Pryor, 1517 Buchanan Street NW., Washington, D. C.; Edward E. Reed, 225 Broadway, New York, New York; Frederick J. Rose, 50 Broad Street, New York, New York; Duncan Ross, d/b/a Duncan Ross Company, 342 Madison Avenue, New York, New York; Marcus Simpson, d/b/a M. Simpson Company, Delaware Trust Building, Wilmington, Delaware.

These are proceedings pursuant to section 15 (b) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("the act") to determine whether the persons named above, each of whom is registered as a broker or dealer, or both, willfully violated section 17 (a) of the act and Rule X-17A-5 thereunder, and, if so, whether it is in the public interest to revoke their respective registrations.[1]

The proceedings were instituted by separate notices and orders for hearing dated November 3, 1950. On November 6, 1950, copies of the notices and orders were sent by registered mail to the addresses last furnished to us by the registrants. These registered articles were returned to us by the Post Office Department with notations indicating that the registrants could not be found at the addresses given. None of the registrants appeared in person or through a representative on November 27, 1950, the date set for hearings.[2]

On November 28, 1942, we promulgated Rule X-17A-5 under section 17 (a) of the act, which provides, among other things, that every registered broker or dealer must file with this Commission a report of his financial condition during each calendar year commencing with the year 1943. Promulgation of the rule was announced by publication in the FEDERAL REGISTER, by release to the press, and by distribution to persons on our mailing list.

The registrations of the registrants became effective prior to 1943, and have not been withdrawn, cancelled, revoked or suspended. Our records show that none of the registrants filed the required reports during any year from 1943 through 1949.

Upon review of the records in these proceedings we have concluded that each of the registrants violated section 17 (a) of the act and Rule X-17A-5 thereunder as a result of his failure to file such reports. We conclude also that such violations were willful within the meaning of section 15 (b).[3]

We conclude, on the basis of the foregoing, that it is necessary in the public interest to revoke the registration of each of the registrants. However, in view of the fact that our records do not show whether any of them actually received personal notice of the scheduled hearings, and to avoid any possible prejudice to them, our orders will provide that the revocation of registrations be without prejudice to a motion on the part of any registrant to reopen the proceedings and to seek, upon a proper showing, to set aside the order of revocation as to him.[4]

Accordingly, it is ordered, That the registrations of George Harris, Frank B. Pryor, Edward E. Reed, Frederick J. Rose, Duncan Ross, doing business as Duncan Ross Company, and Marcus Simpson, doing business as M. Simpson Company, be, and they hereby are, revoked without prejudice to a motion by any of said registrants to reopen the record in the proceeding naming him, and, upon a proper showing, to set aside the order of revocation as to him.

STANDARD POWER AND LIGHT CO., AND STANDARD GAS AND ELECTRIC CO.

NOTICE OF FILING OF APPLICATION TO WITHDRAW PENDING PLAN AND TO WITHDRAW AS A PARTY TO PENDING JOINT PLAN

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission, held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C., on the 10th day of January 1951.

In the Matter of Standard Power and Light Corporation, File No. 54-104; Standard Power and Light Corporation and Standard Gas and Electric Company, File No. 54-105.

On June 19, 1942, the Commission entered an order, pursuant to section 11 (b) (2) of the Public Utility Holding Company Act of 1935 ("act"), directing the liquidation and dissolution of Standard Power and Light Corporation ("Standard Power"), a registered holding company. In 1944 Standard Power filed a plan, pursuant to section 11 (e) of the act, proposing the company's liquidation and dissolution (File No. 54-104). That plan was conditioned upon consummation of a joint section 11 (e) plan, which was filed at the same time, by Standard Power and its subsidiary Standard Gas and Electric Company ("Standard Gas"), also a registered holding company (File No. 54-105). The joint plan proposed, inter alia, the settlement of certain inter-company claims between Standard Power and Standard Gas and the transfer by Standard Power of substantially all its assets to Standard Gas in exchange for shares of the common stock of Standard Gas to be issued by

[1] Section 15 (b) provides in part: "The Commission shall, after appropriate notice and opportunity for hearing, by order • • • revoke the registration of any broker or dealer if it finds that such • • • revocation is in the public interest and that (1) such broker or dealer • • • (D) has willfully violated any provision • • • of this title, or of any rule or regulation thereunder."

[2] Our orders and notices instituting these proceedings provided that the same be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER not later than 15 days prior to November 27, 1950. Pursuant to this provision the orders and notices were published in the FEDERAL REGISTER of November 10, 1950. 15 F. R. 7652-55.

Standard Gas pursuant to a plan of recapitalization filed by that company under section 11 (e) of the act. The joint plan was by its terms conditioned upon consummation of the plan of recapitalization of Standard Gas. Although the Commission approved all these plans, the Standard Gas plan was never consummated due to changed conditions. On July 7, 1950, the Commission granted the request of Standard Gas to withdraw its plan of recapitalization and to withdraw as a party to the joint plan. See Holding Company Act Release No. 9960.

Notice is hereby given that Standard Power has filed with the Commission an application in which it requests (a) that it be permitted to withdraw as a party to the aforesaid joint plan; (b) that it be permitted to withdraw its plan for liquidation and dissolution; and (c) that the Commission terminate and dismiss all proceedings before it involving the aforesaid joint plan and the plan for liquidation and dissolution of Standard Power and vacate its order entered February 22, 1945, approving this latter plan.

Standard Power states that it seeks the foregoing relief because the aforesaid joint plan and its own plan for liquidation and dissolution were contingent upon consummation of the recapitalization plan of Standard Gas which has now been withdrawn, and because the records created in the proceedings in connection with said plans are stale and inappropriate as bases for further action by the Commission.

Standard Power expressly agrees that the withdrawal of its plan of liquidation and dissolution and its withdrawal as a party to the joint plan shall not terminate or in any way limit any jurisdiction conferred upon the Commission by law over fees and expenses to be paid in connection with the liquidation and termination of the existence of Standard Power, including the aforesaid plans and any and all transactions relating thereto, and that Standard Power will pay only such of the fees and expenses which are subject to the jurisdiction of the Commission, as aforesaid, as shall be approved, awarded, allowed or allocated by the Commission.

Notice is further given that any interested person may, not later than February 2, 1951, at 5:30 p. m., e. s. t., request the Commission in writing that a hearing be held on such matters stating the reasons for such request, the nature of his interest and the issues of fact or law raised by said application which he desires to controvert or may request that he be notified if the Commission should order a hearing thereon. Any such request should be addressed: Secretary, Securities and Exchange Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C. At any time after February 2, 1951, said application as filed, or as amended, may be granted, subject, however, to the reservation of jurisdiction by the Commission over all fees and expenses paid or to be paid by Standard Power in connection with the aforesaid plans and any and all transactions related thereto.

By the Commission.

Allentown proposes to issue and sell 30,000 shares at par of its common capital stock (par value $50 per share) to UGI in payment of (1) Allentown's 4 percent promissory note in the principal amount of $600,000, maturing January 31, 1951, payable to UGI and (2) advances on open book account by UGI to Allentown, to the extent of $900,000. In order that Allentown may have available sufficient authorized common capital stock, it proposes to increase its authorized common capital stock from 120,000 shares to 200,000 shares, and proceedings to this end are now in progress.

The application-declaration states that the Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission has jurisdiction over the proposed issue and sale of Allentown of 30,000 shares of its common capital stock and that the order of that Commission when issued will be supplied by amendment to the instant application-declaration.

LONDON TERRACE, INC.

NOTICE OF APPLICATION AND ORDER FOR HEARING

At a regular session of the Securities and Exchange Commission held at its office in the city of Washington, D. C. on the 11th day of January A. D. 1951.

Notice is hereby given that London Terrace, Inc. (Company) has filed an application pursuant to section 304 (c) (2) of the Trust Indenture Act of 1939 (act) for an order exempting from the provisions of sections 305 to 307 inclusive, and sections 310 to 318 inclusive of the act a proposed supplemental indenture to the indenture dated April 1, 1937, between the Company and Empire Trust Company, the trustee. The application, together with exhibits, present the following facts.

The Company was organized under the laws of the State of New York, as part of a plan of reorganization under section 77B of the Federal Bankruptcy Act, of a predecessor corporation named "23-24 Corporation". The principal asset of the Company consists of four apartment house buildings located in Manhattan, New York City. The Company offered $5,500,000 in principal amount of First and General Mortgage Bonds, due June 1, 1952, pursuant to an indenture dated April 1, 1937, between the Company, a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company which was dissolved on December 14, 1946 and the Empire Trust Company as trustee. The principal amount of bonds presently outstanding pursuant to the indenture is $4,262,500, which are in the hands of 2,196 holders.

The Company proposes to refinance the presently outstanding bond issue, and toward this end has obtained commitments for the borrowing of $3,500,000 from Aetna Life Insurance Company upon the security of a 15 year 4 percent First Mortgage and for bank loans, on an unsecured basis, in the aggregate sum of $550,000 for a term of 27 months, bearing interest at the rate of 5 percent per annum payable monthly. With the proceeds of the aforementioned loans and its general funds, the Company proposes to call for redemption on or before June 1, 1951 all of its presently outstanding bonded indebtedness.

In order to facilitate the redemption of its presently outstanding bonded indebtedness the Company proposes to amend its indenture of April 1, 1937, to provide that:

1. The Company may call all of its outstanding bonds for redemption at any time and not only on June 1 of each year as provided in the present indenture.

2. Notice of the call for redemption shall be given not less than 15 days prior to the date fixed for redemption rather than 30 days as presently provided.

3. The funds required for payment of the redemption price of the bonds are to be deposited with the trustee at least 2 days before the date fixed for redemption instead of at least 30 days prior thereto as presently required by the indenture.

4. The call for redemption may, by resolution of the Board of Directors, be rescinded at any time prior to the deposit of the redemption price with the trustee.

5. The above proposed amendments to the indenture (paragraphs 1 to 4 inclusive) are to be effective only if the bonds are called for redemption on or before June 1, 1951. If the call for redemption is not made on or before that date, the above proposed amendments are not to be effective thereafter and the indenture is to continue in full force and in effect as if unamended.

In order to effectuate the proposed program of redemption and the amendment of the indenture, the Company must have the approval, pursuant to the terms of the indenture, of 75 percent of the outstanding principal amount of bonds, and, pursuant to the provisions of the laws of the State of New York, the consent of 66⅔ percent of the outstanding shares of common stock of the Company. The Company proposes to solicit the necessary consents.

The purpose of the instant application is to secure an exemption from the above enumerated sections of the act for the proposed supplemental indenture effecting the indicated amendments to the present indenture for the stated limited purpose.

For a more detailed statement of the matters of fact and law asserted, all interested persons are referred to said application, which is on file in the offices of the Commission at 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C.

The Division of Corporation Finance has advised the Commission that upon a preliminary examination of the application it deems the following issues to be raised thereby, without prejudice to the specification of additional issues upon further examination:

1. Whether the aforesaid allegations contained in the application are true;

2. Whether, in the event the allegations of the Company are true, compliance with the provisions of sections 305 to 307 inclusive and 310 to 318 inclusive of the act would impose an undue burden on the Company, having due regard to the public interest and the interests of investors.

It appearing to the Commission that a public hearing upon said application is necessary and appropriate;

It is ordered, Pursuant to sections 304 (c) (2) and 320 of said act, that a public hearing on the aforesaid application be held on January 29, 1951, at 10 a. m., eastern standard time, in Room 101 of the Offices of the Commission, 425 Second Street NW., Washington 25, D. C.

It is further ordered, That James G. Ewell, or any officer or officers of the Commission designated by it for that purpose, shall preside at the hearing, and any officer or officers to preside at any such hearing is hereby authorized to exercise all of the powers granted by the Commission under sections 320 and 321 (a) of said act and to hearing officers under the Commission's rules of practice.

Notice of such hearing is hereby given to the Company, and to any other person or persons whose participation in such proceedings may be of public interest. Any person desiring to be heard or otherwise wishing to participate in such proceedings should file with the Secretary of the Commission, on or before January 26, 1951, his application therefor as provided by Rule XVII of the rules of practice of the Commission, setting forth therein any of the above issues of law or fact which he desires to controvert and any additional issues he deems raised by the aforesaid application.

By the Commission.

The example in the first sentence of § 16.2 (b), Customs Regulations of 1943 (19 CFR 16.2 (b)), as to the disposition of fractions in determining internal-revenue taxes in connection with distilled spirits imported in barrels, kegs, or similar containers, is based on internal-revenue regulations which have been superseded by the Internal Revenue Gauging Manual of 1950. (c) Effective date. The amendments made by this section shall apply to amounts paid on or after the first day of the first month which begins more than ten days after the date of the enactment of this act for transportation which begins on or after such first day.

PAR. 2. Section 143.11 is amended to read as follows:

§ 143.11 Scope of tax. Section 3475 (a) imposes a tax upon (a) amounts paid within the United States after December 1, 1942, for transportation, originating on or after such date, of property by rail, motor vehicle, water, or air from one point in the United States to another, and (b) amounts paid without the United States, on or after November 1, 1950, for transportation, originating on or after such date, of property by rail, motor vehicle, water, or air from one point in the United States to another. The tax applies only to amounts paid to a person engaged in the business of transporting property for hire.

PAR. 3. Section 143.13 (a), as amended by Treasury Decision 5354, approved April 1, 1944, is further amended as follows:

(A) By inserting in the second undesignated paragraph immediately following the word "within" the words "or without."

(B) By amending the fourth undesignated paragraph to read as follows:

With respect to amounts paid within the United States, the tax applies only to amounts paid after December 1, 1942, for transportation which originated on or after that date. No tax attaches to payments for transportation originating prior to the first moment of December 1, 1942. Payments made prior to December 2, 1942, are not taxable regardless of when the transportation occurs.

With respect to amounts paid without the United States, the tax applies to amounts paid on or after November 1, 1950, for transportation originating on or after that date.

(C) By inserting at the end thereof the following paragraph:

Where a payment covering the entire movement of property from a point without the United States to a point within the United States is made to the originating carrier or freight forwarder outside the United States and such carrier or freight forwarder pays an amount within the United States for that part of the transportation movement which takes place within the United States, a statement to the effect that the transportation within the United States is part of a transportation movement from without the United States and that payment covering the entire movement was made outside the United States shall be endorsed on the appropriate shipping papers. Such endorsement shall constitute authority to the carrier within the United States not to collect the tax.

PAR. 4. Section 143.30 is amended by striking from the first sentence the words "in the United States".

Because of the short period of time between September 23, 1950, the date of approval of the Revenue Act of 1950, and November 1, 1950, the date upon which, pursuant to such act, the amendment of section 3475 (a) becomes effective, it is found that it is impracticable to issue this Treasury decision with notice and public procedure thereon under section 4 (a) of the Administrative Procedure Act, approved June 11, 1946, or subject to the effective date limitation of section 4 (c) of said act.

Commissioner of Internal Revenue.

TITLE 32A—NATIONAL DEFENSE, APPENDIX

Chapter I—National Production Authority, Department of Commerce

[NPA Order M-15, as Amended January 15, 1951]

SUBPART B—USE OF ZINC

This order, as amended, is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense and is issued pursuant to the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations. However, consultation with representatives of all trades and industries affected in advance of the issuance of this order has been rendered impracticable by the fact that the order affects a large number of different trades and industries.

This amendment affects NPA Order M-15, dated December 1, 1950, as follows:

It adds a new paragraph (e) to § 28.22 and amends paragraph (a) of § 28.23. As amended, this part is revised to read as follows:

Sec.
28.21 What this part does.
28.22 Definitions.
28.23 Zinc forms and products to which this part applies.
28.24 Application of part.
28.25 Use of zinc and zinc products.
28.26 Maintenance and repair.
28.27 Exemptions.
28.28 Inventories.
28.29 Application for adjustment or exception.
28.30 Records and reports.
28.31 Communications.
28.32 Violations.

AUTHORITY: §§ 28.21 to 28.32 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., sec. 101, E. O. 10161, Sept. 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105.

§ 28.21 What this part does. The purpose of this part is to describe how the zinc and zinc products remaining after allowing for the requirements of national defense may be distributed and used in the civilian economy. It is the policy of the National Production Authority that zinc and zinc products and articles made of zinc and zinc products, not required to fill rated orders, shall be distributed equitably through normal channels of distribution, and that due regard shall be given by suppliers to the needs of new and small business. It is the intent of this part that other materials which are not in short supply will be substituted for zinc and zinc products wherever possible.

§ 28.22 Definitions. As used in this part:

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Base period" means the six months period ending June 30, 1950.

(c) "Maintenance" means the minimum upkeep necessary to continue a building, machine, piece of equipment, or facility in sound working condition, and "repair" means the restoration of a building, machine, piece of equipment or facility to sound working condition when the same has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, damage, failure of parts or the like: Provided, however, Neither maintenance nor repair includes the improvement of any such item with material of a better kind, quality or design.

(d) "Operating supplies" means any zinc or zinc product listed in § 28.23 which are normally carried by a person as operating supplies according to established accounting practice and are not included in his finished product, except that materials included in such product which are normally chargeable to operating expense may be treated as operating supplies.

"(e) 'Manufacture' means to put into process, machine, incorporate into products, assemble, fabricate or otherwise alter the forms and products of zinc defined in § 28.23 by physical or chemical means."

"(a) 'Zinc' which means slab zinc which has been produced by electrolytic, electrothermic, or fire refining process, including zinc produced from scrap, dross, or other secondary material, and any alloy in which the percentage of zinc by weight is more than 50 percent."

(b) "Zinc products" which means zinc in the form of sheet, strip (ribbon), rod, wire, castings, plates and shapes either drawn or extruded.

§ 28.24 Application of part. Subject to the exemptions stated in § 28.27, this part applies to all persons who use zinc or zinc products in manufacture, processing or construction, or for maintenance, repair, or operating supplies.

§ 28.25 Use of zinc and zinc products. Subject to the exemptions stated in § 28.27, or unless specifically directed by the National Production Authority, no person shall use in manufacture, processing, construction, or for operating supplies during the calendar quarter commencing on January 1, 1951, and each calendar quarter thereafter, a total quantity by weight of zinc and zinc products in excess of 80 percent of his average quarterly use of such products during the base period: Provided, however, That his use of such items in any one month shall not exceed 40 percent of the permitted quarterly use.

§ 28.26 Maintenance and repair. Unless specifically authorized by the National Production Authority, during the calendar quarter period commencing on January 1, 1951, and each calendar quarter thereafter, no person shall use for maintenance and repair a quantity by weight of zinc and zinc products in excess of his average quarterly use for such purposes during the base period.

§ 28.27 Exemptions. (a) The use of zinc and zinc products to fill an order that is rated under the priorities system established by Part 11 of this chapter (NPA Reg. 2), or to meet any mandatory order of the National Production Authority, is permitted in addition to the use of zinc and zinc products authorized by the provisions of §§ 28.25 and 28.26.

(b) Zinc and zinc products acquired by a rated order or to meet a scheduled program of the National Production Authority may be used in addition to the quantities permitted by the provisions of §§ 28.25 and 28.26.

(c) The provisions of §§ 28.25 and 28.26 do not apply to persons who use less than 3,000 lbs. of zinc and zinc products during any calendar quarter: Provided, however, That persons who by reason of the provisions of § 28.25 would be permitted to use less than 3,000 lbs. during any calendar quarter may use during such period a quantity up to 3,000 lbs.

(d) The provisions of §§ 28.25 and 28.26 do not apply to the use of zinc or zinc products: (1) To comply with safety regulations issued under governmental authority which require the use of such items; (2) in research laboratories where and to the extent that the physical or chemical material requirements make the use of any other material impracticable; or (3) in electroplating where it replaces cadmium.

§ 28.28 Inventories. In addition to the provisions of Part 10 of this chapter (NPA Reg. 1), relating to Inventory Control, it is considered that a more exact requirement applying to users of zinc or zinc products is necessary. No person obtaining zinc or zinc products for use in manufacture, processing or construction, or for maintenance, repair or operating supplies, may receive or accept delivery of a quantity of zinc or zinc products if his inventory is, or by such receipt would become, in excess of that necessary to meet his deliveries or supply his services on the basis of his scheduled method and rate of operation pursuant to this part during the succeeding 45-day period, or in excess of a "practicable minimum working inventory" (as defined in Part 10 of this chapter NPA Reg. 1), whichever is less. For the purpose of this section, zinc and zinc products listed in § 28.23 in which only minor changes or alterations have been effected shall be included in inventory. NPA Reg. 1 will apply to zinc and zinc products except as modified by this section.

§ 28.29 Application for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this part may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that his business operation was commenced during or after the base period, or because any provision otherwise works an undue or exceptional hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade or industry or its enforcement against him would not be in the interest of the national defense or in the public interest. In examining requests for adjustment claiming that the public interest is prejudiced by the application of any provision of this part, consideration will be given to the requirements of the public health and safety, civilian defense, and dislocation of labor and resulting unemployment that would impair the defense program. Each request shall be in writing and shall set forth all pertinent facts and the nature of the relief sought, and shall state the justification therefor.

§ 28.30 Records and reports. (a) Each person participating in any transaction covered by this part shall retain in his possession for at least two years records of receipts, deliveries, inventories, and use, in sufficient detail to permit an audit that determines for each transaction that the provisions of this part have been met. This does not specify any particular accounting method and does not require alteration of the system of records customarily maintained, provided such records supply an adequate basis for audit. Records may be retained in the form of microfilm or other photographic copies instead of the originals.

(b) All records required by this part shall be made available at the usual place of business where maintained for inspection and audit by duly authorized representatives of the National Production Authority.

(c) Persons subject to this part shall make such records and submit such reports to the National Production Authority as it shall require, subject to the terms of the Federal Reports Act. (Pub. Law 831, 77th Cong., 5 U. S. C. 139–139F).

§ 28.31 Communications. All communications concerning this part shall be addressed to the National Production Authority, Washington 25, D. C., Ref: M-15.

§ 28.32 Violations. Any person who wilfully violates any provisions of this part or any other order or regulation of the National Production Authority (or wilfully conceals a material fact or furnishes false information in the course of operation under this part is guilty of a crime and upon conviction may be punished by fine or imprisonment or both. In addition, administrative action may be taken against any such person to suspend his privilege of making or receiving further deliveries of materials or using facilities under priority or allocation control and to deprive him of further priorities assistance.

NOTE: All reporting and record-keeping requirements of this part have been approved by the Bureau of the Budget in accordance with the Federal Reports Act of 1942.

This part, as amended, shall take effect on January 15, 1951.

NATIONAL PRODUCTION AUTHORITY,
Administrator.

PART 71—CONSTRUCTION

This order as amended is found necessary and appropriate to promote the national defense, and is issued pursuant to authority granted by Section 101 of the Defense Production Act of 1950. In the formulation of this order, there has been consultation with industry representatives, including trade association representatives, and consideration has been given to their recommendations.

This amendment constitutes, in effect, a completely new order; and rescinds all sections of NPA Order M-4 as amended November 15, 1950, and substitutes the following in lieu thereof:

Sec.
71.1 What this part does.
71.2 Policy of the National Production Authority.
71.3 Definitions.
71.4 Prohibited construction.
71.5 Exemptions.
71.6 Authorization for certain construction.
71.7 Multiple use of buildings, structures or projects.
71.8 Scope of this part.
71.9 Prohibited deliveries.
71.10 Defense against claims for damages.
71.11 Applications for adjustment or exception.
71.12 Communications.
71.13 Reports.
71.14 Violations.
71.15 List A—Prohibited construction.
71.16 List B—Construction where NPA authorization is required.

AUTHORITY: §§ 71.1 to 71.16 issued under sec. 704, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong. Interpret or apply sec. 101, Pub. Law 774, 81st Cong., sec. 101, E. O. 10161, September 9, 1950, 15 F. R. 6105.

§ 71.1 What this part does. In order to further the purposes of the Defense Production Act of 1950 by conserving critical materials and services needed for the defense program, this part prohibits the commencement of construction of certain types of buildings, structures and projects unless specific exception is made, or authorization issued, by the National Production Authority. The construction prohibited generally does not further the defense effort, either directly or indirectly, and does not increase the Nation's production capacity for defense. The part allows, within specified limits, small construction jobs, and necessary maintenance and repair of buildings, structures or projects, and also permits, under specified circumstances, the restoration of buildings, structures, or projects in the event of a disaster, act of God, or an act of war.

§ 71.2 Policy of the National Production Authority. In the event that increasing shortages clearly indicate the necessity for such action, in the national interest, the National Production Authority may further limit the commencement of construction of additional types of buildings, structures or projects which do not support the defense effort, or increase the Nation's production capacity for defense.

(a) "Person" means any individual, corporation, partnership, association, or any other organized group of persons, and includes any agency of the United States or any other government.

(b) "Construction" means the erection of any building, structure, or project, or addition or extension thereto, or alteration thereof, through the incorporation-in-place on the site of materials which are to be an integral and permanent part of the building, structure or project.

(c) "Commence construction" means to incorporate into a building, structure or project, a substantial quantity of materials which are to be an integral and permanent part of such building, structure, or project (for example, the pouring or placing of footings or other foundations).

(1) The following activities do not constitute commencing construction: Demolition of buildings; tearing out partitions; site preparation; erecting temporary fences or construction barricades, work sheds, and shanties; bringing utilities to the site; fabrication or processing of building materials, building equipment, or personal property to be installed.

(d) "Construction cost" means the total expense for building materials, building equipment, labor and services used in the construction of the particular building, structure or project, by whomever spent; but does not include the installed cost of personal property.

(e) "Consumer goods" means articles or commodities that directly satisfy human wants or desires, and which are capable of use without further processing (for example, clothing, food, furniture, floor covering, household appliances, motor vehicles, etc.). They are distinguished from capital goods (for example, dynamos, industrial ovens, generators, etc.). They are distinguished also from production goods that satisfy wants only indirectly as factors in the production of other articles or commodities (for example, machine tools, heavy duty presses, etc.).

(f) "Damage restoration" means restoring to substantially the same size and condition on the same site, any building, structure or project which has been damaged by storm, fire, flood, or other disaster, or by act of God, or act of war.

(g) "Maintenance and repair" means such work as is necessary to keep a building, structure or project in sound working condition or to rehabilitate a building, structure or project or any portion thereof, when the same has been rendered unsafe or unfit for service by wear and tear, or other similar causes. The term does not include any building operation or job where substantial structural alterations or changes in design are made.

(h) "Personal property" means property used in connection with, but which does not become a part of, the building, structure or project in the sense of its becoming a permanent part of the real property upon which it is located or in which it is installed.

§ 71.4 Prohibited construction. (a) Except as permitted in § 71.5, or pursuant to an adjustment or exception granted under § 71.11, after midnight October 26, 1950, no person shall commence construction of any building, structure or project to be used for, or in connection with, any of the purposes specified, as set forth in § 71.15.

(1) Since October 26, 1950, the National Production Authority has issued exceptions to permit the commencement of construction of specific buildings, structures or projects of the type prohibited by § 71.15. All such exceptions granted prior to January 13, 1951, will cease to be effective 120 days after the date of issuance, unless construction has been commenced within that time; and construction of any such building, structure or project may not be commenced thereafter without a further authorization from the National Production Authority.

(b) After midnight, January 13, 1951, no person shall commence construction of any building, structure or project to be used for, or in connection with, any of the purposes specified, as set forth in § 71.16, until a specific authorization therefor has been issued by the National Production Authority. As a general rule, no authorization will be issued prior to February 15, 1951. However, in emergency situations, an authorization may be issued by the National Production Authority prior to that date. (The conditions which must exist before an authorization will be issued are set forth in § 71.6.)

Further, in matters involving unreasonable hardship, or when required in the interest of the national defense, the National Production Authority may grant an exception from this part at any time, pursuant to § 71.11, with respect to types of construction specified in § 71.16.

§ 71.5 Exemptions. The following construction in connection with the buildings, structures or projects to be used in connection with any of the purposes specified in § 71.15 and § 71.16 is exempted from this part:

(a) Maintenance and repair on any building, structure or project.

(b) Small jobs of new construction or in connection with any such building, structure or project including, but not limited to, alterations, additions, improvements and modernizations where the construction cost of all such work shall not exceed the sum of $5,000 for any consecutive twelve months' period.

(c) Reconstruction of any such building, structure or project following a fire, flood, storm, disaster, act of God, or act of war, which occurred on or after July 29, 1950.

(d) Construction by, or for the account of, the Department of Defense or the Atomic Energy Commission.

§ 71.6 Authorization for certain construction. (a) Any person desiring to erect a building, structure or project to be used for, or in connection with, any of the purposes specified, as set forth in § 71.16, may apply for a National Production Authority authorization to commence such construction. The application shall be in such form as may be prescribed by the National Production Authority.

(b) Authorization under this section will be granted if the National Production Authority is satisfied that the desired construction conforms to the following requirements:

(1) It furthers the defense effort by providing facilities of the type specified in § 71.16 in areas adjacent to military establishments or defense plants and projects, which construction the National Production Authority considers necessary to furnish, or to supplement, facilities in connection with the activities of the Defense Production Administration, the Department of Defense or the Atomic Energy Commission, including their programs for increasing production capacity; or

(2) It is essential to maintenance of public health, safety or welfare.

(c) Further, with respect to an application for authorization to construct a facility not directly related to the defense effort, the NPA will consider the type and quantity of materials on hand, and needed, for the facility; and the effect on the community at large if the authorization were denied.

§ 71.7 Multiple use buildings, structures or projects. Where a building, structure or project to be constructed is designed for a number of different uses and occupants, no portion thereof shall be constructed for use or occupancy in connection with any of the purposes specified in § 71.15 or § 71.16 where the construction cost apportionable to such use or occupancy will exceed the small job exemption provided for in § 71.5 (b).

§ 71.8 Scope of this part. This part shall apply to construction in the 48 States, the District of Columbia, and in the territories and insular possessions of the United States.

§ 71.9 Prohibited deliveries. No person shall accept an order for, sell, deliver, or cause to be delivered, material, equipment or supplies which he knows, or has reason to believe, will be used in violation of the provisions of this part.

§ 71.10 Defense against claims for damages. No person shall be held liable for damages or penalties for any default under contract or order which shall result directly or indirectly from compliance with any regulation or order of the National Production Authority (including any direction, directive or other instruction), notwithstanding that any such regulation or order shall thereafter be declared by a judicial or other competent authority to be invalid.

§ 71.11 Applications for adjustment or exception. Any person affected by any provision of this part may file a request for adjustment or exception upon the ground that:

(a) Such provision works an unreasonable hardship upon him not suffered generally by others in the same trade, industry or other relative position; or that enforcement of such provision against him would not be in the interest of the national defense. In determining whether unreasonable hardship exists, the National Production Authority will consider, among other things:

(1) The extent of the work done by the applicant incident to the proposed construction.

Chapter I—Bureau of Land Management, Department of the Interior

[Circular 1783]

PART 141—COLOR-OF-TITLE AND RIPARIAN CLAIMS APPLICABLE TO PARTICULAR STATES

COLOR-OF-TITLE CLAIMS, MICHIGAN

The following text is added to Part 141:

§ 141.27 Statutory authority; applications; reservation of coal and other minerals not required; reservation of fissionable materials required. (a) The act of June 30, 1948 (62 Stat. 1171) directs the Secretary of the Interior to issue a patent to a tract or tracts of public land in Monroe County, Michigan, not exceeding in the aggregate 160 acres, upon payment for the land at the rate of $1.25 per acre, where within five years after the passage of the act it is shown to his satisfaction that the land has been held in good faith and in peaceable, adverse possession by a citizen of the United States, his ancestors or grantors, for more than 20 years prior to the approval of the act under claim or color-of-title, and where improvements have been placed on the land or some part thereof has been reduced to cultivation. The act provides that the term "citizen" as used therein shall be held to include a corporation organized under the laws of the United States or any State or Territory thereof.

(b) Applications under the act of June 30, 1948, will be filed and processed in accordance with the regulations contained in Part 140 of this chapter under the color-of-title act of December 22, 1928 (45 Stat. 1069; 43 U. (c) The act of June 30, 1948, unlike the color-of-title act of December 22, 1928, does not authorize the reservation to the United States of the coal and other mineral deposits in the land and no reservation of such deposits will be made.

(d) The provision contained in section 5 (b) (7) of the Atomic Energy Act of August 1, 1946 (60 Stat. 760; 42 U. S. C. 1805 (b) (7)) for the reservation of fissionable materials to the United States in patents for public lands issued after August 1, 1946, was made "subject to valid claims, rights, or privileges existing on August 1, 1946." As this act was passed prior to the enactment of the color of title act of June 30, 1948, a reservation of fissionable materials in accordance with § 102.43 of this chapter will be made in every patent issued under the act of June 30, 1948.

[Docket No. AO-222]

HANDLING OF MILK IN SPRINGFIELD, MO., MARKETING AREA

DECISION WITH RESPECT TO PROPOSED MARKETING AGREEMENT AND TO PROPOSED ORDER

Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was conducted at Springfield, Missouri, April 17-20, 1950, pursuant to notice thereof which was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on March 30, 1950 (15 F. R. 1813, Doc. 50-2673).

Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at the hearing and the record thereof the Acting Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, on October 17, 1950, filed with the Hearing Clerk, United States Department of Agriculture, his recommended decision. Notice of such recommended decision and opportunity to file written exceptions thereto was published in the FEDERAL REGISTER on October 20, 1950 (15 F. R. 7017, Doc. 50-9291).

The material issues of record related to:

1. Whether the handling of milk produced for the Springfield, Missouri, fluid milk market is in the current of interstate commerce or directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk or its products;
2. The need for regulation;
3. The extent of the marketing area;
4. What milk should be priced under the order;
5. The classification of milk;
6. The level of class prices to be paid and means of determining such prices;
7. The type of pool; and
8. Administrative provisions.

Rulings on exceptions. Within the period for filing exceptions to the recommended decision, exceptions were submitted on behalf of certain interested parties. These exceptions have been fully considered and to the extent to which the findings and conclusions of this decision are at variance with the exceptions, such exceptions are hereby overruled.

Findings and conclusions. The following findings and conclusions on the material issues decided herein are made on the basis of the record of the hearing:

1. The handling of milk in the Springfield, Missouri, market is in the current of interstate commerce, and directly burdens, obstructs, or affects interstate commerce in milk and its products.

Springfield handlers are making regular distribution of milk for fluid use on routes operated from their plants to points in the State of Arkansas. Springfield is located in the southwestern portion of Missouri, approximately fifty miles north of the Arkansas State line. Two of the larger Springfield handlers operate routes to the cities of Harrison, Springdale, and Mountain House, Arkansas. The volume of such distribution is estimated as 15-20 percent of the total fluid milk sales of the market.

The milk supply for Springfield is produced in an area from which St. Louis handlers purchase milk under Federal Order No. 3 and there is active competition between Springfield handlers and St. Louis handlers for milk supplies. Shifting of producers between the Springfield fluid milk market and the St. Louis fluid milk market has occurred. A large cooperative association, now a handler under the St. Louis order, operates a plant in Springfield and markets considerable inspected milk for fluid use outside the State of Missouri. Milk from this plant and as well as from out of state sources was used during recent months to supplement the supplies received from regular producers by Springfield plants. Milk is regularly marketed on routes in the Springfield market from a plant at Lebanon, Missouri, which is a regular source of supply for St. Louis. Milk is also marketed from this plant to Texas cities.

There are 14 dairy manufacturing plants within the area from which Springfield draws its milk supply. These plants make large quantities of butter, cheese, evaporated milk, and nonfat dry milk solids, and sell a large percentage of such products outside the State of Missouri. Springfield inspected milk which is not used for fluid requirements is at times diverted into these plants for manufacture into products which move in interstate commerce.

2. Marketing conditions in the Springfield, Missouri, marketing area justify the issuance of a marketing agreement or order.

At present producers for the Springfield market are selling their milk to handlers at flat prices without regard to the use made of such milk by handlers. Such prices are usually negotiated between the Greene County Milk Producers Association, which represents a portion of the producers and the handlers. While the level of these flat prices appears to have been satisfactory in recent months, the flat price plan has resulted in inequalities in price between handlers which endanger the stability of the market.

For a number of years prior to 1942 the producer association sold milk on a classified price plan. This plan was replaced by flat prices when demands for milk from nearby army camps exceeded the production which the association had available during the period in which ceiling prices were in effect. Association efforts to restore the classified price plan in post war years have been ineffective. Unsuccessful attempts were made in 1947 and in the spring of 1949 to return to classified prices. Some handlers did not cooperate in applying the classified price plan, but instead continued to purchase their fluid needs at a flat price below the classified price for Class I milk. As a result, association members carried the burden of seasonal surpluses, and some handlers paid less than others for milk for fluid use. These classified price plans did not provide for audits of plant records to establish final classification of milk, despite inaccuracies in the reported utilization.

Producer numbers and producer deliveries of milk declined sharply during the post-war period, while St. Louis handlers purchasing milk in the same production area from which Springfield draws its supplies were adding producers rapidly. During 1949, after increases in flat prices were negotiated, there was some gain in the number of producers supplying Springfield, but supplies in the fall of 1949 were still inadequate to meet the market's needs and emergency supplies were obtained. At the same time, St. Louis handlers were acquiring additional producers in this area at a much more rapid rate at prices less than those nominally in effect for Springfield.

It is evident that the present marketing plan fails to provide sufficient stability of pricing to induce a sufficient number of producers to supply the market. In addition, no provision is made for distributing the burden of seasonal surpluses equitably among producers, or for equality of costs to handlers for milk for fluid use. An order is needed to assure producers of an effective price plan which will reflect the requirements of the market for milk and assure equity to producers and handlers.

3. The marketing area should be the area within the limits of the city of Springfield, Missouri.

Producers proposed that Greene County, Missouri, in which the city of Springfield is located, be defined as the marketing area. One handler proposed that Laclede and Webster Counties, Missouri be added.

At present all milk sold for fluid use in Greene County is Grade A milk inspected by the Springfield Health Department. Milk may be sold, however, in Greene County which is not approved for Springfield, and there is some question from the record as to whether the inspection authority for such milk is that of Greene County, Missouri, or of the State of Missouri. Should this authority be the State of Missouri, the inclusion of all of Greene County in the defined marketing area might result in including in the Springfield pool milk inspected under State authority for markets quite distant from Springfield, and which would have slight relationship to the marketing area.

One handler proposed that the marketing area include additional territory. This handler, who supplies St. Louis and is now regulated under the order for that area, has his plant at Lebanon, Missouri, fifty miles from Springfield where he bottles the milk he sells in Springfield. This handler proposed that the marketing area also include the county in which his plant is located and another county between that county and Greene County. No evidence was given on the record, however, concerning marketing conditions in the additional territory other than a showing that the city of Lebanon has an ordinance with requirements somewhat similar to those of Springfield. There is no evidence in the record that the handling of milk is closely interrelated in these markets. Therefore, it is concluded that the marketing area should be confined to the city of Springfield, Missouri.

4. Milk to be priced under the order should be that produced under the inspection of health authorities of the marketing area for consumption as Grade A milk which is regularly delivered to a plant from which such milk is distributed on routes in the marketing area.

As indicated in the discussion with respect to the extent of the marketing area, the regular supply of milk for the marketing area is produced by farmers who are under the inspection of and who hold Grade A permits issued by the health authority of the city of Springfield.

In addition to the regular supply from locally inspected producers, short season supplies have been received by Springfield plants under emergency approval of the city health authority from sources approved by other health authorities. Among these sources is the Springfield plant of the Producers Creamery Company, which does not operate routes in the marketing area, but a portion of whose operations and the farms supplying it are approved under the Grade A standards of the State of Missouri. The Producers Creamery Company is a handler under the St. Louis order with respect to its operations at this plant and two other plants.

The milk which should be priced and pooled under the order should be that which constitutes the regular source of supply of the market. This regular source of supply may be delineated by setting out the definition of the following terms: "producer," "handler," and "approved plant."

"Producer" should be defined to include those persons, other than producer-handlers, who produce milk under a dairy farm permit or rating issued by the appropriate health authority of the marketing area for the production of milk intended for consumption as Grade A milk which is received at an approved plant directly from the farm on which produced. Producer-handler (those who distribute only milk of their own production) should not be included in this definition since such persons normally sell to handlers only that milk which is in excess of the needs of their own operations. Other terms of the order provide that producer-handlers will not share with other producers the proceeds of their Class I sales; hence they should not obtain a pro rata share of the Class I sales on any milk they may furnish to a handler. A producer regularly supplying the market should not lose his status as such during temporary periods when a handler diverts his milk from an approved plant for the handler's account. Even though they may meet all the requirements of the producer definition persons whose milk is priced under another Federal order are not included under this order, in order to prevent dual regulation of their prices. Special provisions are included with respect to milk priced under another Federal order.

"Approved plant" should be defined as a milk plant or portion thereof approved by an appropriate health authority for the handling of milk for consumption as Grade A milk in the marketing area, and from which Class I milk is disposed of in the marketing area on wholesale or retail routes (including plant stores or vendors). The approved plant definition should exclude, however, plants which are not regularly engaged in supplying the market, but which furnish milk to handlers in the market during temporary periods of shortage. Inclusion of such plants would be beyond the intended scope of the order, and would involve pricing milk not primarily produced for the Springfield market.

"Handler," to whom the regulatory provisions of the order are applicable, should be defined as the operator of an approved plant in his capacity as such, and a cooperative association with respect to milk which it causes to be diverted from an approved plant to an unapproved plant for its account. It is the operators of approved plants, of course, who furnish the regular supply of milk to the market. At times of flush production, proprietary handlers do not always accept milk from all producers or arrange for diversion of milk. Producers whose milk is not accepted receive returns equal only to the manufacturing price for milk even though these producers may be needed to supply the market later in the year. It has been the practice of the Greene County Milk Producers Association to divert milk to manufacturing plants under such conditions, and the provision that a cooperative association may be a handler even though it does not operate a plant will make it possible for the Association to continue the practice, while at the same time maintain the diverted milk under the pricing and pooling requirements of the order. Producers whose milk is temporarily diverted will thus continue to receive the regulated market price for their milk and the marketing of surplus milk will be facilitated.

The Producers Creamery Company proposed that these definitions be modified so that its Springfield plant which operates no routes in the marketing area would be a "reserve pool plant," and that a portion of its receipts would be considered producer milk and be priced and pooled under the order. As a basis for such proposal, its representative testified that as a local producers' cooperative with ample supplies of Grade A milk, it felt an obligation to supply any deficit needs of the market, and that its producers should share in the market throughout the year on the basis of the amount of milk supplied during the short season. It proposed as a condition for such status that it be required to have no commitments for disposition of milk which would prevent it from supplying deficit needs as they appeared, and that the amount delivered to other handlers for Class I uses during the short season and the seasonal pattern of production of the market should determine the amount of its milk to be included for other months.

As indicated elsewhere in this decision, the inspected receipts of this plant are priced and pooled under the St. Louis order. No solution was offered to the administrative problem of attempting to price and pool this milk under two orders, of which one pools milk by handlers and the other would provide for a market-wide pool. Neither is it clear that the Springfield market will require a guaranteed reserve supply. It would be entirely possible for this cooperative association to supply the market without the special provisions. If received at its St. Louis regulated plant and transferred to Springfield handlers, such milk would be treated as other source milk. The cooperative can, however, have producers as needed secure Springfield permits and can supply Springfield handlers by moving the milk directly to their plants. As a cooperative, it can divert the milk of these producers to an unapproved plant it operates in Springfield when it is not needed by the local market and such producers will remain in the Springfield pool; further the cooperative association can collect payments for the milk furnished handlers and in accordance with the provisions of the Marketing Agreement Act blend the proceeds with those of its sales of milk in all other markets. Since the "reserve pool plant" proposal involves administrative problems for which there is now no apparent solution, and since the general objective may be obtained by other means, the proposal should not be included in the order.

Since the record indicates that one handler located at Lebanon, Missouri, distributes milk on routes in the marketing area from a plant at which he is subject to regulation under the St. Louis order, provision should be made to avoid the situation where such a person would be subject to regulation under two different orders with respect to the same milk. It appears reasonable that the effective regulation should be that of the market in which such person has the greater portion of his sales, which in this case, would appear to be the St. Louis market. Such a person should not, however, be permitted to purchase milk for sale as Class I milk in the Springfield area at less than the price paid by other handlers in that area. Therefore, such a handler should be required to pay into the producer-settlement fund any amount by which the Springfield Class I price exceeds that charged him under another order for all Class I milk disposed of within the marketing area. Such a handler should also be required to report to the market administrator regularly so that the market administrator may ascertain the amount of milk disposed of within the area.

5. The order should provide for two classes of milk. Class I milk should include those products such as fluid milk, skim milk, buttermilk, cream, and milk drinks which are required to be made from inspected milk. It should also include all skim milk and butterfat not specifically accounted for as a Class II product. Class II milk should be that used primarily for manufactured products for which inspected milk is not required, the value of which, therefore, is not determined primarily by local supply-demand conditions which affect the supply of locally inspected milk. Included in Class II also is shrinkage up to 2 percent of receipts from producers, shrinkage on other source milk, and inventory changes of Class I products. The volume of milk to be accounted for in each class should be determined on the basis of the pounds of skim milk and butterfat in each class. All testimony on the record favored the classification system herein provided for.

Provision must also be made for the classification of milk when it is transferred or diverted in the form of milk, skim milk, or cream to other milk plants. The provisions included here provide for classification where such movements are to approved plants, to producer-handlers, and to unapproved plants. Transfers to the approved plants of other handlers may be in either class as agreed upon between the parties to the transactions, subject to the general requirement that producer milk shall have priority over other source milk for Class I use. Transfers to producer-handlers should be at Class I since such persons have primarily Class I operations, and ordinarily purchase from handlers only for Class I use. Transfers to unapproved plants within 125 miles of Springfield may be at Class II if both the buyer and seller so state in writing, the buyer maintains records of utilization which the market administrator may audit, and the buyer actually uses an equivalent amount of milk in Class II uses; otherwise, such transfers are Class I milk. Transfers to unapproved plants beyond 125 miles from Springfield are Class I. The record shows ample manufacturing facilities within the 125 mile limit to handle all surplus producer milk and no necessity was shown for Class II milk to move greater distances. Within this radius will be included the only plant any distance from Springfield to which any handler may find it convenient to move milk for Class II use.

In order to prevent other source milk from displacing milk of producers who constitute the regular source of supply of a plant, the proposal adopted allocates other source milk to the lowest use in an approved plant. This provision will apply to supplies temporarily approved for use in periods of shortage as well as any unapproved supplies, as other source milk includes all skim milk or butterfat other than that in producer milk. Such supplies are needed only after all producer milk is used in Class I milk.

6. The order should provide for a Class I price formula made up of three major components: (1) A basic formula price, (2) differentials over the basic formula price, and (3) an adjustment of the differentials to reflect changes in the ratio of receipts of milk from producers to sales of Class I milk—in other words, a supply-demand adjustment.

The basic formula provided for is the same as that contained in the order regulating the handling of milk in the St. Louis marketing area. This formula is the higher of: (1) Prices paid producers for milk delivered to 26 plants which manufacture such milk into evaporated milk, or (2) a price representative of the value of manufacturing milk derived from the market price for 92-score butter at Chicago and the average price of nonfat dry milk solids at a large number of plants in Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan, Illinois, and Indiana.

The use of a basic formula similar to that used in St. Louis for fixing Class I prices in Springfield is appropriate for two reasons. First, a basic formula of this type reflects the changing values of milk for manufacturing purposes produced in the same area from whence Springfield draws its supplies of milk. Most milk production in this area is disposed of in the form of dairy products. The prices of these products, therefore, are especially influential with respect to the prices which will be paid for milk for fluid consumption in Springfield. Second, St. Louis obtains a portion of its milk supplies from the same area from which Springfield draws its supplies. The variations in prices paid for milk for sale in St. Louis will, therefore, have an important effect upon the value of milk for sale in Springfield. The use in this order of a basic formula similar to that provided for in the St. Louis order will change prices for milk in Springfield in accordance with changes in the value of milk for sale in the St. Louis market.

The differential over the basic formula price for Class I milk under this order should be $1.08 per hundredweight for the months of July through December of each year, 83 cents for the months of January through March, and 63 cents per hundredweight for the months of April through June.

The level of the differentials applicable under the St. Louis order are important determinants of the levels of the differentials under this order for reasons similar to those which indicated that the basic formula price under this order should be the same as that effective under the St. Louis order. The differentials proposed herein are 27 cents below the differentials applicable to Class I milk f. o. b. the St. Louis marketing area. The competition which Springfield handlers must meet in obtaining supplies of milk are the paying prices of St. Louis handlers with plants located in the area from which Springfield draws its supplies. The paying prices of these handlers are based on a 27-cent adjustment for location from St. Louis. In the recommended decision of the Acting Assistant Administrator, Production and Marketing Administration, it was proposed that the differentials stated above should be increased by 10 cents to offset a payment of like amount by St. Louis handlers to producers cooling their milk with mechanical refrigeration, in view of the temperature requirements for delivery of milk under the Springfield ordinance. Exception was taken to this recommendation on the basis that such payments by St. Louis handlers were not disclosed by the record. While such payments were disclosed by the record (Ex 14 table 10) to have been made, the record is not conclusive as to whether they were currently made at the time of the hearing. Such payments were voluntary payments above the St. Louis order prices. In order that the pricing under the two orders may be more closely integrated, it is concluded in this decision that the differentials should be as stated above.

A further temporary increase of 15 cents per hundredweight over the St. Louis price is also necessary for all months other than the surplus months of April, May and June, in order to increase the supply of milk in this market to levels of adequacy. For some time Springfield milk dealers have been paying producers delivering to this market a price equal to the weighted average price of all milk at St. Louis. This price has been higher than the prices paid by St. Louis handlers at plants located in the Springfield supply area.

Despite the higher prices paid for milk by Springfield milk dealers, this market has been short of milk. In 1949 Class I sales exceeded receipts of approved milk from producers in 7 of the 12 months. In November of that year sales of Class I milk exceeded receipts from producers by 14 percent. During the last two years the St. Louis market has obtained large numbers of new producers from within the Springfield supply area. During the same period Springfield either lost producers or regained them very slowly. During the period November 1947 to November 1949 the number of producers in this area shipping to the St. Louis market increased from 54 to 372. During 1948 the number of Springfield producers actually decreased and in 1949 only 41 producers were added to the Springfield suppliers.

A supply-demand adjustment is proposed herein which, because of lack of information, will not come into play for about a year after the effective date of this order. It is estimated, however, that if the supply-demand adjustment could be made effective at this time, it would result in an increase of at least 18 cents per hundredweight in the differentials otherwise provided for. The temporary increase of 15 cents per hundredweight should be continued therefore only until such time as the supply-demand adjustment becomes effective.

The differentials provided for should be subject to adjustment for variation in the ratio of supplies of milk from approved producers to the sales of Class I milk. If the market is less than normally supplied, the differentials above the basic formula price should be increased in order to induce a greater supply of milk. Conversely, if the market is more than normally supplied, the differentials should be reduced. An adjustment similar to that provided for the St. Louis market is, therefore, contained in this order and it will automatically adjust the differentials on the basis of the ratio of supplies of milk to sales during each preceding year.

As a standard for an adequate market supply an annual volume of producer milk equal to 115 percent of Class I sales should be adopted. Experience under other orders which have classification and accounting features similar to those here proposed and in areas in which seasonality of production is comparable to that which may be expected in Springfield indicates that 115 percent of Class I sales is a reasonable standard for an adequate supply of milk on an annual basis. The adjustment will increase differentials for January through March by 1 cent per hundredweight and for July through December by 2 cents per hundredweight for each percentage point that the ratio of supplies of producer milk to sales of Class I milk falls below this standard for the most recent 12-month period for which data are available at the beginning of each such period; no increases are provided for April through June, which are normally months of high production for which supplies are adequate. The adjustment will decrease differentials for each of these series of months by 2 cents per hundredweight for each percentage point that the ratio of supplies to sales exceeds 115 percent for the most recent 12-month period for which data are available prior to the beginning of each such period.

Exception was taken to the inclusion of this supply-demand adjustment on the basis that it was not proposed or supported at the hearing. Pricing proposals at the hearing, however, were to relate Springfield prices to St. Louis prices, which are governed by a similar adjustment. It is concluded that the ratio of supplies to sales in the Springfield market is a more appropriate basis for indicating changes in the Springfield prices than is a similar ratio in St. Louis.

The Class II price should be the basic formula price except that for the months of April through July 1951 such price should be reduced by 15 cents per hundredweight. The basic formula price is the price at which St. Louis handlers who compete for Grade A milk supplies in this area are charged for their Class II milk. It is based on the paying prices of milk for manufacturing purposes, or the market values of manufactured dairy products.

It was proposed that Class II prices be established at the paying prices of five local manufacturing plants, on the basis that these plants represent outlets to which milk surplus to the needs of the market is at times diverted, since not all Springfield handlers have manufacturing facilities. During 1948 and 1949 the paying prices of these five plants have been less than the basic formula prices. Except for short period of flush production the volume of what will be Class II milk has not exceeded the reserves necessary to compensate for day to day variations in Class I sales. In such small amounts approved milk even though used for Class II products has a value in excess of that of unapproved manufacturing milk.

The use of the basic formula price as herein adopted, and the use of such price with a reduction of 20 cents for the months of April through July were also proposed. The record indicates that some adjustment for the months of flush production may be needed to insure that all producer milk will be handled during the flush production season, but is not conclusive on this point.

Since the individual utilization of the several handlers is not available from the record, it is concluded that a reduction of 15 cents per hundredweight of Class II milk should be made for the months of April through July of 1951 only, in order to insure that all producers milk will be received during the initial year of operation of the order.

The class prices determined for milk of 3.5 percent butterfat content should be adjusted by butterfat differentials to determine the value of milk of the actual butterfat content used by a handler in each class. The proponents of the order advocated that for both Class I and Class II milk this butterfat differential be established on the basis of 1.2 times the price of 92-score butter at Chicago, a value generally accepted in the area for the butterfat content of butter. Such a differential would fail to recognize any increased value for butterfat in the Class I products requiring inspected milk, and would allocate the entire difference in value between Class I milk and Class II milk to skim milk. It is concluded that there is increased value of butterfat in Class I milk and that a Class I butterfat differential based on 1.25 times the price of 92-score butter and a Class II butterfat differential based on 1.2 times the price of 92-score butter should be adopted. This is the same butterfat differential provided for in the St. Louis order and will tend to maintain prices between the two markets in appropriate relationship.

7. A market-wide pool should be adopted.

All producers should receive a uniform price without regard to the use made of their milk by the individual handler to whom it was delivered. A market-wide pool will accomplish this result. This type of pool will permit diversion of seasonal surpluses of milk to manufacturing uses as necessary and will require all producers to share the burden of such surpluses. There was no opposition to the proposal for a market-wide pool.

8. Certain other provisions should be adopted in order to carry out administratively the purposes of the regulation.

(a) Administrative assessments. Each handler should be required to pay to the market administrator, as his pro rata share of the costs of administration of the order 5 cents per hundredweight, or such amount not to exceed 5 cents per hundredweight, as the Secretary may from time to time prescribe, on receipts of (1) producer milk and (2) other source milk required to be reported.

The market administrator is required to verify the disposition of all milk received in order to properly determine the classification of producer milk. A charge on receipts of other source milk will appropriately apportion the expense among handlers.

In view of the anticipated volume of milk on which the rate would apply, a maximum rate of 5 cents per hundredweight should be adopted to guarantee sufficient administrative income. This is in line with the provision of other milk orders of similar complexity regulating milk handling in markets of about the same size. In the event a lesser amount proves upon experience to be sufficient for proper administration, provisions should be made to enable the Secretary to revise the assessment accordingly within the 5-cent maximum without the necessity of amending the order. The act provides that such assessments shall be the means of financing the cost of administration.

(b) Deductions for marketing services. Provisions should be included for furnishing marketing services to producers who do not belong to a cooperative association which performs such services, and appropriate deductions should be made therefor. Such provisions are specifically authorized by the act and the proponents of the order proposed a rate of assessment 5 cents per hundredweight with respect to the milk of such producers to cover expenses in connection with the services to be rendered. The costs of performing such services will vary with the number of producers and the volume of milk. No testimony was offered to show the propriety of any other rate of assessment. In view of the anticipated volume of milk for which such services will be required, it is determined that the deductions for them from payments to producers should be at the rate of 5 cents per hundredweight of milk until such time as it can be determined from experience that a different rate will be appropriate. In the event any cooperative association of producers performs such services for its members, handlers will be required to pay to the cooperative association such deductions as are authorized by the members of the association.

(c) Reports and records. The order should require handlers to maintain adequate records and to make certain reports. Such reports and records are necessary for the purpose of determining proper classification and payment for the milk of producers.

Reports of utilization should be filed not later than the seventh day after the end of each delivery period to assure a uniform price announcement by the 12th day after the end of the delivery period.

(d) Audits. The order should provide for the auditing of each handler's reports and records as one means of assuring that handlers are complying with the terms of the order. It is necessary also that the handler provide whatever facilities are necessary to verify reports or to ascertain the correct information regarding the receipts and utilization of milk and payments to producers.

(e) Payments to producers. Although the uniform price is computed only once a month, provision should be made for payment to producers semi-monthly. Producers proposed an "advance" payment covering milk delivered during the first 15 days of the month to be made on or before the last day of the month. Producers customarily have been paid twice a month and this practice should be continued. Handlers offered no opposition to this plan of payment. The mid-month payment should be fixed at not less than the rate of the Class II price for the preceding month. The final payment for each month should be made on or before the 15th day after the end of such month. Dates for the filing of handler reports and for the computation and announcement of the uniform price have been adjusted in a manner which will permit handlers to make required payments both to producers and the producer-settlement fund within the respective dates prescribed. Thus, a reasonably adequate time is allowed handlers in which to make final payments to producers.

(f) Other administrative provisions. The other provisions of the order which are of a general administrative nature are found in all orders and are necessary for proper and efficient administration of the order. They provide for the selection of a market administrator, define his powers and duties, prescribe the information to be reported by handlers each month, set forth the rules to be followed by the market administrator in making computations required by the order. They also provide a plan for liquidation of the order in the event of its suspension or termination.

A "producer-handler" should be exempt from all the regulatory provisions of the order except that requiring the filing of reports as requested by the market administrator. The producer-handler, by definition, is a person who does not buy milk from producers and is not responsible for the classification of any such milk. In these respects his situation is different from that of other handlers. On the other hand, such persons frequently change their status. It is necessary, therefore, for the market administrator to receive reports from the producer-handler in order to verify his continued status as such as well as to supplement other market information.

The order should also provide for the retention of necessary records and the ultimate termination of obligations. The provisions with respect to these items are those which experience under other marketing orders has shown to be appropriate.

It was proposed that if a handler fails to make the required reports or payments, his name may be publicly announced by the market administrator, unless otherwise directed by the Secretary. It is concluded that this provision should be adopted since it will facilitate the enforcement of the terms of the order.

Determination of representative period. The month of October 1950 is hereby determined to be the representative period for the purpose of ascertaining whether the issuance of an order to regulate the handling of milk in the Springfield, Missouri, marketing area in the manner set forth in the attached order is approved or favored by producers who during such period were engaged in the production of milk for sale in the marketing area specified in such marketing order.

General findings. (a) The proposed marketing agreement and the order and all of the terms and conditions thereof will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(b) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds, and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the proposed marketing agreement and the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk, and be in the public interest; and

(c) The proposed order will regulate the handling of milk in the same manner as, and will be applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

Marketing agreement and order. Annexed hereto and made a part hereof are two documents entitled respectively "Marketing Agreement Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Springfield, Missouri, Marketing Area," and "Order Regulating the Handling of Milk in the Springfield, Missouri, Marketing Area," which have been decided upon as the detailed and appropriate means of effectuating the foregoing conclusions. These documents shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

It is hereby ordered, That all of this decision, except the attached Marketing Agreement, be published in the FEDERAL REGISTER. The regulatory provisions of said marketing agreement are identical with those contained in the attached order which will be published with this decision.

This decision filed at Washington, D. C., this 15th day of January 1951.

§ 921.0 Findings and determinations—(a) Findings upon the basis of the hearing record. Pursuant to the provisions of the Agricultural Marketing Agreement Act of 1937, as amended (7 U. S. C. 601 et seq.), and the applicable rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing the formulation of marketing agreements and marketing orders (7 CFR Part 900), a public hearing was held April 17–20, 1950, at Springfield,

[1] This order shall not become effective unless and until the requirements of § 900.14 of the rules of practice and procedure, as amended, governing proceedings to formulate marketing agreements and orders have been met.

Missouri, upon a proposed marketing agreement and a proposed order, regulating the handling of milk in the Springfield, Missouri, marketing area. Upon the basis of the evidence introduced at such hearing and the record thereof, it is found that:

(1) The said order, and all of the terms and conditions thereof, will tend to effectuate the declared policy of the act;

(2) The parity prices of milk as determined pursuant to section 2 of the act are not reasonable in view of the price of feeds, available supplies of feeds and other economic conditions which affect market supply and demand for milk in the said marketing area, and the minimum prices specified in the order are such prices as will reflect the aforesaid factors, insure a sufficient quantity of pure and wholesome milk and be in the public interest;

(3) The said order regulates the handling of milk in the same manner as and is applicable only to persons in the respective classes of industrial and commercial activity specified in a marketing agreement upon which a hearing has been held.

(4) All milk and milk products, handled by handlers, as defined in this part, are in the current of interstate commerce or directly burden, obstruct, or affect interstate commerce in milk or its products; and

(5) It is hereby found that the necessary expenses of the market administrator for the maintenance and functioning of such agency will require the payment by each handler, as his pro rata share of such expenses, 5 cents per hundredweight or such amount not exceeding 5 cents per hundredweight as the Secretary may prescribe, with respect to all (i) producer milk (including such handler's own production) received during the month and (ii) other source milk required to be reported during the month.
